

Ice Company Will Agree To Zone Changes If Gas Station Permit Is Given

Ask Property Near Crystal Lake Be Changed From Manufacturing to Residence Zone

The petition of Elsie Tufts of Somerville for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 1365 Centre street, Newton Centre, was the subject of sharp controversy, at two public hearings in City Hall the past week. The first hearing was held last Friday night before the Claims and Rules Committee. This hearing was on two petitions. One was signed by Elsie Tufts, as representative of the Metropolitan Ice Company, and asks that a lot of land on Norwood avenue, Newton Centre be changed from business zone to single residence zone. The other petition was from the Purity-Crystal Ice Company, and asks that the former ice house property, bounded by Crystal Lake, Norwood avenue, Centre street and the B & A tracks be changed from manufacturing zone to general residence zone. Allen T. Rogers of 176 Homer street, Newton Centre, who represented the ice company, which owns the property in question, told the committee that the petitions were presented continuing to a permit being granted for the gasoline station at the corner of Centre street and Norwood avenue.

Albert M. Chandler of 1699 Fuller st., president of the Newton Centre Improvement Association, spoke in favor of the petitions. He said the former ice house property has been an eyesore for years and that the compromise of granting a permit for the filling station in return for the change of zoning of the remainder of the property is a reasonable solution for this problem. He stated that unless the Aldermen grant the petition for the gasoline station, in fairness to the ice company the zoning petitions should be given leave to withdraw.

Steve Berke of 43 Norwood avenue, who had strongly opposed previous petitions for gasoline station permits at the same location in past years, spoke in favor of granting all three petitions. Berke said that a large number of people residing in the neighborhood had come to the opinion that a gasoline station on the site would be preferable to a block of stores, as the rear of the stores would create an eyesore to nearby residences. He stated that if the gasoline station permit were granted, the unsightly old stable at the rear of the lot on Norwood avenue will be razed, and the debris removed from the site of the former ice house near the lake. Berke read about 20 letters from persons residing in the neighborhood, all of whom favored the three petitions.

General Daniel Needham, attorney for the Atlantic Refining Company, which would operate the filling station, favored the granting of the zoning petitions. He said the ice company had driven a hard bargain with his client by obligating the Atlantic Refining Company to remove the old stable, and also clean the debris from the other lot, provided the Metropolitan Company decides not to assume this expense.

Albert T. Stuart of Institution ave., opposed the granting of the permit for the gasoline station. He stated that Bishop Richard J. Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, is opposed to the granting of any permit for a gasoline station at Centre street and Norwood ave. because of the traffic hazard it would cause to the many children who attend the parochial school, and who pass by the station location several times each school day. Stuart said that children from three other schools, the Weeks, Mason and Rice, also have to pass by the site, and would also be endangered. He asserted that six major gasoline stations desire locations on Centre st. near the Newton Centre business section, and if the Board of Aldermen grant this petition, similar petitions from other gasoline companies cannot consistently be refused. He asked—"Do you want to create a 'gasoline alley' along this section of Centre st.? Why should the children of Newton Centre be sacrificed to help a company out of financial difficulties?"

Irving C. Paul of 1402 Centre st., opposed the granting of the permit for the gasoline station. He criticized the Metropolitan Ice Company for not having removed the debris from the burned ice house, or removing the eyesores of the former fruit market and burned stable on the other part of the property. He said the company should be compelled to clean up this public nuisance, and the petition for the gasoline permit ought to be considered on its own merits, and not as a trade in order to get the owners of the property to do something that they should have done long ago. He questioned the right of the Aldermen to be parties to such a deal, and he also took issue with Mr. Chandler in the contention that the Newton Centre Improvement Association favors the granting of the permits. Mr. Paul stated that he is a member of the association and that no meetings of the general membership had been called to take action on this matter.

Members of the Newton Planning Board were present at the hearing. The Claims and Rules Committee has, as yet, made no recommendations on the zoning changes.

Wellesley Man First 1940 Auto Victim

The first fatality caused by an automobile in Newton this year resulted in the death on Saturday at Newton Hospital of Frank A. Malaguti, 24, of 33 Oak st., Wellesley. At 12:30 a. m. on March 28 a car driven by Malaguti hit a ridge of snow on Washington st., near Aspen ave., Auburndale, then hit a telephone pole, and tipped over. Malaguti was hurled through the top of the convertible coupe and received a fractured skull and other injuries. Another occupant of the car, Biagio Napoleone, 23, of Oak st., Wellesley, was also injured. Malaguti is survived by his parents and a sister. His funeral service was held on Monday morning at St. Paul's Church, Wellesley.

City Sells All Horses It Owned

The "horse and buggy days" ended about a quarter of a century ago. The "horse and wagon" days ended for the City of Newton last Tuesday when nineteen horses owned by the city and used by the Street Department were auctioned off to the highest of four bidders. He was Edward G. Malone, a contractor who resides in Newton and his bid was $2050. The lowest of the four bids was $1500. A happier future was assured the twentieth horse—"Jim," one of the oldest in the group. He will spend his declining years at "Red Acres Farm," that heaven on earth for old horses. The Street Department also will sell seven single tip-carts.

Newton Aldermen Decline To Mix In Census Squabble

By a vote of 15 to 2 the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night declined to pass a resolution asking the citizens of Newton to co-operate in the matter of the population census now being taken. Ex-Alderman John Brocklesby (who with M. Bernard McCarthy received the appointments of squad leaders in taking the census in Newton) requested Mayor Goddard to have such a resolution passed. A communication from the Mayor to the Board of Aldermen stated that: "The authorities would appreciate a resolution by the Board of Aldermen calling upon our citizens to co-operate in the matter of the population census."

The Mayor's communication stated that he submitted the request to the Board for "any action the Board may care to take thereon."

The meeting was about to adjourn without any action having been taken on this communication from the Mayor, when Alderman Eugene Cronin of Ward 3 moved that the Board pass a resolution calling for co-operation from citizens, in accordance with the request made to Mayor Goddard. Alderman Fahey seconded Cronin's motion. Alderman Hughes opposed Cronin's motion. He said that there has been much criticism of the present census because of questions concerning person's private affairs and that the legality of such questions has been doubted. Hughes commented that it would be inappropriate for the Aldermen to tell Newton people what to do in this matter, and it is for each individual to make up his own mind. Alderman Inches said he would vote against passing any such resolution because: "It is none of our business." Alderman Rawson also opposed the resolution. He said the present census questions regarding person's incomes and mortgages are an invasion of our constitutional rights. Alderman Barwise said he would vote against Cronin's motion.

Community Council Annual Meeting

Effective methods of aiding youth were discussed by Newton social service workers at the annual meeting of the Newton Community Council held Wednesday at the Newtonville Women's Club. Emphasizing that the home and the church were of first importance in youth training Rev. John A. Sheridan and Rabbi Samuel N. Sherman joined in declaring that social service agencies both public and private must strive to keep families together and Miss Harriet S. Parsons, general secretary of the Newton Family Service Bureau, and Charles C. Dasey, president of the Newton Catholic Welfare Committee, declared that young people in families on relief must have their confidence restored.

Tribute to the effectiveness of social work in Newton was paid by Miss Emily Hickey, Assistant Probation Officer of the Newton District Court, who reported that Newton's juvenile delinquency rate was very low. "Last year," she said, "only 34 boys and girls under 17 years of age were before the Newton District Court. Newton has no serious juvenile delinquency problem."

Young people must be helped during the period between their graduation from school and the time they get jobs Paul E. Elicker, principal of the Newton High School stated. "A recent survey," he said, "shows that three years usually elapse before a high school graduate gets a job. It is most important that leisure time activities be organized for these young people who cannot get work under present conditions."

At the business session of the Council the following officers were elected for the coming year: Chairman, Donald M. Hill; Assistant Chairmen, John Barry, Harold P. Carver, Clarence G. (Continued on page 10)

Members of the Rotary Club of Newton and their wives, as hosts, will greet about 500 visiting Rotarians and their wives at the annual Spring Conference, which this year will be held on Tuesday, April 9th, in that city, according to Mr. Arthur Kay, Governor of the 197th District of Rotary International.

The District includes the following Rotary Clubs: Worcester, Gardner, Needham, Newton, Fitchburg, Lowell, Watertown, Hudson, Clinton, Webster, Waltham, Uxbridge, Natick, Framingham, Southbridge, Franklin, Milford, Concord, Athol, Leominster, Blackstone, Dedham and Marlboro.

Mr. L. A. The new District Governor will be elected and there will be inspiring addresses and conferences on the many phases of Rotary.

A special program for the ladies will be carried on by a Committee under the leadership of Mrs. John E. Cox, of Newtonville, wife of a member of the Newton Club.

The day's program, which starts at 10:00 with registration, will end with a banquet, followed by a presentation of Oscar Wilde's "Birthday of the Infanta" by girls of the physical education department of the Newton High School. This presentation will be quite unusual, in that the cast speaks in verse to a special orchestral accompaniment.

Underhill Member Recreation Board, Tyler Appeal Board

The appointments of John H. Underhill of 227 Windsor rd., Waban, as a member of the Recreation Commission and Roger B. Tyler of 350 Waverley ave., as a member of the Board of Appeal were sent to the Board of Aldermen on Monday by Mayor Goddard. In conformity with the rules, the appointments were laid on the table until the next meeting of the Board. Mr. Underhill succeeds George Kellar of Auburndale, who declined a reappointment because of poor health. Mr. Tyler succeeds C. Raymond Cabot of Newtonville, who resigned from the Board of Appeal because he was elected to the School Committee. On motion of Alderman Rawson, the Board passed a resolution expressing regret at the termination of Mr. Kellar's long and faithful service as a member of the Playground Commission, and hope that his health will improve and enable him to resume his duties as Secretary of the School Department.

Bishop Cushing Opposes Gasoline Station Near Sacred Heart School

Former Opponents of Permit For Gas Station Near Crystal Lake Now Favor It

The interwoven petitions aiming to end the eyesore, near Crystal Lake caused by the abandoned ice company property in exchange for the granting of a permit for a gasoline filling station on another part of this property (at the corner of Centre st. and Norwood ave.), met with considerable opposition on Monday night, when a public hearing on the petition for the gasoline station permit was held before the Board of Aldermen.

A letter to the Board of Aldermen signed by Bishop Richard Cushing, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, and the curates of that church was read. It protested against the granting of a permit for a gasoline station at Centre st. and Norwood ave., because such a station would be a hazard to automobiles and pedestrians, especially to the children going to and from the Sacred Heart parochial school.

Gen. Daniel Needham, as attorney for Atlantic Refining Company, which would operate the station if a permit will be granted, was the first speaker in favor of the petition. He said that the locus is zoned for business and that the present petition was presented after much discussion with the Newton Centre Improvement Association, the Newton Highlands Improvement Association, and persons who reside in the vicinity of the property in question.

Mr. Needham said that every effort had been made to meet objections, and by granting the permit for the gasoline station, one of the city's eyesores will be eliminated. He stated that his client has agreed to remove the old stable at the rear of the lot where it is proposed to establish the filling station. He argued that besides improving the appearance of the place, the station will reduce, rather than increase traffic hazards, as there is a tendency for cars entering a filling station to slow down, and speed is the greatest cause of accidents. He said that if stores will be erected at this place, parking of cars will follow, and this will increase traffic hazards.

whereas, if a gasoline station is put on the locus there will be no parking in front of it. He commented that he had never heard of any pedestrian having been hit by an automobile entering or leaving a gasoline station. Frank Conant, 39 Norwood ave., said he had opposed petitions for a gasoline station permit at this locus in past years because of the traffic hazard it would create for the school children, but after looking at the problem from all angles, he had decided that there could be a poorer solution, and the filling station would be better than other commercial enterprises. George Cashman, speaking as attorney for Margaret Murray, owner of abutting property, favored the petition. He said the Atlantic Company will not keep the station open later than 11 at night and the property will be improved.

Allen Rogers, representing the Metropolitan Ice Company, said efforts have been made for years to solve the problem of putting the former ice house property at and near Crystal Lake to some use, and the plan under discussion seems to be the only solution. Albert M. Chandler, president of the Newton Centre Improvement Association told of the efforts which have been made over a period of 3 years by various civic groups to eliminate the eyesore at this property near Crystal Lake, how all possible plans were considered, including that of the city buying the property for park purposes, and then this plan was evolved, and it meets with general approval. Mr. Chandler, like other of the former opponents of previous petitions for the filling station permit, had changed his views on the traffic hazard contention, and stated "We would not suggest a plan that would increase the traffic hazard." He said that he had asked traffic experts if they believe gasoline stations increase hazards to pedestrians, and they answered "No." He asserted that the gasoline station at the corner of Centre and Willow sts. has not caused any increase in traffic hazards.

Alderman Temperley questioned Mr. Chandler as to whether, or not, the Newton Centre Improvement Association had held four meetings this past year, as its rules call for, and if the members of the association at such meetings had voted in favor of the present petition for the gasoline station, or if this matter had been brought before any regular meeting of the association. Temperley remarked that Chandler gave the impression that the association now (Continued on page 10)

THIRTY-MILE SPEED LIMIT

A thirty-mile-per-hour speed limit on Newton streets became effective on Monday of this week. On the whole automobile drivers of Newton are co-operating with this method of safety promotion. The results over a period of time will prove the effectiveness of the plan. In other cities controlled speed has reduced the number and seriousness of accidents. Last Saturday Newton experienced its first automobile fatality of the year. The thirty-mile speed limit may be the means of making the next major accident more remote, despite the fact that enjoyable weather conditions make for greater speed. Drive safely.

Oak Hill Imp. Assn. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Oak Hill Improvement Association will be held on Tuesday evening, April 9, at 8 o'clock in the Oak Hill School. There will be an address by Mayor Goddard, committee reports, color pictures shown by Russell Hastings and a social period.

Newton Couple Entertained Before Moving to Michigan

Prior to their departure on Monday for St. Clair, Michigan, Dr. and Mrs. J. Avery Dunn were guests of honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Heath of 1835 Beacon st., Waban on Saturday, March 30th. Dr. Dunn has been appointed assistant to the executive head of the Diamond Crystal Salt Company. The Duns have lived in Newton the past eight years, and have been active in church, social and community affairs. Their son, Ted, is a student at Dartmouth College.

About fifty guests gathered for the evening were presented with a souvenir pencil of the salt company and other novel and interesting favors.

Sunbeam Chats

Hope when I grow up I'll be as smart as my mother. She sure knows a lot. I heard her telling a neighbor the other day 'bout a child's stomach. 'Cause her little girl wouldn't drink a big glass of milk at each meal. My mother said, "At one year of age a little child's stomach only holds about a measuring cup full of food and liquid at one time. If most little children eat their meal there isn't much room left for a cup of milk too." "But what do you do about milk?" the other neighbor demanded—"It's simple," my mother said, "I give the baby something cooked with milk at each meal such as cereal, soup, pudding, creamed vegetable or creamed toast—then he doesn't need to drink but four ounces (a small glass). A child doesn't need to drink a quart of milk a day. It's better to cook part of it in his food and it's just as nourishing that way, too."

(Sunbeam Chats are sponsored by the Newton District Nursing Association.)

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

One of Newton's chief assets during the past century has been—the thousands of beautiful shade trees which lined its streets. In recent years there has been a tendency to curtail the planting of trees along our streets, as a matter of economy. This year $8000 was asked by the Street Department for the planting of new trees, but this amount was cut in the budget by the Mayor to $5000. This will result in the planting of trees only on newly accepted streets. As a large number of trees were destroyed on accepted streets by the hurricane in September, 1938, replacements that should be made, cannot be made this year. People who reside on the older streets in Newton, and who have paid taxes here for many years, are entitled to have the attractiveness of their streets retained, and not have them gradually denuded of trees. To save a few thousands of dollars a year, it is poor economy not to maintain the large number of trees which have made Newton in the past so much more attractive than communities with few shade trees along their streets.

On April 10, 1939, Aldermen Maxwell Gaddis, chairman of the Street Traffic Committee of the Board of Aldermen, speaking before the Lower Falls Improvement Association advocated a 30 mile speed limit in Newton. His associates on the 1939 Traffic Committee (Aldermen Bacon and Fahey) agreed with him in this matter. Mr. Gaddis conferred with Chief of Police Hughes regarding this speed limit last year, and the Chief favored the proposal. Mayor Goddard also favored it, and last Monday it went into effect. The percentage of motor vehicle drivers in Newton who are grumbling against the enforcement of this speed limit is very small. The big majority of men and women in Newton who operate automobiles seem willing to curb their desire to speed in the hope that slower driving in Newton will bring the same excellent results it has in Providence, Springfield, Worcester and other cities where 25 and 30 mile speed limits have been enforced for sometime. In Providence and Worcester the speed limit is 25 miles, and automobile fatalities and accidents have diminished greatly in these two busy cities. Both the police and judges in Providence and Worcester have worked in harmony to bring this happy result.

Last year automobile accidents caused 12 deaths in Newton. During the past several years there have been over 50 deaths in this city as a result of automobile accidents, and many of the victims have been pedestrians of advanced years. For years statistics collected by insurance companies have proved that speed is the cause of the great majority of automobile accidents and fatalities. Speeding by other vehicles, speeding around curves and past street intersections, speeding over the brow of a hill, speeding on wet or icy roads, speeding at night—all these forms of speed have been responsible for most automobile accidents. Speeding at night is the principal cause of fatalities where pedestrians are the victims. And the shameful feature of the vast number of deaths occurring annually in the U. S. A. because of speeding, is—that there is no need of such hurry on the part of automobile operators who habitually drive at high rates of speed. Many drivers by starting a few minutes earlier to work or on pleasure bent, can eliminate the need of fast driving. Other drivers start early enough, but drive fast from habit or because they like to "show off" by passing everything on the road or bragging how rapidly they traveled from this place to that. But, if such "speeders" had someone dear to them mangled and killed by a motor vehicle, or if they themselves were badly injured, they would have more consideration for the sorrows and sufferings which are heaped on so many in this speed-mad country of ours every year because of the ruthless operation of automobiles.

It is about 4 miles from the Wellesley-Newton line to Newton Corner, Brookline, or from the North boundary of the city to the South, on our principal highways. The difference in time taken by driving at a 30 mile rate instead of a 40 mile rate over 4 miles, when one has to stop at traffic signals en route, is about one minute. It is better for everyone to take a minute longer driving in or through Newton than to be seriously injured or even killed in the course of a year.

It would seem that those residents of Newton Centre (and Newton Highlands) who for years strongly objected to the granting of any permit for a gasoline filling station on the ice company property, either adjoining Crystal Lake, or at the corner of Centre st. and Norwood ave., and who now have reversed their attitude on this matter, must yield to the policy that—"The end justifies the means." It is somewhat amusing to listen to persons assert in past years that a gasoline station at Centre st. and Norwood ave. would be a serious traffic hazard to children and others, and now hear these same persons either argue that such a station will not be a menace, or that it won't be a sufficient traffic menace to offset the aesthetic advantage to be gained by eliminating the eyesore at the former ice house property. If we had not heard these people vigorously and apparently sincerely contend that a gasoline station on the locus in question would be a real hazard to school children and vehicular traffic, we would credit them with exercising that age old prerogative of a man to change his mind. But, it appears to us that they have elected to choose what to them appears to be the lesser of two evils—the removal of the Crystal Lake eyesore, at the risk of establishing a potential traffic hazard.

Incidentally we did not hear either a proponent or an opponent of the petition mention that other stock objection against a filling station at the locus—"that oil seeping from the tanks would pollute Crystal Lake." They either forgot this factor, or didn't choose to remember it.

About a month ago the Board of Aldermen refused to grant a permit for gasoline station at Lower Falls for the alleged reasons that it would create a traffic hazard, and that there was objection from a church. Will history repeat itself?

Present Diplomas To Speech Class

Climaxing an intensive course in personal development and effective speaking, twenty-six members of the Effective Speech Class sponsored by the Newton Recreation Commission received diplomas at the graduation dinner held at the Lenox Hotel, Monday evening, April 1. The class was conducted by Wallace G. Strathern, sales training director and was under the supervision of Mrs. Ragna Heygaard, Director of Newton Neighborhood Centre.

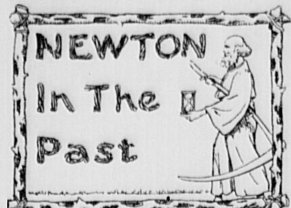

Mrs. Louis H. Marshall, Chairman of the Recreation Commission, presented the diplomas and urged the graduates to strive continually to better themselves. E. Ewing Wilson, Recreation Commissioner, congratulated the class on its fine progress during the twelve weeks' course.

Following the dinner and community singing by the entire group of sixty-five graduates and guests, Chas. E. Downing, class president, called on each class member for a brief talk. An unusually entertaining talk was the class history prepared and delivered by Miss Harriette Weston. One of the highlights of the evening was the showing of motion pictures in color which were taken on election night by Donald Ross, class member.

Following is a list of graduates: Herbert T. Butler, Wesley Curran, Augustus P. Castoldi, Percy Crowell, Prescott Crowell, Charles E. Downing, Mary Dewey, Walter Johnson, Joseph M. Kelly, Nicholas Lupo, Jr., John Macquire, Winifred C. Magee, Julius K. Ober, Kenneth E. Prior, Charles Phelps, Ralph C. Raymond, Norman Rose, Donald Ross, Leo J. Selya, Robert M. Stewart, Walter Slocumb, James C. Tibolt, Richard S. True, Frank Vogel, Harriette Weston, Ruth Weston.

OSTEOPATHS MEET

On Thursday, April 4th, the Middlesex South Osteopathic Society met at the Hotel Commander, Cambridge. After dinner the meeting was addressed by Dr. Lionel J. Gorman, who discussed "Sterility." The recently elected officers of the Society are Nelson D. King, D. O. President, Lee A. Catron, D. O. Vice-President, Mary A. Campbell, D. O. Secretary, Treasurer, all of Cambridge.

Mild weather at last. Fast Day next Thursday.

The Massachusetts Bicycle Club will race from Boston to Newton on Fast Day.

The Newton Lawn Tennis Club will hold a party in Armory Hall on Tuesday evening, May 14.

The first baseball nine of the season is heard from. The "Wide Awakes" have organized and any club whose members are not over 14 years old may send challenges to Robert Mandell, secretary, Box 305, Newton.

The hearing before the committee of the Legislature on the annexation of the South side of Watertown to Newton began on Tuesday at Room 4 in the State House. The petitioners will be represented by Senator Charles T. Gallagher of Boston, and the Town of Watertown by J. B. Goodrich.

The young ladies who took part recently in an amateur dramatics contest in Newton, feel quite disgusted at the taffy lavished upon them by a local press critic who pronounced the performance "good enough to go on the road." They wish it understood that they are not running a traveling show.

The School Committee had a short session on Wednesday night. At the request of the Mayor the schools were ordered closed on May Day. A report of the School Superintendent concerning the purchase of globes and maps for the several school houses was referred to the committee. The salary of Miss Billings, teacher at the Williams School was raised to $550.

Baggage man Melvin Cox saved a woman's life at the Centre street crossing on Tuesday afternoon by his courage and presence of mind. She started to cross the tracks from the North side just in front of the 5:25 Worcester express. Seeing the train approaching, she hesitated a moment and then started again. She would have been killed had not Mr. Cox, seeing her peril, rushed from the depot platform and dragged her from almost under the wheels. As long as the train traps, known as "grade crossings," are allowed to exist, so long will there be need of men capable of such acts of heroism.

Peter White, stepson of Patrick Mann of Nonantum, while gunning on the marsh near Faneuil on Thursday, was shockingly injured by the bursting of his gun. The thumb was nearly torn from his left hand, and the end of it blown off. The hand will probably be saved.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening a communication was received from the City Solicitor relative to the illegality of authorizing the City Marshal to designate proper streets for coasting. For the purchase of three horses for the Highway Department $900 was appropriated, and $50 per month for the watering of streets in each of the various wards.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 28, 1890
Howard B. Coffin, Newton grocer, received this week direct from Minnesota 150 barrels of the finest flour.

The death on Monday of John S. Farlow of Waverley ave., Newton, is a great loss to the city, for which he has done so much during his long residence here. We have had many public spirited citizens, but none has done so much for the city. The reference department at the Free Library, the Bigelow Memorial Chapel at Newton Cemetery, beautiful Farlow pk. at Newton, besides other benefactions, are all witnesses of his public spirit. He has set a worthy example for other wealthy citizens of Newton to follow. He could have had political honors had he cared for them, but he preferred to be a private citizen and work for common good rather than his own personal advancement.

A frightful runaway occurred on Thursday morning about 8:30 when the streets were crowded near the Newton depot with teams, and the sidewalks with children going to school. A horse drawing one of Pearson's Express teams while drinking at the fountain near the bank building, was startled by a passing horse and started toward the railroad crossing on a dead run. The collision with the railroad gates threw the driver, Stuart Harding onto the street. He received a broken right shoulder, was knocked semi-conscious, and taken to Hudson's Drug Store. Crossing Elmwood st. the horse knocked down E. B. Blackwell, Mr. Blackwell was rendered unconscious and taken into Wood's millinery store. Dr. Webber was called and found that while no

Rotary Club

At the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday, April 1st, a most interesting talk on a sideline of the whaling industry was given by Commodore E. Seymour Clark. Commodore Clark is a native of Cape Cod and was a study of New England whalingmen. He is the owner of a private whaling museum in Sandwich, Massachusetts, and possesses one of the finest collections of "Scrimshaw" in the country.

The story had to do with "Scrimshaw," which means the making of handwork by sailors at sea. Commodore Clark gave a very interesting story about the early whaling industry where vessels would leave New Bedford or Falmouth in late August, and go to the sperm whaling grounds on the West Coast of South America. A full-grown sperm whale is some sixty to ninety feet long, and weighs from sixty to ninety tons. Whalers were interested in the blubber, which is tried out to get whale oil, and was the means of lighting and heating homes before kerosene oil was discovered. The head of the whale is cut off, and after the blubber is removed from the rest of the body, the head is hauled on board and the sperm whale jaw-bone is removed, after ten to twelve barrels of spermaceti are taken out of the whale and used for making candles.

In the jaw-bone, which is about 26 feet long, there are 48 teeth, from eight inches to a foot in length, which are quite good ivory. Out of these teeth and the sections of the jaw-bone very excellent carvings are made, and many times pictures are engraved on the teeth. When one realizes that these articles were made while the boats were traveling and the tools were of the crudest kind, mostly old marlin spikes and harpoon heads, the very excellent display of the work surprises one greatly.

Red Cross Needs
Every Assistance
To Supply Quota

"The need for warm clothing by the civilian victims of war is urgent." This is the message sent out to the women of the United States, to whom the Red Cross turns, and not in vain, to carry forward their humanitarian work, in every year, month and hour. The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross is giving its quota of a shipment asked to be ready to ship by June 15th, and sends their appeal to the women of the city, and surrounding localities, to assist them to gain their goal. The army of self-sacrificing women throughout the country, giving so generously of their time to knitting and sewing are asked to continue these splendid efforts to prepare such direly needed garments.

The National Red Cross plans to have 100,000 sweaters, 50,000 dresses, and 20,000 layettes ready to ship by June 15. This can only be done if each chapter produces its share. These garments will be shipped abroad for distribution at the points of greatest need early in September. Only the heavier weight garments are requested.

The National Organization has during the past six months shipped besides 259,000 garments, and another 95,000 ready now for shipment, medical and hospital supplies, underwear, and blankets, these being of substantial help in meeting the urgent needs in Finland, Poland, England, and France. Although there is a cessation of fighting in Finland, there is actually an increased need among the people as they restore or reestablish their homes. Help to the Finnish Red Cross must continue over a period of several months. Relief in Poland must be increased.

The Newton Chapter is asked to produce as its quota 25 men's heavy sweaters; 50 women's heavy sweaters; 125 children's heavy sweaters; 50 women's heavier weight dresses; 100 girl's heavier weight dresses; and 25 layettes. The estimated cost of yarn to be used for knitting is about $226; the estimated cost of dress goods, and the accessories of making, is $163; and the estimated cost of the layettes is $75. The total expenditure, therefore, of the Chapter to provide these needed garments will be about $464. The value of the articles produced by generous volunteers is, of course, several times the cost of these materials.

Contributions of time, of material, of funds, will make possible this distribution abroad that not only brings warmth and comfort to people in distress, but also expresses the compassionate sympathy of the people in a peaceful nation for the welfare of dwellers in less fortunate countries.

The success of the Red Cross program of war relief depends upon the Chapters as they continue to produce garments, and their ability to rally to the call for service depends in its turn upon the kindness and generosity of the citizens in their location. The Newton Chapter has only to make known its program to have the interested response of Newton men and women. Women who would like to assist in cutting and making the dresses may arrange to meet with the groups directed by the Production chairman, Mrs. Carl H. Hanson, telephone Newton North 6759. And those who would like to secure yarn for the knitting, or assist in other ways, may get in touch with Headquarters, 12 Austin st., Newtonville, telephone Newton North 2177.

Democratic Rally
At Auburndale

A Democratic Rally was held last Friday night at Taylor Hall, Auburndale. Dennis M. Cronin opened the meeting and introduced Edward O. Proctor of Newton Centre, Assistant Attorney General, who served as chairman of the rally. Attorney General Paul M. Dever was the principal speaker. Although not openly announcing his candidacy for Governor, Dever stated that he would continue in public service next year, but not in his present office. James FitzGerald of Brighton, candidate for member of the Democratic State Committee from the Middlesex-Suffolk District, Alderman Eugene Cronin, George Brophy of Auburndale, Fred Kneeland of Newton Centre and John Maguire of Newtonville also spoke. The latter announced that he will be a candidate for Representative in the 4th Middlesex District at the coming election. He was a candidate for Alderman from Ward 2 last year.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The regular meeting of the Chapter will be held on Monday, April 8, at 2:30 o'clock, in the Chapter House, Newton Lower Falls. Mr. Harold O. Cook will speak on Historic Traces of Massachusetts. From 1:30 until 2:30 and after the meeting, Mrs. Arthur S. Tucker will be in charge of a food sale, the proceeds to go to the State and Chapter Jubilee Projects. Mrs. Henry E. W. P. Leavitt Company 75 Years In Roofing and Sheet Metal Business

WILLIAM P. LEAVITT
Founder

An old established Newton business is this year observing its 75th anniversary. The W. P. Leavitt Company has long been a Newton institution. It was founded by William Parker Leavitt, a native of Chichester, New Hampshire.

He was only 12 when he shipped as a cabin boy on a "square rigger," making his way to the coast from Chichester, N. H., where he was born in 1826, the descendant of early New Hampshire settlers. For years thereafter, William Parker Leavitt sailed the Seven Seas. His most hazardous trip was on the barque LaGrange sailing out of Salem, Mass., around Cape Horn, landing in California, September 17, 1849 in quest of gold, and today his original certificate of membership in the Forty-Niners Association hangs in the family home. He did not "strike it rich." He returned and settled in Newton, where, in 1865 he established the roofing business that is still being conducted by members of his own family, at the same location. William Parker Leavitt took active part in Newton municipal affairs and served as Chief of the Newton Fire Department in 1869 and 1870. As a member of the Newton Fire Department he helped fight the big Boston fire in 1872. He was also instrumental in securing the first Electric Fire Alarm Telegraph System in Newton in 1873. William Parker Leavitt died in 1905 leaving the business that bears his name and continues to be guided by his lifelong principle of "a good job at a fair profit."

Under John Leavitt . . . born in Newton in 1864 . . . W. P. Leavitt Sons Company has increasingly served countless property owners . . . always according to the high ideals of its founder. A tireless worker, John Leavitt's tremendous energy found an additional outlet in swimming . . . his favorite recreation since he was seven years old. At sixteen he raced against Captain Webb, the first man to swim the English Channel . . . and true to Captain Webb's prediction, John Leavitt won swimming fame and was New England champion for many years. But always his business came first . . . and under his wise direction its reputation for integrity and quality of workmanship steadily grew. Associated with John Leavitt, and taking a great deal of the management from his shoulders, is Archie MacDonald, a nephew . . . He, too, is imbued with the same old-fashioned spirit of genuine service that has been so characteristic of this business through the past 75 years.

Hinds Inaugurates Curb Service

Hinds Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company, located at 50 Washington Street, Brookline Village, has recently added Curb Service to its many other features.

From under a large neon marquee an attractively uniformed "curb boy" rushes to get the customer's name as soon as she stops her car in front of the plant, then relays this information to other uniformed attendants inside for speedy service. This accommodation makes it unnecessary for the patrons to leave their cars at any time, and will, undoubtedly be appreciated particularly by the many women customers.

The clean, sanitary appearance and the modern decorations of the office and show window form a pleasant and inviting background.

There will be a dinner at 6:30 o'clock, preceding the business, and as the group will have a private room, the annual reports and election of officers will be held directly afterwards.

All arrangements for the meeting have been made by the chairman, Miss Susan Philbrook.

At 12:30 o'clock luncheon will be served, and the business meeting will start at 2 o'clock. Luncheon tickets may be secured at Keyes Drug Store until Saturday, April 6th.

In the afternoon there will be the usual annual reports and the election of officers, and a program arranged by the Program committee will follow the luncheon.

The monthly conferences held by a group of committees of the Auburndale Woman's Club came to a close for the season on Friday, March 29th. At 11 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Valentine introduced a representative from the White Cross, and during the Round-Table discussion which followed, he outlined the purpose of this organization, which is to help the people who have incomes between $1500.00 and $3500.00. For those receiving less than the minimum, there are relief agencies, he explained, and for those who receive more, there should be no need for a budgeting service for medical services.

At noon, coffee was served to those who chose to remain; and in the afternoon, Mrs. Julian Jackson reviewed Bankhead's "Little Foxes," and then called on Mrs. Arthur Shaw who gave the story of another play which has been very successful, "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

These meetings have been most instructive during the past year, and by combining such committees as Public Health, Legislative and International Relations with the Literature and Drama, a well-balanced program has been given each month.

J. Anton De Haas was the speaker at the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, March 26th, in the Auburndale Club House.

The Day chairman, Mrs. Howard P. Converse, was out of town, and in her place Mrs. Austin Fisher presented Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, who, as well as Mrs. Converse, is a member of the Advisory Committee of the Newton Trust Company, through whose courtesy the speaker was obtained. Before introducing Prof. De Haas, Mrs. Palmer congratulated the Prof. De Haas took for his subject "International Economic Interests," and explained how the wars of today are fought entirely along economic lines as contrary to those of a century ago. Then warning nations fought man to man; today the blows are struck where shipping will be damaged, usually civilians and neutral countries being the sufferers.

During the half-hour of business which preceded the program, the Music chairman of the Club, Mrs. George de Grasse, outlined a plan for the coming year to promote a better appreciation of music. Meetings will probably be held in private houses, papers given, and music will illustrate the papers. She asked those who were interested to notify her.

The Literature committee, Mrs. Paul H. Tardivel, chairman, held a Sale of Books donated by Club members, and the proceeds from the sale will be sent to the State Federation of Women's Clubs towards the Bookmobile Fund which they are sponsoring. Subjects for the day will be "Manufacturing in New England," by Mrs. Herbert C. Mayer; and "Growth of Education," by Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield.

Newton Community Club

A Book Review is always one of the most popular programs. The members of the Newton Community Club are looking forward to such a program, when the reviewer is to be Alice Dixon Bond, and there is sure to be a record attendance, on Thursday, April 11th, in the Underwood School Hall. Her topic is "Current Books"; and with all the fiction and non-fiction which has been published in the last few weeks, she should have plenty of material from which to draw.

On the program, also, the Girls Glee Club of the Bigelow Junior High School, under the direction of Miss Julia Hubbard, will sing a group of songs.

Mrs. Edwin W. Smith, chairman of Conservation, is arranging for a Flower Show to be held on the same afternoon, and those interested in exhibiting at that time should get in touch with Mrs. Smith, or with a member of her committee.

There will be a Food Sale, the proceeds of which will be added to the Philanthropic Fund.

The "History of American Glass Factories," particularly of the one at Sandwich, was traced by Mrs. Mabel Read Surridge, at the meeting of the Newton Community Club, Thursday, March 28. Mrs. Surridge brought many pieces from her own collection of early glass, and graciously identified many specimens of which Club members were in doubt. The several tables of early glass which Community Club members exhibited showed undeniably that glass collecting is a hobby that is most popular.

In speaking of collecting, Mrs. Surridge urged all to become "collectors but not accumulators."

During the business meeting, the president, Mrs. Wallace Wales, called attention to the Food Sale in progress in the committee room, and during a brief recess the penny collection for underprivileged children was taken by Miss Adelaide B. Ball and her committee.

The tea table was most attractively arranged by Miss Elva Dupey and Mrs. Horace C. Cushman. The pourers, under the direction of Mrs. William W. Burnett, were Mrs. John B. Valentine, Mrs. George A. Sampson, Mrs. Frank B. Scofield, and Mrs. Ronald L. Gower.

Germany has sold to China, guns, cannon, and other armaments taken from Poland, in exchange for tin. Our trade with the neutral countries bordering on Germany has increased more than the commerce with Germany previously.

It is possible, says Mrs. Taylor, that Germany may take Norway and Sweden, and in this event Russia will inevitably finish up the job with Finland. In exchange for Russia's taking Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania, Germany, according to her, received a train-load of gold from Russia.

Mrs. Taylor feels that Hitler's Easter Balkan Peace plan has failed. She believes that Turkey felt that it might be made the "Sweden of the South," and allegedly first admitted that the French and English might use the Dardanelles, and then denied this.

That there will be peace move after peace move is Mrs. Taylor's opinion, but she shall stand ever ready to devote his time and his talents to the less conspicuous, but equally momentous duty of maintaining public order, protecting private property, and preserving the lives of his fellows against the dangers which lurk in foul tenements, in unclean food, and in that whole field of civic administration whose mismanagement leaves a trail of misery through the habitations of the poor.

Before the program, the president, Miss Betty Tobey, conducted the usual business meeting. Mention was made of the State Federation Junior Spring Conference, to be held at Brockton, on Saturday, April 6th, so that a representative group might attend. There will be bowling at the Garden City Alleys, on Wednesday, April 10th, at 7:30 p. m.

Definite plans for the Annual Meeting to be held in May, were presented by Miss Ellen Guion, and Miss Florence Furneaux will be chairman of the Program committee.

A Dessert-Bridge is being held at the Hunnewell Club, corner of Church and Elbridge sts., today, Friday evening, April 5. Dessert will be served at 7:40 o'clock. Members on the committee are Mrs. Marjorie Bassett, chairman; Mrs. Ivan Hoyt, Tickets; Miss Dorothy Howe, Refreshments; Miss Eleanor McAleer, Candy; and Miss Gertrude Dennison, Tables. This philanthropic event is given to assist in the furnishing of the Nursery School Playroom at the Pomroy House, on Hovey st., Newton.

Program arrangements for the Guest Night were in charge of Miss Marjorie Aldrich, and refreshments were served by Miss Gertrude Dennison and her committee.

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

That the world today is like a poker game, in that no one knows what will be the others next move, beginning back with the mistakes of the World War, was the arresting initial remark of Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor, in her talk at the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, Tuesday afternoon, April 2. She brought out many ideas and opinions that her audience will watch in the weeks to come.

She compared Hitler's strategy to that of Napoleon. In speaking of the Finnish affair, she felt that the final chapter in this phase of the war has not yet been written. Germany, through the Russian victory, is now getting Finland's nickel, wood, and other valuable products which formerly went to England.

Mrs. Taylor stated that, as the result of changes, past and potential, in the French and British cabinets, closer economic agreements between these two countries would be achieved, which would affect adversely our export trade. She prophesied that the British would place contraband bases in Canada, Australia, and various other sections of the world, and suggested watching the Pacific ocean where British activities might affect the United States.

Germany has sold to China, guns, cannon, and other armaments taken from Poland, in exchange for tin. Our trade with the neutral countries bordering on Germany has increased more than the commerce with Germany previously.

It is possible, says Mrs. Taylor, that Germany may take Norway and Sweden, and in this event Russia will inevitably finish up the job with Finland. In exchange for Russia's taking Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania, Germany, according to her, received a train-load of gold from Russia.

Mrs. Taylor feels that Hitler's Easter Balkan Peace plan has failed. She believes that Turkey felt that it might be made the "Sweden of the South," and allegedly first admitted that the French and English might use the Dardanelles, and then denied this.

That there will be peace move after peace move is Mrs. Taylor's opinion, but she shall stand ever ready to devote his time and his talents to the less conspicuous, but equally momentous duty of maintaining public order, protecting private property, and preserving the lives of his fellows against the dangers which lurk in foul tenements, in unclean food, and in that whole field of civic administration whose mismanagement leaves a trail of misery through the habitations of the poor.

Domestically, Mrs. Taylor feels Hitler's desire to get rid of Roosevelt in this country, as long as he was not able to use him as a peace mediator, was the reason for the recent White Book publication. She also discussed personalities in current primary state campaigns affecting both GOP and Democratic candidates for the Presidency.

Three more book reviews were given on Tuesday morning, April 2nd, when the Auburndale Review Club met with Miss Cora MacKenzie at her home, 215 Auburndale ave.

There was a short business meeting at 10 o'clock, when the president, Mrs. Eugene Ufford called for committee reports, and asked for suggestions as to a meeting-place for the Annual Meeting which comes on the 23rd of April.

The meeting was then turned over to the chairman of the Day, Mrs. Charles Valentine, who opened the program with "Life and Letters of Galsworthy," by Marrot. To those who were familiar with this man only through his writings, she opened a new side of the man, his great humanitarianism, a great lover of animals, he was interested in many agencies for their protection, and gave financial assistance in their maintenance. He was most generous also during and after the World War with his donations to relieve conditions caused by the war.

She closed her paper with a poem, in which he requested that his ashes be flung to the winds, and she stated that this request had been acceded to, and his remains were flung to the winds over Suffolk Downs.

Miss Margaret Haskell was then called upon, and she reviewed Marks' "The Family of the Barrett," and many amusing and interesting accounts of incidents of this family, which included the Moultons, the Barretts, and the Brownings. As an admirer of Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Miss Haskell felt that the choice of paper assigned to her had been a very happy one, and she advised the reading of this book.

Mrs. Basil Babcock took the closing paper for the morning, as the one scheduled had to be postponed for two weeks, and at very short notice responded with Paul Moody's biography "My Father, Dwight L. Moody". She reminded her audience that Moody started his evangelistic work at the age of nineteen and joined Sankey when he was thirty-four.

Mrs. Babcock repeatedly called attention to the quiet but effective part which Mr. Moody's wife played. She was the practical part of the regime, and without doubt, without her careful management his career would have been less smooth.

She advised reading the book, as she felt it was not so much a biography as a very life-like picture of the great preacher.

Following the program there was time for comments, and many in the audience were able to recall incidents connected with some of Moody's visits locally, and with the summers at Northfield where he had such great influence.

AS WE LIKE IT CLUB

At the March meeting of the As We Like It Club supper was served by Mrs. Donald White, Marion Atkins and committee. After a short business meeting the Rev. Frank Grebe gave an illustrated lecture on Egypt, Constantinople and Venice.

The new officers of the club are: president, Mrs. T. C. Danker; vice-president, Mrs. Malcolm Warren; rec. sec., Mrs. A. W. Peterson; cor. sec., Mrs. Harry Bailey; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Fowler.

AS ADVERTISED IN LIFE

Gas Station

strongly favors the permit for a gasoline station, whereas 2 years ago it strongly opposed a station at this locus. Mr. Chandler replied that the Improvement Association had opposed the petition 2 years ago because it was presented by Karalekas who formerly conducted the fruit market on the site, and who was not well thought of by members of the association. He also said that when he became president of the association he felt that if possible some plan should be evolved that would solve the undesirable condition on both sides of Norwood ave. near the lake, because to have granted a gasoline station permit before, would still have left a manufacturing zone abutting the lake. Chandler said there had been no general referendum among all the members of the Improvement Association on the granting of the present petition for a gasoline station at the locus, but a representative group of 15 or 25 members favor it. Temperley said that Chandler had not answered his question, but he would not press it further.

Steven Berke of 43 Norwood ave., who had been the leader of the opposition against several previous petitions for a gasoline station permit on this site, and who had stressed the traffic hazards such a station would create to school children, started to read a number of letters he had received from Nwton Centre and Nwton Highlands residents who now favor the present petition. Alderman Walker, who was presiding in the absence of President Floyd, told Berke it would not be necessary for him to read the letters, as he had presented them at the hearing before the Claims & Rules Committee the preceding Friday night.

On a "showing of hands" ten persons were recorded as favoring the petition. Irving Paul of Centre st. objected to the petition. He said he could not understand the change of heart by those who came here year after year and told how dangerous a gasoline station on this locus would be to school children and to motor vehicle traffic. He asserted, "This petition has never been brought before the Newton Centre Improvement Association, as I have been a member of that association for years, and was not notified of any general meeting." Mr. Paul said that if this petition is granted there will be petitions for other filling stations near Trowbridge st. He commented that his family owns a lot at the corner of Centre and Paul sts. which is a good site for a gasoline station. James Waters, appearing as attorney for his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Waters, whose property abuts the locus of the proposed station, objected to the petition. He argued that the isolated zoning of the former ice-house property for manufacturing and business purposes was made because of the old established business there, that the property had been abandoned for such a business many years ago, and since 1929 the only business there had been that of Karalekas. He told of the burning of the old ice house in 1934, and the refusal of the ice company to raze toppling walls after that fire until compelled to do so by city officials. He condemned the ice company for failing to remove the debris from the property, for permitting the unsightly, burned stable to remain there, and for not removing the unsightly relics of Karalekas' former fruit market. Waters said to the Aldermen—"You should not compromise with those who say—'Grant this filling station permit—or else!' With those who use the old ice property nuisance as a prop to get the permit."

Mr. Waters agreed that there have been few accidents at gasoline stations, but here is a sharp grade, where one cannot see cars at the other side of the bridge, where there is only one sidewalk, and this is used by children from four schools, and on Sundays by persons attending four churches. He said he does not blame persons residing around Crystal Lake who want their properties beautified, but he believes that those who are trying to clear up the problem by this plan are more moved by esthetic motives than by safety considerations.

Albert T. Stuart of Institution ave. told the Aldermen that he has lived in Newton Centre the past 16 years, and the remainder of his life at Newton Corner. He said he is interested in that community, is a member of its Improvement Association, and is directly responsible for the increase in valuation of business properties at Newton Centre to the amount of $750,000, and indirectly responsible for $200,000 additional in business properties there. He told of four previous petitions for gasoline stations at this locus which had been unanimously refused by the Aldermen. To refute the argument that the ice company had taken a financial loss on this property, Mr. Stuart stated that $21,127 in insurance had been paid the company after the old ice house was burned in March, 1934, and $6500 insurance was paid the company after the fire which occurred in the stable on Norwood ave. in July, 1934. He told of the dangerous driving conditions on the grade in front of the proposed gasoline station locus, and said that in 7½ years the ice company had only been able to effect a sale of one lot on this property, and this it had to repossess. He argued that if a station permit is granted on this locus, you will have to grant other such permits, and within 5 years you will have 5 gasoline stations in this neighborhood, three of which would be nearer the school and church. He said—"You will have a gasoline alley on Centre st. similar to that on Needham st., Newton Highlands." On a showing of hands, 19 persons present were recorded as against the petition. The matter was referred to the Licenses Committee.

had seventeen years experience as the head of an electrical equipment manufacturing company. His statement announcing his candidacy follows:

The decision of Representative William B. Baker to retire from public life, the fact that Mayor Paul M. Goddard will not be a candidate to succeed himself as Representative, and the probability that Representative Warren K. Brimblecom will be a candidate for another office, leaves Newton facing the prospect of having to elect three new Representatives to the Legislature this year, two of whom would be in the fourth Middlesex District.

Because of this situation it would seem to be in the city's interest to select candidates with some legislative experience. Many of my friends have urged me to become a candidate, suggesting that my six years' service upon the Board of Aldermen have given me a full picture of Newton's needs and problems, and that my record there entitles me to the opportunity for service in a larger field.

During the last few weeks I have consulted with several men familiar with the work of a Representative. These men have pointed out to me that the experience which I have had particularly during the last three years, with relation to taxation and relief would be of considerable value in the consideration of these major problems in the Legislature.

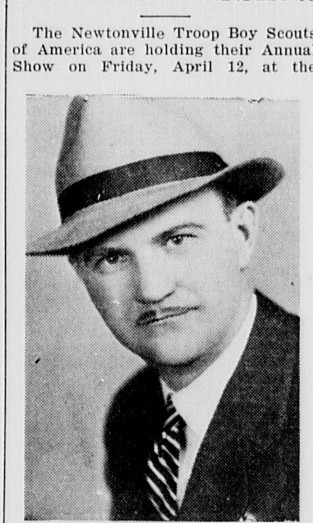

I have also placed the matter of my candidacy before several hundred men and women in the district whom I believe to be truly representative of the electorate and have received many enthusiastic offers of support. Under these circumstances I have decided to become a candidate for

Remarkable Rescue Of City Laborer After Deep Trench Caves In

Nicholo Bibbo Saved By Fellow Workers; New Inhalator Proves Its Value

Nicholo Bibbo, 46, of 83 Faxon st., Nonantum, had a narrow escape from death last Saturday morning when a deep trench in Montrose st., Newton, caved in on him. Employees of the Newton Sewer Division were engaged in laying a sewer in that street. A large power shovel had excavated a trench about 12 feet deep and Bibbo was sent down to start shoring the trench, when one side caved in on him. Tons of clay and gravel completely buried him, and although he kept on his feet, his head was covered by about 3 feet of the clay. Francis Donnelly, assistant foreman on the job, ordered some of the crew to run to a nearby house and telephone to the police and fire headquarters and to Newton Hospital. Fellow workers of Bibbo jumped into the trench and dug feverishly to rescue the buried man. Arthur (Duke) English of Waltham st., West Newton, was the keyman in the rescue squad, and fortunately spotted with accuracy the exact place under which Bibbo was buried. Among others who assisted were Henry Reed, Patrick Kelly, Joe Burns, Clifford Benoit and Arnold Heywood.

At 9:34 the telephone call for aid was received at police headquarters and the ambulance with House Officer Patrick Burke and Patrolman Gagnier started for the scene. A cruising car with Patrolmen Dungan and Taffe was radioed and arrived at the place within a few minutes. At 9:40 Fire Department headquarters received a notice from the police to hasten an inhalator to the place, and the lighting-plant wagon and Deputy Chief Seaver speeded from Newton Centre to Montrose st., over a mile distant. They arrived just as Bibbo's head was uncovered, and Hoseman Halewood immediately attached an inhalator hose over Bibbo's mouth. The latter's face was purple and he was barely breathing, but the new inhalator, being used for the first time, proved its value, and in a few minutes Bibbo was reviving. It took about twenty minutes to free his body and limbs from the fallen clay which surrounded him. Bibbo's vitality was shown by the fact that as he was placed on a stretcher, after having been pulled out of the trench, he sat up. At the Newton Hospital it was found that he had apparently not received any serious injuries although he had been completely buried for nearly 10 minutes. Bibbo's vitality was further proved when he returned to work on Wednesday.

After Dr. Thomas' address the conference members will be divided into four groups for discussions. The latter part of the afternoon will be devoted to a two-hour recreation program which will be held on the Levi Warren Junior High School sports field under the leadership of Mr. Albert Reed.

Dinner will be served in the Second Church. At 7:00 o'clock the entire delegation will move to the Unitarian Church where members of the Jaynes League will present the drama "The Great Choice." Four members of the society gave the interpretations of each quality.

Newton Teachers Elect Officers at Annual Meeting

Will Show Movies of School Activities

The annual meeting and dinner of the Newton Teachers Federation was held on Monday evening at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. John Fitz-Simmons of the Newton Trade School was elected president; G. Winthrop Brainerd of the Horace Mann School, vice-president; Helen Conroy of the Franklin School, secretary; Irene Harworth of Newton High School, treasurer.

Hugh Nixon, executive secretary of the Massachusetts Teachers' Federation was the principal speaker. He stated that the Newton school system is among the six best in this State. He said that his organization is fighting a bill which will be presented in the Legislature at the coming session. This bill aims to permit Mayors of cities to fix salaries of teachers, instead of continuing this power in school committees. Mayor Goddard advised the school officials to keep the public informed of the accomplishments of the schools. Supt. of Schools Warren stated that the study of salaries of teachers in the Newton public schools by Willard S. Ellsbee of Columbia Teachers College will begin at once. The commission which will co-operate in this study will include members of the School Committee, a group of citizens, and representatives of Newton teachers. The latter were elected at four meetings held yesterday and included: Mildred March, Ward School; Ruth Burgess, Mason School; Florence McCaulder, Horace Mann School; Emma Brown, Carr School; Agnes Peoples, Day School; Alma Thomas, High School; Russell Burkhard, Day School; Elmer Ellsworth, Franklin School; Walter Taylor, High School; Abner Bailey, Weeks School; John Fitz-Simmons, Trade School; Harold Gores, Administrators Assistant.

Raymond Green, Assistant Principal of Newton High School was elected chairman of a committee which will show moving pictures of activities in Newton public schools.

Want Less Noise At Norumbega

Persons residing in the vicinity of Norumbega Park have petitioned the Board of Aldermen to place restrictions on the operation of amusements at Norumbega Park, Auburndale, before the annual license for this place will be granted on May 1. Last year residents of the district complained about being kept awake nights by patrons of the dance hall at the park starting their automobiles after midnight, and by noises of concessions at the park which were operated until quite late nights. Objections were also raised against Sunday baseball games at the park. At that time the park management agreed to certain restrictions. The petition reads: "Understanding that the renewal of the Norumbega Park license is about to be considered, we the undersigned wish to have certain restrictions placed on it, to the end that the intolerable conditions that existed last Summer shall not be repeated this year."

Would Extend Oak Hill Bus Line

The Middlesex & Boston Company has petitioned the Newton Board of Aldermen for a permit to extend its Oak Hill line from the present terminal at Dedham and Brookline sts., Oak Hill to the Boston line at West Roxbury. The other terminal of this line is at Newton Corner. A public hearing on this petition will be held by the Aldermen on Monday night, April 15.

Pledges Total $18,000—$7000 More Needed

Approximately $18,000 of the $25,000 required to erect the $40,000 parish house and hall and community centre for St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Newton Lower Falls, this week had been pledged by about 200 individual givers within the parish or by citizens in the surrounding communities.

Two special committees were named to follow up the intensive part of the drive to exceed the quota. One for obtaining special gifts will consist of Chester C. Spring, E. Deane Seely, Henry H. Stafford and Rev. Roger W. Bennett. A "follow through" committee on parish contacts will include Hugh H. Spencer, Everett M. Brooks and Mr. Stafford, among others. The book of Golden Memory for recording all who share in making possible the annex is being prepared by Thacher Nelson.

A "time capsule" in which news of the campaign and contemporary life in 1940 is to be opened 100 years from now is expected to be included in the corner stone to be laid as soon as the detailed plans for the annex have been completed by William J. Freedy, architect, and the building committee.

The choir boys pledged $67.50 toward the new building. The young people of the church raised over $1200. The members of the Church Service League agreed to raise $1200 for the parish house over the next four years. The total pledged so far has been made possible by a combination of many gifts and pledges which indicate the solid support of the parish of the project.

The workers themselves signed up for over $5000 of support at a meeting in Perrin Methodist Church, Newton Lower Falls, to open the campaign. The use of the church for meetings was loaned because the Episcopal Church found itself entirely without parish house accommodations.

Oak Hill Improvement Association Holds Annual Meeting

Reports Gravel Pit Still Being Operated Despite Court Ruling

At one of the most largely attended meetings held in recent years the Oak Hill District Improvement Association held its fifth Annual Meeting Tuesday evening at the Oak Hill School. The meeting was called to order by the president of the association Henry S. C. Cummings who extended a very warm welcome to the 150 or more residents attending.

"Improvement Associations," he said, "represent the voice of the Community, the collective strength of the opinions of all the residents and every effort is being made to encourage the working through such Associations to secure improvements and to protect the community from undesirable developments." He said that the association was doing its best to build up a mailing list which included every home within the District so that the whole district might be kept better informed and alert to changes that always come up from time to time. The Directors are selected for their known civic interest and for complete representation of the entire district and meet each month to discuss and to plan for a better Community. Every effort is being made to establish a closer bond with the local Aldermen who never have been more friendly to Oak Hill problems than since the Association has been in existence. Mr. Cummings said the Association tried to be as quick to praise and appreciate as to ask for and demand. It is a cooperative effort by high minded citizens to assist their city government by keeping them better informed of needs and the wishes of the District.

Mrs. Lawrence Early read the Secretary's Report which was followed by reports of the Treasurer and a number of Committee Reports. Charles R. Davis stated that many difficulties had arisen in connection with the proposed extension of Wheeler rd. from Parker to Dedham sts. and that there was little immediate hope that anything could or would be done to push it through. Harold F. Tracy referred to the success of the City in winning through the courts the right to restrict "heavy trucking" over the main streets of the district; he also reported that the city was still engaged in legal combat with the Highland Sand & Gravel Co. interests and that they had been adjudged in contempt in the continued operation of their hopper and other equipment because they were attempting to evade the zoning ordinance of the city by claiming that the use of canvas for a roof and wire sidings in place of wood walls did not constitute a building over which the city might control. Pending appeals to the Supreme Court the Gravel Pit group continues its operations on a very large scale. For over five years they have, he reported, circumvented legal actions by the process of continually appealing every decision made against them. Further, he reported the Association has taken an active interest in preventing the intrusion of business areas in newer developments and preventing private property being used as a dumping ground for such materials as loam etc. for resale purposes by residents whose main interest in that property is to carry on a business contrary to zoning laws.

Wendell R. K. Mick's report told of the important new development recently presented to the Aldermen which would divide the City into seven districts, based on suggestions of Prof. Adams, who has just completed a very exhaustive survey for the Planning Board.

The report was read by Ralph W. King and further stated that the Association had endeavored to preserve the residential character of the Oak Hill District; to prevent the intrusion of cemeteries; to eliminate the operation of gravel pits; to restrict the use of streets by heavy trucks; to prevent residential property being used for the temporary dumping of loam for eventual resale; to discourage the stripping of topsoil; and to preserve the older trees from being destroyed.

The secretary then read the report of the Nominating Committee which offered the following slate which was unanimously elected: for president, Norman A. Hall, 10 Howe rd.; 1st vice-president, Dr. Franklin G. Balch, Jr., 333 Brookline st.; 2nd vice-president, Miss Nellie S. Smith; Supt. of Peabody Home for Crippled Children at 474 Brookline st.; secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Early of 524 Brookline st.; treasurer, Philip Saunders of 15 Country Club rd.; directors for three years (1943), Carl Penney of 20 Bound Brook rd.; Mrs. Ruth Mick of 370 Dedham st.; Fred B. Lund, Jr. of 180 Dudley rd.; directors for two years (1942), Louis A. Beaudoin of 65 Ha-nan rd. replacing Dr. Balch and Norman M. Appleyard, Jr. of 99 Walnut Hill rd. replacing Charles R. Davis who resigned. The new President Mr. Norman A. Hall expressed his thanks to the Association in electing him to head the Association and pledged his best during the coming year.

The Association then had the pleasure of hearing Mayor Paul M. Goddard who told of some of the problems confronting the city and his

COMMUNITY ENDEAVOR

The steady progress of the campaign of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church building fund at Newton Lower Falls shows a continuance of that community spirit which has been indicative in Newton through the years. Faced with the necessity of rebuilding the parish house following an extensive fire, members of the church lent their efforts to the task ahead. There are still several thousands of dollars needed to put the campaign over the top and we know that citizens of all of Newton are putting their shoulders to the wheel—in all such campaigns the "last long mile" is always the most difficult. The goal will be reached because in the final analysis the common weal is dependent upon the continued growth of those units of community endeavor which go to make up our city. It is more than a local sectional project—it is one of city-wide benefit.

THE GRAVEL PIT SITUATION

Taking every advantage offered by its rights under the laws the gravel company which has been conducting operations in the Oak Hill section of Newton continues its operations, more or less extensively. Appealing every decision against it this company will doubtless operate until the matter is finally disposed of, in one way or another, by the higher courts. Meanwhile the citizens of Newton, and more particularly those of the section in question, diligently seek the legal answer which might prevent the detrimental conditions under which they now suffer.

Quebec Bishop Visits Newton

Most Reverend Philippe Desrauleau, Bishop of Sherbrooke, Quebec, was a visitor in Newton over the weekend. He is the brother of Mrs. Joseph Roy of 214 Pearl st., Newton. Bishop Desrauleau arrived in Newton last Friday and celebrated mass at St. Jean Evangeliste Church, Nonantum on Saturday morning. He also celebrated the 7:40 mass at that church on Sunday morning and delivered a sermon. His attendants at that mass were Rev. A. Parent of South Natick, and Rev. Leo Dumas of St. Jean Evangeliste Church. Bishop Desrauleau also spoke at the 9:40 mass at the church. His attendants at that service were Rev. Joseph Robichaud, pastor of the church, and Gregory Roy, S.J. of Weston College, a nephew of the Bishop.

Charge Waban Man Assaulted Police

Robert I. Hamilton, 55, of 15 Wamsit rd., Waban, was arrested last Thursday night April 4, by Patrolman Gagnon on charges of speeding and assault on a policeman. He was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday. Patrolman Gagnon charges that he stopped Hamilton in accordance with the enforcement of the 30 mile speed limit in Newton. According to Gagnon he was asked by Hamilton to give him his badge number and complied. Hamilton then said: "How do I know it's your right number?" Gagnon alleges that his cap was knocked off Hamilton's hand and struck the side of his head. Hamilton's case was continued to April 15.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

Possibly those who have been benighted that the European war is a "phony war" may now commence to think that it is a real war.

Last week that astute leader of the British government, Neville Chamberlain, sarcastically commented that Hitler had "missed the bus." Possibly Adolf did miss the bus by not starting a "blitzkrieg" last year, but he certainly used a lot of ferries to advantage last Monday. Also, in our opinion, that recent statement of General Ironsides, in which he admitted that Britain was quite unprepared six months ago, but is ready for the fray now, was not a wise thing for a man in his position to say. If it was intended to scare Germany, it certainly did not do so.

The propaganda working to drag the U. S. A. into the war on the side of Britain and France will increase rapidly from now on. One factor which will not help it is that statement made by one of Britain's leading diplomats to Japanese officials a few weeks ago, in which he assured the Nipponese that the aims of Britain and Japan are identical, and he wished success to Japan in its efforts to attain its ends in China. This British diplomat, trained and accomplished, didn't throw the ball as did the (Bull Durham) diplomat who misrepresented the U. S. A. in Canada, and who, because of his blathering, received a sharp rebuke from Secretary of State Hull. To court favor from Japan in this critical time, a high British official asserted that the aims of these two imperialistic nations are alike. Yet, we continue to be told that Britain is fighting to save democracy.

The great majority of the people of the U. S. A. are utterly opposed to this country becoming involved in the European war, which is essentially a struggle for world power and wealth between the "have" nations of that continent, and the "have not" nation—Germany, with another "have not" nation, Italy, waiting to jump in at the kill, with whichever combatant gets the upper hand. Twenty-three years ago the U. S. A. was sucked into the then whirlpool of war on the pretense that we entered the fray to "make the world safe for democracy" and to "wage a war to end war."

But, soon afterward we were bluntly told by our allies that we had entered to protect the U. S. A. and not to aid our allies. The writer heard the "A. E. F." referred contemptuously in England as the abbreviation for "After Everything Finished," rather than American Expeditionary Force. We listened to General Pershing at Trier, Germany, in March, 1919, exhort members of the U. S. Army of Occupation to resent the jibes of "our late allies" that the "A. E. F." did not have a part in the winning of the war. We remember the slur of the French that "U. S." stood for "Uncle Shylock," not "Uncle Sam." We know that Britain, France and the other European countries to whom the people of the U. S. A. loaned billions, repudiated their debts to us. We remember the terms of the Versailles treaty, and the two nations which were the principal beneficiaries by that treaty. The great majority of our people remember or know most of the facts, and thus are opposed to the U. S. A. again being the dupe.

But, we believe that the great majority of our citizens would favor the U. S. A. resisting any attempt by Germany, Russia or any other totalitarian country obtaining possession of Greenland or any part of this hemisphere, including Canada. And to assure our ability to have the power to so resist, it behooves the U. S. A. to acquire more quickly than at present is planned, artillery and other weapons of defense, in addition to military training for millions of our young men.

men. This country is about as unprepared for modern war as it was unprepared for war in 1917.

One of the biggest problems of the day is traffic safety. Huge sums of money have been and will be expended in efforts to make our highways safer and to lessen the hazards caused by the use of motor vehicles. Here in Newton are two outstanding traffic hazards which should have been eliminated years ago, and which certainly should be removed while the opportunity still holds to do so at comparatively little cost to the city. We refer to the very dangerous curve on Centre st. nearly opposite the old cemetery, and the blind curve on heavily travelled Hammond st. near Priscilla rd. Many accidents have occurred at the Centre st. curve, and drivers of automobiles have been summoned into court for passing other cars on this curve. Vacant land, part of the Colby estate, adjoins this curve. Vacant land, part of the Liggett estate, adjoins the curve on Hammond st. The city should make takings of small parcels of land from these two estates and eliminate both these curves. Unless this is done, without delay, these estates will eventually be subdivided, and the cost of straightening the curves become much greater, or prohibitive.

Newton police report that nearly all operators of automobiles in Newton are co-operating in the observance of the new 30-mile speed limit in this city. Although the police have stopped a large number of drivers for travelling over 30 miles, the number of second offenders has been quite small in proportion. During the first couple of days after the speed limit went into effect, the police received whines from a few motorists in the city who manifested a spoiled-child complex. This was to be expected. A certain percentage of humans are so selfish that they are even unwilling to co-operate in an effort to save unnecessary deaths of other humans.

In happy contrast to the horrible slaughter in Europe and Asia caused by cupidity and stupidity of men in authority, and of men who want to retain special privileges or obtain them, was the scene we witnessed last Saturday morning when heroic laborers risked their lives to rescue a fellow worker who had been buried in a cave-in of a deep trench. Members of the Newton police and fire departments also rushed to the spot and gave valuable aid. The sad thing is—that a large percentage of the millions of men in Europe now under arms, and who are killing or will kill one another, would be just as ready to go to the assistance of the men in opposing armies, under peace conditions, as were the employees of the Newton Sewer Division here last Saturday morning. But, because of imperfect political, social and economic conditions in Europe, armies of good-hearted men there are forced to become mass-murderers by bungling governments, and millions of men, women and children in small, neutral countries suffer death and privations as innocent victims.

The results of primaries in mid-West States show that Franklin D. Roosevelt can have the Democratic nomination if he desires it. The results also show it will be difficult to prevent young Thomas Dewey from winning the Republican nomination. Republicans who have been attempting to conjure a boom for Wendell Wilkie as the Republican standard bearer for President, certainly are not helping the chances of the G. O. P. And among those who control the leading Republican newspaper of this section which lately devoted much space in boosting Mr. Wilkie and his alleged fitness as a candidate.

Kathryn Pope's Pupils Appear In Dance Program

The Boston Dance Council gave the last program of its series Saturday night at The Peabody Play House, Boston. The programs given have been of an educational nature, lecture demonstrations on the various dance techniques.

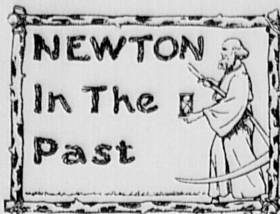

Miss Pope explained and demonstrated her methods of teaching, stressing the importance of body fluency, training in creative work and improvising.

Demonstrating these points, also were twelve of Miss Pope's pupils. The outstanding creative study, using a portion of The Moonlight Sonata, was given by Phyllis and Patricia Burt, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Achley Burt of Taft ave., West Newton. Other pupils taking part were Barbara and Priscilla Clark, Rosalie Paddison, Joan Tichnor, Joan Beck, Stephanie Rane, Virginia Brand, Peggy Kansas, Constance Garfield, Jean Kelley.

Arthur Glines, treasurer of the Nonantum Cycle Club has secured the Newton agency for Rudge bicycles and tricycles.

A singular fact is that three members of Eliot Church were buried on the same day (Tuesday) of this week, and they were the only deaths of members of that church this year. They were—Deacon James Kimball, Rev. Lyman Gilbert and Miss Roxanna Davis.

It was the biggest surprise of the season, when after the mild weather of Saturday, the morning of Sunday brought a fall of snow a foot deep. It was what they call "sugar snow" back in the country, and its stay was short.

George C. Dunne led the Gospel meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday. The meeting was an excellent one and many hearts touched by the allusion to a mother's love for her son as he goes forth into the world.

On account of the illness of our Newton reporter, the promised account of the Congregational Church fair is again deferred.

The road roller has been overhauled and is ready for use as soon as the frost will be out of the ground. This valuable machine has been in the possession of the city for four years and has done excellent work. The expense of running it is about $6 per day, and the actual value of the work it performs is shown by the fact that the Boston & Albany Railroad and the Town of Watertown pay $15 a day for its use. William Kent has been the engineer in charge ever since the roller was purchased, and he has been a most efficient employee of the city. Gentlemen and ladies driving horses appreciate his courtesy and care when they approach the machine. The dangerous which opponents of the purchase of the steam roller said the machine would cause by frightening horses, disappears under Mr. Kent's careful management.

A new residence at Newton Centre has a Jumbo telephone which connects the house with the stable. The connection is underground and gives good satisfaction.

Last Friday Mr. Hahn of Thompsonville accommodated with lodging a man who said he was a driver from New Hampshire. He also put up his horse and team; a large bay horse recently clipped, and a nearly new Concord buggy. Saturday morning, the man, who had been drinking, left with out taking the horse and buggy. Officer Fletcher took the team to Pratt's stable.

Mrs. Walter Thorp who understands the art of curing stuttering, has been very successful in her profession since she came to Newton. She leased the house at the corner of Centre and Lyman sts., but when this was sold to make room for the new schoolhouse, she moved to Elgin st.

One of the thriving industries of Newton Centre is the bicycle factory of Arthur Gooch on Warren st. Here with one or two assistants he has, during the past few years made over 60 bicycles. His steam hammer, forge, four lathes and other appliances, show what a fine and the advent of the magic bicycle has developed.

The stores kept Past Day with great strictness. Only one or two opened at all.

German fruits at Eliot Market, Newton; red and white strawberries, red and white cherries.

Joseph Poolford, a Waltham painter had for sometime been suffering from the effects of "La Grippe," and yesterday for the first time since his illness, while driving with his son Isaac, Newtonville their horse, frightened by a passing train, shied. Young Poolford in order to save his father dropped the reins and both men jumped from the wagon, which was overturned. Young Poolford broke a rib, and the old gentleman was severely injured. Fears are entertained of paralysis of the spine.

A travelling theatrical company paraded Newton Centre streets with a brass band on Tuesday, but drew only a small audience that evening.

Mr. Ellis' employees returned from Tilton, New Hampshire on Tuesday where they had been harvesting leeks. The house here is full, and a large quantity is packed at Tilton.

A young son of Mr. Anderson, coachman for R. H. White at Chestnut Hill, caught his leg in a buggy wheel on Tuesday, and it was twisted so badly as to cause his death at Newton Cottage Hospital, where he was taken.

The Board of Health held a regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, in conjunction with a meeting of the Aldermanic committee. A report was received from trustees of the Newton Hospital on the building of a new contagious ward. The low bid for a building to contain the contagious ward, with two added wings, one for a morgue, and the other for small pox patients, was $12,468. Dr. Frisbie re-

College News

By GEORGE W. HUTCHINGS, N.H.S. '39

Hello readers, here is your columnist back in stride with the first April article concerning the college boys. John Paul Koughan of 24 Madison ave., Newtonville, a junior at Bowdoin College, has been chosen editor-in-chief of the Bowdoin Quill, literary publication of the college. This honor makes Jack the second Newton man to hold the position in the course of two years. Charlie Mergendahl having preceded him. As a freshman he was initiated into the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, as was his father before him about a quarter of a century back. As one might suspect, Jack is majoring in English, a stiff course at any college, and doing a good job at it. The David Sewall Premium was awarded to him for excelling in English Composition. Entering Newton High via Day June for High, Jack spent his time around the school in dramatics and clubs. In the first two years there were football managing and band participation to consume the time. Then the purchase of a car made Jack a power in the world of the socialites, as well as the scholars.

His dad is respectfully and affectionately known as "Daddy" around Newton High School where he is a teacher of History. Many boys who have gone on to higher schools of learning are indebted to this venerable friend for his sincere advice and helpful letters of recommendation. An ardent Bowdoin man, Mr. Koughan is now reveling in the glory which his sons are enjoying. By using the plural we refer to Jack and Don, the latter now being in high school. Nevertheless, the ambition to walk beneath the Bowdoin pines sporting a distinguished freshman cap is uppermost in his soul as the years progress. Another interesting fact concerns Mr. Koughan's brother who also attended Bowdoin around 1915, and now resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He has a son, Patrick, enrolled in the freshman class. This is quite a jaunt to carry on a family tradition. But the name Koughan is synonymous with Bowdoin and will continue so for at least five more years.

More news of newly initiated fraternity men comes from Brown University where three Brain clubs from the Gardner City were initiated into secret membership. George P. Delaney, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Delaney of 99 Atwood ave., Newtonville, is a brother in Delta Kappa Epsilon, as is Joseph L. Johnson, Jr. of 29 Merrill rd., Newton Centre. George attended Our Lady's High School where he excelled in scholar-ported that he and Dr. Hudson had made an examination of the wells at Thompsonville of which complaints had been received. The upper well is impaired at present because of surface drainage conditions. He suggested that a heap of dressing above the well be removed, and the earth around the well be raised a foot. The lower well is totally unfit for use and should be abandoned. A petition from E. A. Lindley of Webster st., to keep a pig with an outside run was granted, without the run.

Older residents of Wards 5 and 6 think they have justice on their side when they ask for transportation for the conveyance of pupils to Newton High School. In the old town days for two or three years there was an advanced course at the Mason School for pupils from the Centre, Upper Falls and Highlands, and very few pupils from these sections attended the high school, which then had about 100 students.

Damage Claims Against City

The blizzard of February 14 cost the City of Newton plenty in the expenses entailed in removing snow from highways. Other expenses now are asked from the city as a result of the blizzard. Carl Follansbee of Irvington st., Boston, and Madge Kirbell of 504 Ward st., Newton Centre, have presented claims to the city. Follansbee states that on the night of March 20 his car hit a ridge of hard snow on Commonwealth ave. near the Boston line and was damaged, and its occupants injured. He states that the ridge of icy snow was 8 feet long, 1 foot high and 18 inches wide, and should have been removed when it became a menace to traffic. Nora Flaherty of Reservoir st., Needham, asks for damages. She fell on an icy sidewalk on Eliot st., Upper Falls, on March 13 and fractured her right arm. She claims the sidewalk was defective.

More Burglaries In The Newtons

The Boston Herald office at 74 Bowlers st., Newtonville, was broken into early Sunday morning and $19.50 in cash stolen. Patrolman Parcell discovered the burglary at 3:45 a. m., when he found a basement window broken.

Morris Berger, manager of the Paine Drug Co. at the corner of Centre st. and Commonwealth ave., reported a burglary to the police last Saturday. Between 6:30 and 7:30 that morning a dozen doughnuts had been stolen from outside the doorway of the drug store.

The home of Victor Wally, 40 Roosevelt rd., Newton Centre, was burglarized on Sunday night and $40 stolen from a bureau drawer. Entrance was made by forcing a rear window. The police were notified Saturday that the barn in the residence zone at 1838 Washington st., Auburndale, where a ship and basketball. In his senior year he was honored by being mentioned to the all-Catholic basketball team. John Paul Koughan of 24 Madison ave., Newtonville, a junior at Bowdoin College, has been chosen editor-in-chief of the Bowdoin Quill, literary publication of the college. A year at Kents Hill Seminary in Maine did much to improve him as an athlete, and he starred in football, basketball, and baseball while preparing for the Providence institution. We think this native son bears close watching. Jack attended the Rivers School in Brookline and we confess to not knowing him personally. However, his selection by the Dekes is sufficient indication of the promise shown by this Newtonite. The third member was also fortunate in his choice. He is now a full-fledged T.D., short for Theta Delta Chi. He is Kendall W. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Fisher of 263 Lake ave., Newton Highlands. Ken displayed a varied interest in activities at Newton High, an excellent thing in a prospective college man. Besides being football manager, he was business manager of The Orange Book, school informative booklet. A member of the Legislature, Ken served on the Publications Board and also the Athletic Board. We all remember him as an enthusiastic participant at H-Y meetings where he was in charge of several social affairs. Let's hope that we can hear from Stu MacNeill who is also a member of the class of '43 at Brown and is reportedly making good there.

Seen about town during the ever-so-short vacation were Ernie Johnson and Roland (Bud) Pease, students at Kimball Union Academy; and Walt Ralback, a sophomore at Exeter Academy. That old gang was back in force as Paul Robey of Staunton Military Academy; Bill Burns and Frank Smith of Seton Hall Prep; and Frank (Bud) Hines of Holy Cross were observed making the most of the holidays. All are athletes of distinction at their respective schools as they were in high school.

After two years at Huntington School, Frederick Eastman, Jr. of Madison ave., Newtonville, has decided to further his desire for a career in chemical engineering at the far-off University of Maine. Fred has been a consistent point scorer on the Huntington swimming team for the past two seasons, as well as boosting his grades into the upper brackets at the mid-term review of classes. All the luck in the world to Fred that he may set a high example for his two younger brothers to imitate, and may the U. of M. prove the answer to that lofty ambition.

Look for us next week if you are around.

printing shop had been located, and which was burned a few weeks ago, had been entered and articles valued at $500 stolen.

An automobile owned by Patrolman Robert Stevens was stolen some time Sunday morning from behind police headquarters at West Newton, where he parked it when he went on duty at 12:45 a. m., that morning.

Luce Will Send Publications

There are now available for distribution the following Government publications:

1939 Agriculture Yearbook "Food and Life," bound volume of about 1200 pages containing valuable information for gardeners and householders—a limited supply only. Aunt Sammy's Radio Recipes—revised, paper bound, 150 pages, issued by the Bureau of Home Economics. Report of Proceedings of 150th Anniversary of Congress, paper, 47 pages.

Congressman Robert Luce will be glad to send any of these publications upon receipt of request addressed to him—House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Kiwanians Kidnap W. S. Wagner

The GRAPHIC has received a clipping from the "Long Island Star-Journal" which tells of the "kidnapping" on March 29th of W. S. Wagner formerly of Auburndale. Mr. Wagner was a charter member of the Newton Kiwanis Club and has since been an enthusiastic member of that organization. On Wednesday he attended meeting of the Manhattan Kiwanis Club and on Fridays the Flushing Club. On March 29th a bus load of Kiwanians drove to his home in Flushing and carried him to the Amber Lantern Restaurant in that city, where he was honored at a testimonial dinner.

Arrest New York Used Car Drivers

At 3:30 a. m. last Friday, Patrolmen FitzSimmons and Sullivan observed four automobiles travelling along Watertown st., all bearing New York plates. Two of the cars had dealers' plates on, the other two had ordinary plates. The drivers informed the policemen that they had bought the cars in Brighton for their employer, a New York used car dealer, and were taking them to that city. Jack Bell and Arthur Sternberg, both of New York City, admitted, however, that they borrowed the plates on the cars they were driving from New York friends. They were placed under arrest and were arraigned in the Newton court on Friday charged with driving unregistered cars and attaching plates which had been issued for other cars. In the Newton court on Saturday each was fined $100.

Red Cross Assists Ex-Service Men And Their Families

"The primary obligation of all chapters is to ex-service men and their families," is the arresting sentence in the Manual of the American Red Cross, which is the keynote of the Red Cross in its continued interest in those who have served their country. This has even more significance today with war clouds over Europe, and with dire distress in those pathetic countries where expansion has led to forgetfulness of peace. The United States is not among these nations, whether as warrior or defender, but the news which comes of conditions overseas makes the reader realize that wars of the past, in which the United States was concerned, have left their work for the chapters to do for the men who fought in those wars, and who themselves, and through their families, need rehabilitation, assistance, advice, comfort, consideration, material, mental, and spiritual.

It is, therefore, worthy of bringing to the attention of the residents of Newton and of surrounding localities, that work of this nature daily holds the attention and careful consideration of the Newton Chapter. Quietly, smoothly, kindly, the work goes forward today, twenty and more years after "our boys" went abroad, amidst the cheers and admiration of all Americans. At the entrance of the United States into the World War, in April 1917, service to men in service was taken over by the Red Cross. But previous to those years there had been service to the men in service in Newton, when our forces went to Mexico; this carried on under the direction of the Newton Public Safety Committee. Miss Esther M. Walker, present Executive Secretary of the Home Service Section, 12 Austin st., Newtonville, has been active in this work all during this period. She could tell much of the work that has been done during these years. But what has been done during the past three months, as she reports it, speaks volumes for the interest which continually surrounds the ex-service men, as well as the active service men, and their families.

During these three months 21 letters have been received, seeking advice, assistance, information; 29 letters giving that information and comfort have been written. There have been 117 interviews with veterans, their families, or guardians. These represent many hours, wherein wisdom and kindness played their part. During that period seven new families have been taken under their care; and 19 families have had active service. Information given in four instances. Pensions have been secured in two cases. In seven instances Guardianship Problems have been considered and solved; and in one instance plans for Hospitalization of a Veteran have been arranged.

And not the least, in human interest which makes the war events of Poland seem very real and near, in queries were set on foot through the National Red Cross as to the safety and whereabouts of relatives in Poland of two Newton families; two of these individuals being American-born citizens. Just to be the means of bringing help and comfort to anxious families for loved ones in that terrible area, is indication of the splendid work of the local Chapter, and should be a source of satisfaction to Newton people, so that their interest will always be alert and willing in behalf of their local Red Cross.

THE NEWTON HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

Dr. Robert G. Vance, for the last ten years connected with the X-Ray department of the Newton Hospital, was the speaker at the meeting of the Board of Directors on Tuesday morning, April 9, at the Nurses Home.

Dr. Vance compared statistics of 1929 with those of 1939 and showed that seven thousand more persons had been examined or treated in that department than in the first year of his service there. In order that the machines might be kept up to date, he suggested several new pieces of apparatus which could be used to advantage. Among these was one to be used in the obstetrical department which might be the means of saving lives, as shown by his films.

During the business hour preceding the speaker, Mrs. Francis Williams reported that the Benefit Shop could dispose of chairs and that there was a call for men's shirts and underwear.

Mrs. Charles Floyd announced that the cards were out for the Bridge to be held on Tuesday, April 30, at the Nurses Home. Proceeds will go towards the X-Ray machines which Dr. Vance had mentioned. She urged cooperation in the selling of tickets which have been placed in the various Newtons by the chairman, Mrs. Harold Kellar of 40 Oxford rd., Newton Centre.

Morning coffee, with the president, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson as hostess and Mrs. Charles Floyd and Mrs. Henry Keever, pouring, had preceded the business meeting.

Recent Engagements

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Heywood Griswold of Hartford, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne, to Albert Elliott Robinson, son of Mr. Elliott Harlow Robinson of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Elliott Robinson, of Newton Highlands, Mass. Mr. Robinson is a graduate of Brown University, class of 1936. An August wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Lawrence announce the engagement of their daughter, Stella Barbara Lewis, of Boston, to Carleton R. Williamson of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson of Newton. Miss Lewis is a graduate of the Bryant & Stratton School of Boston and Mr. Williamson graduated from Northeastern University. The wedding will take place June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin H. Shaw of Marysville, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alma Ruth Shaw, to Mr. Winthrop Thatcher Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Charles Lewis of Newton Highlands. Miss Shaw was graduated from Mt. Carmel School of Nursing in Columbus, Ohio. Pupils' Recital at the Music School

On Friday evening, April 5, a pupils' recital was held in the Clafin
School, Newtonville. The program was presented by members from the junior, intermediate and senior departments of the All Newton Music School. Orchestral numbers by the Junior Orchestras opened the program and a number of the very youngest pupils made their first appearance. Special ensemble work was under the direct supervision of Miss Lillian West, head of the piano department.

The Junior Department presented a group of various types of dances drawn from the classics—houree, landier, waltzes, minuets and marches
by such masters as Bach, Schubert,
Beethoven, Brahms, Mozart and Cho-
pin. Solos by Evelyn Hicks, Polly
Lewis, Dorothy Kovitz at the piano;
Martha Cleary, John O'Neil, the vio-

brought the recital to a close. Martha Cleary was chairman for the evening and made the announcements.

These informal pupil recitals are held monthly by the Music School and give opportunity for the young music students to play for parents, friends and each other. There will be another on Friday evening, May 3 at the Polree School in West Newton.
Announcement was made of a musical service in the Second Church,
West Newton, on Sunday evening,

Young Belgian Bachelors Can Choose Wives Here

"Object: Matrimony." That is the sign which might well be hung over the dinner table in Ecaussines, Belgium, when the young ladies of the town give their annual banquet for bachelors. It occurs every Whit-Monday, usually in May, and its fame has spread far from the little village, which lies about 25 miles south of Brussels. Marriageable gentlemen come from far and near to enjoy the hospitality of the maidens, and during the course of the festival are expected to study their hostesses carefully with a view to what kind of wives they would make.

If the food is to a man's liking, and the young lady who cooked it sufficiently affable and pretty, the chances are that a marriage will follow shortly. Of course, she too must be willing, but since all the girls who take part in the fete are anxious to settle down and raise a family, they are not inclined to be over-fussy. They entertain their guests in various ways with dancing, conversation, and general merriment, but making the most of their ability to keep the masculine palate satisfied with good things to eat.

The food served at the dinner is prepared with all the skill of the finest Belgian cookery. It has been said of the culinary art in Belgium that it is "like the best French cooking, only more of it." Thackeray, writing nearly a century ago, tells of an ordinary Belgian hotel meal which included: "Pea soup, melon, boiled salmon, carp stewed in mushrooms, roast turkey, buttered cauliflower, filets of venison, roast veal, roast lamb, rice pudding, Grogue cheese, and about 24 kinds of cake." Menus are equally elaborate today, with the addition of dozens of "hors d'oeuvres" to be sampled before the meal proper; and whether or not the bachelors who go to Ecaussines all get wives, they are all sure of a repeat fit for royalty.

Mexican Shrub Yields Vegetable 'Whale Oil'

Nature sometimes turns up surprising things for the researcher, and when one needed product becomes scarce a substitute often is found.

This is strangely true in the matter of whale oil. An oil similar to whale oil now is produced from the seed of a shrub found in Arizona, the lower part of California and Mexico. It is known by a variety of names, the wild hazelnut, the sheep nut and the goat nut. The Mexicans know it as the joboba, which is pronounced much more softly as joboba.

It is a distant relative of the better-known and thickly branched wood, although it is dioecious—that is, the male and female flowers are borne on separate plants. Only female plants bear the nuts from which the liquid wax comes.

The nut itself is not rare. For centuries it has been relished by the Indian tribes inhabiting the area, and even the oil, which had not previously been analyzed, has been used commercially as a hair tonic. The seed is egg-shaped and ridged, and as a rule is about one-half inch long and three-eighths of an inch thick.

Twenty-five pounds of the nuts were gathered in Sonora, Mexico, and shipped to a commercial feed firm in St. Louis. Then they were sent to the bureau of chemistry, where the oil was extracted from the seed. It was found that these seeds yielded 51.2 per cent of a light yellow oil.

The testing of this oil started in the usual way. First they treated the oil with a strong alkali solution as in soapmaking. Vegetable oils under this treatment yield a soap and glycerin, but joboba oil yielded only about 50 per cent of soap and about 50 per cent of a yellow oil. Gadoleic or eicosenic acid, the principle acid present in this soap, has never before been found, except perhaps in very small amounts, in any vegetable oil. As its name indicates, it is closely related to oleic acid, which is a usual constituent of vegetable oils, but gadoleic acid has 20 carbon atoms in its molecule, while oleic acid has only 18 carbons in its molecule. The results of these tests, in which the component parts finally were separated, showed the difference between joboba and all ordinary vegetable oils.

Treating Fungus Infections

Fungus infections of the skin which produce eruptions resistant to ordinary treatments, of which severe cases of athlete's foot are typical, have been caused to subside by an electrical treatment devised by Professor Howard W. Haggard and Drs. Maurice J. Strauss and Leon A. Greenberg, of Yale university. These infections are resistant to treatment because the fungi that cause them become imbedded deep in the skin tissues where fungicides, applied to the skin, cannot reach them. The Yale scientists devise a method of getting copper, as a fungicide, deep into the skin by iontophoresis, or transporting it through the tissues by an electric current. Treatment lasted from two weeks to six weeks, and the average number of treatments was six. The eruptions turn blue, and healing takes place under this surface.

Lack of Vitamin A

Lack of Vitamin A is believed to be the cause of a condition of itching skin which occurs in winter when there is less sunlight.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR 1940 BASEBALL NINE

Newton High's prospects for a good baseball season are better than average, although any pre-season predictions are necessarily uncertain. The squad has been outside for only a few days, yet Coach "Jeff" Jones has picked his first team from seasoned veterans and most promising candidates. Nino Colletti, who established a batting record of .529 last year, is back again to continue his merciless hammering of all opposing pitchers. Johnny Flagg of basketball and football fame is going to play shortstop, a position where he played some last year. Tom Duzan will be at second base and Phil Fessenden at third. The latter is expected to develop into a good hitter before the season is well on its way. Newton, defensively, will be well protected in the outfield with Fred Friani in right field, Tony Rezutti in center field and Colletti in left field. All three are better-than-average fielders and strong hitters.

Gordie Goodband, who had quite a bit of catching experience last year, will be behind the bat most of the time with Bill Byrne, brother of "Bullet" Byrne, who played at first base a few years ago, being the second-string reserve. Goodband is a consistent hitter and should prove to be a capable receiver with practice. Jim Gallagher, Walter Hurley and Bill Ravinsky will share the pitching assignments. Neither of the three have had much experience and must carry a heavy load this year. Hurley, a converted outfielder from 1939, has something on the ball most of the time. He has a good curve and a rather good fast ball. Jim Gallagher has a hook and a sneaky curve that is very deceiving. Ravinsky has a fast ball, a better-than-average curve and a cute little drop. Edson Forbes, on first base, completes the infield. Forbes made a name for himself last year as a pinch hitter. Forbes, a left-hander, was rumored as a probable catcher. Doubtless the rumor was founded on the fact that last summer Forbes fooled around behind the bat, using a first baseman's glove.

Couch Jones is optimistic over the outlook as the season is about to open. He is somewhat skeptical of the pitching staff, but steady support from the rest of the team may in time offset the lack of pitching ability.

Newton opens the season with Arlington on April 22, on Claffin Field, Newtonville. The game is scheduled for 3 p. m.

Oak Hill Folks At Odds Over Buses

At a hearing to be held before the Newton Aldermen in City Hall on Monday night residents of Oak Hill will present conflicting views over the granting of a permit for the extension of the Middlesex & Boston bus route in that section. One group will urge that a permit be granted so that the buses will operate along Dedham st. to the West Roxbury line instead of having the terminal at Dedham and Brookline streets as at present. Another group, headed by Arnold Hartman, who has been the principal developer of Oak Hill as a residential section, want the bus line to be continued along Brookline st. to Hammond Circle in Brookline. This would give bus service to a new development "Fox Meadows," located along Brookline st. It is planned to build about 100 homes in this section.

What About Mu?

The mythical continent of Mu is pictured as having sunk in the Pacific just as the equally mythical land of Atlantis in the Atlantic. A map of Mu which has been exhibited is a contour map of the bottom of the Pacific ocean based on soundings. Hindu tablets discovered in India are alleged to show that the continent of Mu sank about 10,000 B. C., destroying 64,000,000 persons, including a ruling race of whites. None of these, nor their works, were saved, unless we except the carved rocks on some of the South Sea islands, the peaks of which were not submerged. Lemuria is another hypothetical continent in the Indian ocean, including Madagascar and other islands and home of the genus of mammals known as lemurs.

Newton Woman In Hundredth Year

Miss Charlotte Adams of 109 Vernon st., Newton, entered her one hundredth year last Saturday. She was born in Iowa City, Iowa, on April 6, 1841, the daughter of Abraham G. and Annie (Harrington) Adams. Her parents were natives of Weston, Massachusetts, and had migrated to the then Far West in a covered wagon. She came to Massachusetts when 14 years of age to reside with relatives, and during the Civil War worked at the Watertown Arsenal making cartridges. Although she had but three years of formal education, she was appointed a teacher in the Union Street School at Brighton in 1861 at a yearly salary of $200. When she was retired on a pension she was master's assistant at the Winship School in Brighton and her salary was $960, which entitled her to a monthly pension of $35. She is the oldest pensioner of the City of Boston.

Although Miss Adams became blind several years ago, and her hearing is impaired, her memory is excellent and she takes a keen interest in affairs. She hopes to live to observe her 100th birthday. For the past six years her faithful nurse has been Mrs. Agnes Hall.

Miss Adams is a direct descendant of Robert Harrington who settled in Watertown in 1634, and was one of the proprietors of that town. Her uncle, Abel Harrington, conducted the old Nonantum House at Newton Corner about three-quarters of a century ago. She resided for many years in the home of I. Boutwell Harrington, on Church st., Newton. She spent 52 summers at Wakefield, New Hampshire, and twelve winters at Orlando, Florida. Her nearest relatives are Miss Clara L. Harrington of Melrose and Prof. Arthur C. Harrington of Fitchburg State College, cousins. Miss Adams received many remembrances from friends on her birthday, including flowers, letters and cards.

Cleansing Shop Fire Loss $6500

The cement and wood building at 10 Hawthorn st., Nonantum, near Watertown st. was the scene of a fire which was discovered at 11:53 Monday night by Patrolman Goddard. The fire started in the cellar, apparently from an overheated boiler and spread up through the building. Damage to the building was estimated at $1500, and to clothing which was there to be cleansed—$5000. Over 500 garments were destroyed. The building was occupied by the Queen Cleaners, owned by Ray Miller of Brighton.

Limited Expansion

The town of Bath, N. C., incorporated in 1705, is no larger now than when it received its charter. Superstition says a colonial minister pronounced a curse on the village, forbidding it to grow.

"Big News" Now?

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT
BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

YOU can figure it out for yourself from what you see in daily traffic and what you hear when the talk turns to automobiles.

Buick's pacing the pack. Has been for years.

It called this year's style turn a year ago. It set current performance standards in '38 with its Dynaflex engine. It still leads the crowd for riding qualities with its BuicOil Springing, now in its third year.

So where's a more logical place to look for

You get a "Good Deal" Two Ways from Your Buick Dealer

A good "deal" when it comes to old-car allowances—and a whole lot of automobile in your new Buick.

next year's "big news" than in this year's big and roomy Buick?

It may be smoother engines. Buick is the only car that now balances power plants after assembly.

Coil springs all around may come. Buick's never need lubrication, are practically indestructible, and even cut down skid-risks.

Maybe it'll be heavier frames—Buick has the heaviest of any car of its price. Or maybe many of Buick's "extra touches" like safety-latches on rear doors and Two-Way Direction Signals with automatic cut-off.

You get all of these things now in Buick.

Get them with the plus of Buick quality of materials and workmanship—at a price that suggests a six instead of a husky eight.

So it's easy to start enjoying future "new features" right now. Go try a Buick. Look it over, inside and out. And get the prices.

List figures begin at $895 *delivered at Flint, Mich.; transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

Inches Says Those Who Stole City Property Should Be Prosecuted

Says City-Owned Automobile Was Damaged to Extent of $340

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Inches of Ward 6 delivered a scathing attack on the alleged failure of the previous administration to prosecute a man who he said had taken a city owned car without authority and damaged it to the extent of $340. Inches read an article printed in a newspaper last week which told of the arrest of three men for stealing a Ford car belonging to one of the departments, smashed it into enough fragments so that its repair cost the city, I believe, about $340. And that is all that happened about that, as far as I know. It had the look of being hushed up."

Inches said the second case was the theft of a load of fertilizer owned by the city. He said these two cases should be investigated by the present Mayor, who he praised as efficient and honorable, and the offender prosecuted, so that an example will be made of him and others discouraged from stealing city property.

"This fills me with disgust. It is shocking that a prisoner should offer in court as an excuse for theft, that he thought what he took was city property. Mark you, this man, a former employee of the city, how did he get in this state of mind?"

"Such an excuse could not possibly exist in the mind of this man if he had ever heard of any person having been prosecuted for stealing materials from the city. The only person whom I ever heard of being prosecuted by the past administration was one who was found guilty of concealing a small sum of money from one of the welfare departments. It is very interesting that this prosecution and conviction did not take place until after the guilty party had given information to the board which has already saved thousands of dollars for the taxpayers and which may save thousands more. This man talked and then he got his."

"The first thing I would like to do is ask my colleague from Ward 6, chairman of public works, if more than one of these men found guilty by Judge Mayberry is now or has ever been employed by the city. A note should be made of these men so that they may never be employed by the city."

"It is my opinion that under the last administration there has been no barn door, one which we could put a lock, to prevent the escape of city property, into the hands of anyone who wanted to take it."

"As examples here are two instances in which, as far as I know, the past administration took no action whatsoever. The first one, a while back some one at night broke into the Crafts Street garage, which I trust is not without a watchman, stole a Ford car belonging to one of the departments, smashed it into enough fragments so that its repair cost the city, I believe, about $340. And that is all that happened about that, as far as I know. It had the look of being hushed up."

Inches said the second case was the theft of a load of fertilizer owned by the city. He said these two cases should be investigated by the present Mayor, who he praised as efficient and honorable, and the offender prosecuted, so that an example will be made of him and others discouraged from stealing city property.

City Contracts For Sidewalks

The Street Department awarded the contract for constructing new tar concrete sidewalks and repairing old ones for the year 1940 to J. C. Mayes Company of Waltham whose bid was $2,222; the lowest of three submitted. Obviously there is not going to be much done this year toward repairing concrete sidewalks in Newton.

The contract for the construction and repair of cement sidewalks, curbing and driveways was awarded to Tufo & Yebba of Jamaica Plain, whose bid, $12,445 was the lowest. The other bidders were: O'Malley & Delaney, Waltham, $12,610; Vulcan Const. Company, $14,350; Tocci Brothers, Newtonville, $15,135.

Red Cross Appeals To Sewing Groups To Continue

The attention of Sewing Groups of Clubs and Churches is called by the Newton Chapter of Red Cross to the great need for them to continue to meet during the remainder of April and through May to make the many dresses and layettes required as Newton's quota to be shipped June 1st to National Headquarters. The Chapter appeals to such groups that they hold extra meetings in order that Newton may do the work expected, for reshipment to Finland and Poland, where distress is great. Warm dresses are especially needed; 50 for women, and 100 for children, which are asked of the Newton Chapter; as well as 25 layettes. The Chapter will greatly appreciate the further service of the Groups in this sewing.

Legal Fight Over Policeman's Pay

John L. Riley, a patrolman on the Newton police force, has entered suit against the City of Newton to recover $1.67 which had been deducted from his pay on March 23 at the 4 per cent contribution to the retirement fund. Riley was made a member of the police department in 1916. In 1917 he joined the U. S. military forces to serve in the war. In 1919 he resumed his police duties and in 1920 resigned to return to his occupation as a bricklayer. In 1935 Riley was reappointed to the police department. Chief Hughes understood that Riley, upon resuming his police duties had all the rights he would have had if he had continued as a member of the department during the years between his resignation in 1920 and his reappointment. Accordingly, he assigned Riley to a day route, giving him priority over policemen who had been performing night duty for many years. Riley was also supposed to be entitled to the same pension status as other policemen. But, recently City Solicitor Bartlett and Comptroller White decided that Riley must come under the contributory retirement act which was adopted by the city in 1928, and the deduction was made from his pay.

Will Use $40,000 To Reduce Taxes

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night it was voted to authorize Mayor Goddard to use $40,000 of the city's surplus fund toward reducing the tax rate for this year. Alderman McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee said that the city had received authority to use as much as $100,000 of the surplus for this purpose. This money will be used for city expenses. Appropriations made by the Board included: Universal Catch Basin Company for catch basin forms, $231; Bertha Hartzell for damage to clothing caused by fall on Richardson st. bridge, $17.25; Paramount Laboratories for fumigation work in connection with vermin from North st. dump, $112; $2050 for water main on Park place, Newtonville; $15,000 for WPA sidewalk projects.

Boy On Bicycle Hit By Auto

Richard Griesbury, 15, of Maple st., Auburndale, while riding a bicycle on Woodland rd., Auburndale on Tuesday afternoon was hit by a car driven by Clark Harwood, 79, of 161 Homer st., Newton Centre. The boy received cuts on his scalp and bruises. He was treated by Dr. Keever.

Donates Memorial Room To St. Mary's Building Fund

Contributions Nearing Goal of $25,000

A memorial room for use by young people was contributed by Charles Schweinfurth of Wellesley Hills this week to St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Newton Lower Falls, for the parish house and hall wing.

A total of $21,500 toward the $25,000 total has been reported. Other memorials, such as furnishing the rector's study, the altar in the chapel, the choir room, chapel room, the sacristy and the kindergarten room at $500 up are being sought by a special committee from residents of the communities of which this historic church is a centre, E. Deane Seely, senior warden announced.

The "Book of Golden Memories," in which will be inscribed names of all givers, was shown for the first time last Sunday by Rev. Roger W. Bennett, rector. A vote of thanks to the press was passed Tuesday night by the vestry for its co-operation. Some 255 individuals have supported the campaign for the $40,800 wing so far.

Adjudge Wilbur In Contempt of Court

George Wilbur of West Roxbury, principal owner of the Highland Sand & Gravel Company at Oak Hill, was adjudged in contempt of court by Judge Francis Goode of the Superior Court last Friday. Judge Goode gave Wilbur a stay of two weeks before imposing any sentence, in order to give Wilbur an opportunity to appeal to the Supreme Court. The judge placed Wilbur in contempt because he had failed to comply with an order of the Superior Court, issued some months ago, to remove buildings and equipment at the huge gravel pit off Wiswall rd., Oak Hill. Wilbur had taken the roof off the big sand hopper at the pit, replaced the sides of the structure with wire, and continued operations there.

On December 12, 1937, Cecil Chadwick, then Public Buildings Commissioner of Newton, gave Wilbur a permit to erect the structures and start operating the gravel pit in a private residence zone at Oak Hill. On July 22, 1939, the Board of Aldermen granted Wilbur a 90 per cent of the permit for one year. At that time Wilbur told the Aldermen that there were about 1,000,000 tons of material to be excavated on the large tract of land he owned at Oak Hill, and it would take 5 years to complete the excavating work. Wilbur kept coming in for renewals and obtained them each year although strong opposition had developed among Oak Hill residents against the gravel pit there. A trucking nuisance had resulted and the noise of the machinery at the pit was also objected to.

In 1934 Alderman Temperley called attention to the fact that Wilbur had extended his excavating activities to many acres of surrounding properties not owned by him. In 1936 the Board refused to grant Wilbur another renewal. He obtained an injunction, which permitted him to continue operating the pit despite the refusal of the Aldermen to grant a renewal. A master was appointed to hear evidence on the matter, and the case dragged along for a few years. On January 18, 1937, the Board of Aldermen in another effort to stop the use of the gravel pit, passed an ordinance forbidding heavy trucking on Dedham st. Wilbur obtained another injunction which nullified this ordinance for a couple of years. Last year the Superior Court upheld reports of the masters who had been appointed to make findings on the legal controversy over the gravel pit. Both reports were in favor of the city.

Master Submits Findings In Cullen Case

Alexander Lincoln of Brookline, who was last year appointed by Judge Lummus of the State Supreme Court to serve as master to hear evidence and make findings in two petitions entered by former Sergeant-Mechanic Bart Cullen of the Newton police department seeking reinstatement to that position, gave copies of his reports on Saturday to City Solicitor Bartlett and Francis X. Hurley, counsel for Cullen.

Before filing his final report with the Supreme Court, Mr. Lincoln will hold a conference with the City Solicitor and Attorney Hurley, to permit them to present arguments for amendments to his report. The court has set May 15 as the deadline for filing the report, which will not be made public until it is filed.

In preparing the 1939 budget the Board of Aldermen voted to appropriate money for Cullen's salary only until July 1, 1939, thus automatically abolishing the office on that date. Cullen, through his attorney, filed petitions alleging that the Aldermen did not act in good faith when they abolished his position, and also that his removal from the Newton Police Department was contrary to the civil service laws. He asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the Mayor and Chief of Police to restore him to his former position.

Monaghan Loses On Gas Station

Benjamin Monaghan of Auburn st., West Newton, made his annual appearance before the Board of Aldermen at City Hall on Monday night in one of his numerous attempts to obtain a permit for a gasoline station at 15 Auburn st. He argued that his family got a "raw deal" when their property was placed in a private residence zone in 1922, as business had been conducted at this locus for 30 years. John F. Desmond of Wildwood ave., again appeared as attorney for Rev. John Crane, pastor of St. Bernard's Church, and objected to the petition. He read a letter signed by the Monaghans in 1923 in which they agreed to give up the gasoline station they had been conducting at 5 Auburn st. in return for a permit for another gas station across the street at 1545 Washington st. J. Henry Dath, who operates the station at 1545 Washington st. (the Monaghans owning this property), again asserted that Monaghan is illegally selling gasoline at the locus at 5 Auburn st. He said Monaghan had agreed that he would not sell gasoline at this locus when he leased the other station at 1545 Washington st. The Aldermen again gave Monaghan's petition leave to withdraw.

Robert King, of 328 Brookline st., opposed the petition. He said he had been delegated by the improvement association as a result of the vote on April 9th, to appear. He argued that it is much more practical to extend the Middlesex & Boston bus line along Brookline st. so that it will connect with the Elevated buses, if these buses will be operated to the Newton-Brookline boundary. Arnold Hartmann opposed the petition. He said that President Hanson of the M & B had told him that he had received two letters from the Improvement Association signed by former President Cummings favoring the proposed extension. According to Hartmann, the transportation committee of the improvement association had taken no action on this matter, and Cummings did not have the authority to send the letters. Hartmann said Brookline st. will soon be widened, and the city will save money of transporting school pupils if the M & B buses will be routed along that street.

Charles R. Davis of Brookline st., another former president of the improvement association, also opposed

Dedicate Stables With Dance

The "Sir Echo Stable" on Dudley rd., Oak Hill, was formally opened on Saturday night, April 13, by a dance which was attended by a number of young folks interested in horsemanship. Miss Caroline Elliot was chairman of the committee in charge, and the recreation room at the stable was tastefully decorated by her mother, Mrs. John J. Elliot. The stable, conducted by John Lydon, is a training school for fancy-gaited horses, and a dozen of the high school equines are quartered there. James Fenton of Kentucky, a well known breeder and trainer of horses, entertained with tenor solos. The young folks enjoyed a buffet lunch, and the horses also were feasted in honor of the occasion. John F. Kelly supplied them with a bountiful supply of carrots and apples.

Auburndale House A Fire Menace

A dwelling house at 23 Maple st., Auburndale, which has been unoccupied for years has been adjudged a fire menace by Public Buildings Commissioner Campbell and Chief Randall of the Fire Department. About a year ago the owners of the building started to remodel it. An el at the rear of the house was razed and the interior of the house stripped. Since then old laths and other rubbish have remained in the yard alongside the building and nothing has been done toward completing the alterations.

Oak Hill Residents Divided On Bus Route In That District

Dedham Street Patrons Take Initiative; Brookline Street Riders Now Want Buses

Residents of Oak Hill, including several who have been prominent in the Oak Hill Improvement Association, appeared at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night to favor and oppose a petition presented by the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway asking for permission to extend its Oak Hill line from the present terminal at Dedham and Brookline sts. to the West Roxbury line, about a half mile distant. Albert Hasenfus, chairman of the bus committee of the Improvement Association, favored the petition. He said that last November, 40 Oak Hill residents filed a petition asking that this extended service be given. It is planned to have six trips over the extension daily, and if enough patronage results, to run additional trips. He said that much of the success of the proposed venture depends on whether, or not, the Boston Elevated will extend its bus service from West Roxbury to the Newton line to connect with the M & B buses. He said such a connection would give 40-minute service between the Peabody Tea Room and Forest Hills.

Mr. Hasenfus said that at the April 9th meeting of the Improvement Association, Arnold Hartmann and a few others had opposed the petition. He said Hartmann is planning to build a large number of small houses in "Fox Meadows" off Brookline st., and wants a bus line along Brookline st. to the Brookline boundary. Hasenfus argued that Hartmann has only built 8 houses and only 4 are occupied, so it will be some time before any bus service is needed for that section. He also argued that Brookline st. is narrow, curving and dangerous.

Henry S. Cummings, former president of the Oak Hill Improvement Association, favored the petition. He said he is not opposed to other bus routes at Oak Hill, but the proposed extension should be given a fair trial. He said the vote taken at the April 9th meeting of the association, 16 against the petition and 11 for, was not convincing, as only about 20 per cent of the members present voted on the question. Wendell E. Mick, another former president of the association, also favored the petition. Others who spoke in favor included James P. Esty, Robert Esty, Clement Esty, Mrs. Everett Winslow, Arthur Smith and William Wright.

Robert King, of 328 Brookline st., opposed the petition. He said he had been delegated by the improvement association as a result of the vote on April 9th, to appear. He argued that it is much more practical to extend the Middlesex & Boston bus line along Brookline st. so that it will connect with the Elevated buses, if these buses will be operated to the Newton-Brookline boundary. Arnold Hartmann opposed the petition. He said that President Hanson of the M & B had told him that he had received two letters from the Improvement Association signed by former President Cummings favoring the proposed extension. According to Hartmann, the transportation committee of the improvement association had taken no action on this matter, and Cummings did not have the authority to send the letters. Hartmann said Brookline st. will soon be widened, and the city will save money of transporting school pupils if the M & B buses will be routed along that street.

Charles R. Davis of Brookline st., another former president of the improvement association, also opposed the petition. He said the M & B would not have presented the petition except that company thought the Improvement Association wanted the extension route along Dedham st. He argued that it would be much more direct to go from Oak Hill to Boston via Brookline than via West Roxbury. Replying to the charges that he had acted without authority, Mr. Cummings said he had submitted eight different propositions on bus routes in Oak Hill to the M & B and asked for a conference on these proposals.

Harry Noyes Dies In Plane Crash

Harry E. Noyes, 42, of 65 Prospect Park, Newtonville, was killed shortly after midnight, Tuesday morning at Higganum, Conn., when the chartered airplane in which he was flying from Boston to Camden, New Jersey crashed and burned. Mr. Noyes, who was president of the Noyes Buick Company, departed from the Boston airport at 11:05 Monday night enroute to Florida. He was accompanied by Robert Rideout of Marblehead, a Noyes Buick executive and Charles Smith, employed as a caretaker at Mr. Noyes' Marblehead estate. The plane was piloted by John Hartwell of Brookline.

The plane crashed about 1 a. m. Tuesday when the motor failed. Smith and Hartwell were thrown clear of the burning wreckage and the former, although badly injured, struggled to a farmhouse and told of the accident. Noyes and Rideout had been trapped in the plane, which was a mass of flames when a searching party found it in a wooded area.

Harry E. Noyes was the son of the late Harry K. and Hope (Pike) Noyes. He attended Pomfret School, graduated from Dartmouth in 1918 and during the World War served in the U. S. Naval Air Service. He was a member of the Braeburn and Woodland Golf Clubs, Algonquin, University Clubs of Boston, and Masonic bodies. An enthusiastic yachtsman, he owned four yachts and was a member of the Boston, New York, Eastern, Corinthian and Palm Beach Yacht Clubs. Before residing at Newtonville, he had lived in Newton Centre. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ruth (Pike) Noyes; and four children, Harry, Pike, Hope and Bradley Noyes. Mr. Noyes' funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon at Trinity Church, Newton Centre; Rev. Edward T. Sullivan officiated.

Manning Gets Two Years In Prison

He was found guilty of entering the home of Charles Nason at 59 Border st. on January 20 and stealing a watch and clothing. On February 2 Manning stabbed Allan Foley of Lucas court, West Newton, in the abdomen after he had asked Foley for the price of a drink. For each offence Manning was sentenced to serve 11 months in prison. He had been in jail for two months since his arrest.

PATRIOTS' DAY

One hundred and sixty-five years ago a shot was fired at Lexington which began the real struggle for the liberty and freedom of a great people. A people who had fought nature itself for the preceding one hundred and fifty-five years to lay the foundations of a nation of ideals. Today that nation endures—endures because of its adherence to the traditions which marked its birth while on the other side of the Atlantic we watch the spasmodic upheaval of peoples who are dominated by individualistic desire for greater power. Today we are in the midst of another period of war and strife among foreign nations. As true patriots let us give thought to this land of liberty and freedom. Let it forever offer to the world a leadership which is inspired by the ideals, in defence of which that shot was fired long years ago.

NEWTON A HEALTHFUL CITY

For the third successive year Newton has been awarded first honors among cities of comparative size throughout the country for its healthfulness. There can be no question of the desirability of such an achievement. Nationwide favorable publicity is an asset which redounds to the benefit of the community resulting, as it does, in attracting new residents to this section of the country to settle in our midst. With our fine schools, our exemplary city government, and our residential attractiveness, our healthfulness is another asset which helps to make Newton a city in which one is proud to live.

Prize To Newton In Health Contest

On Monday the Newton Health Department was informed that the City of Newton had won first prize in the annual contest conducted by the United States Chamber of Commerce for health conservation in the class for cities between 50,000 and 100,000 population. The contest covered the year 1939. Newton also won the prize in its class for 1938. The city will be awarded a plaque at the annual meeting of the American Public Health Association.

SARAH HULL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The last meeting of the winter of Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, was held on Wednesday, April 10th, at the home of Mrs. Arthur C. Johnson, 6 Merton st., Newton, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Raymond S. Fosgate, the Regent presided and after the salute to the Flag, a brief business meeting was held. Mrs. Sidney R. Porter, chairman of the program committee, then introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Mary Timmins, who told us of "Genteel Behavior of Bygone Days." In view of the present age and its requirements, many of the social laws she spoke of, were very interesting and amusing. A social hour followed with refreshments, and everyone thought it a very delightful meeting. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Raymond S. Fosgate, Miss Mary I. Fox, Miss M. W. Fox, and Mrs. Daniel M. Goodridge.

Sunbeam Chats

Daddy says I'm his little "forsythia" that's a hard word but it's nice 'cause Dad thinks my disposition is like those flowers—the sunniest in the world. I guess little children are like plants. They grow up strong and sturdy if they get the right start in life and have good food and care. It's not much trouble to be sunny when one is as healthy as I am—thanks to Mother, Daddy, Doctor, and the District Nurses.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

Ed Lowe, editor of the Waltham News-Tribune for over 30 years, died on April 13. He was a native of Newton Corner and a descendant of early settlers of the Town of Watertown. A capable, courteous man, he won the friendship of those with whom he was associated. We always found him to be ready to co-operate when he could be of assistance.

For the benefit of newcomers to this city, we give the information that the official name of that part of Newton which includes the northeast section of the city, Wards 1 and 7, is "Newton," and the old, local name is Newton Corner, not Newton Corners.

The thought occurred to us that if men imitated the women and started wearing the queer, diminutive little contraptions that many of the girls are now using as hats, a bald-headed gazabo might adorn the arid region above his face with a small chapeau decorated with tiny palm trees. It would look like an oasis in a desert.

Representative Francis X. Coyne of Dorchester manages to obtain considerable publicity each year by filing in the Legislature, of which he is a member, some unusual bill that attracts much attention. A few years ago Mr. Coyne introduced a bill, which if it became law, would have compelled persons to use their legal names, rather than assumed names. This bill was directed principally at persons in the entertainment profession, men and women who have achieved fame in the "movies" or as radio stars. We agreed with Mr. Coyne in his efforts to prevent the use of fictitious names by persons in the moving picture industry. In fact, years ago we expressed the opinion that there should be a Federal law prohibiting the legal adoption by men and women of characteristically American names. During the past 25 years or more there have been a widespread practice by persons of foreign birth or parentage of assuming names of families that came to this country in Colonial times. Those who adopted these names did so as a means to conceal their racial derivation and to obtain financial or social advantages. Had they merely wanted to overcome difficulties in pronouncing or spelling certain foreign names, they could have simplified or Anglicized them without stealing other folks' names.

But the latest bill filed by Mr. Coyne is, in our opinion, just for the purpose of obtaining publicity, and very cheap publicity. He proposes that the small plot of land used as King's Chapel burial ground, and the larger plot of land where the Granary burial ground is located, shall be cleared of the dust of the early settlers and famous patriots who were buried in these two hallowed places, and the sites used as office buildings for State departments. Mr. Coyne knows that there are plenty of sites in Boston where the State House that can be acquired for office buildings, and that the people of Boston and Massachusetts with few exceptions would use all means in their power to prevent the plan he proposes being put into effect. What disgusts us with Mr. Coyne and his proposal is that the patriots buried in Granary were important figures in establishing the freedom of this country and making it a haven where Mr. Coyne's ancestors a generation or two ago found a haven from their homeland where they had been oppressed by one of the so-called democracies. Persons of Mr. Coyne's race, with very few exceptions, honor the patriots buried in Granary cemetery and would be among the first to object to the desecration of this burial ground and its conversion into a business location. Persons of Mr. Coyne's race also, with few exceptions, have special veneration for the consecrated ground where their relatives are buried, and would strenuously object to these areas being abolished as cemeteries, so that they might be used as factory or business sites, or for house lots. Mr. Coyne may be a Representative in the Legislature, but he is not representative of the people of his race. From early days of the Christian Church a burial place has been regarded as a "locus religiosus," and therefore inviolable. Either Mr. Coyne does not know of this ancient doctrine, or he does not respect it.

A Waban woman was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday on a charge of driving a car so as to endanger the safety of the public. She was found not guilty. She told the judge that as her car approached a group of boys who were out on the roadway, she blew the horn of her car repeatedly trying to get them to step out of the path of her car. She said that when they finally moved enough to allow her automobile to pass, she operated the car by them in first speed, just creeping, and one of the boys claimed that the car had hit him. She took the boy to the Newton Hospital where it was found that he was uninjured.

We know nothing of the circumstances in this case, but we do know that thousands of autoists, including the writer, have had similar experiences. The refusal of children to get out of the way of approaching automobiles when warnings are given on car horns, and even the false claims of some children—that a car has hit them, has become even a racket in some sections, if some of the children who indulge in this practice were brought into the juvenile court, this dangerous practice would be lessened. It is not always the driver who is at fault.

Things certainly started in the war between Germany and the allies after Winston Churchill assumed control of Britain's part in the scrap. The tightening of the blockade along the Norwegian coast brought quick action from Germany. Although England undoubtedly has a tremendous advantage on sea, Germany has at least an equally large advantage in getting soldiers into Norway. If Britain cannot land enough troops in Scandinavia to prevent the Nazis from establishing a base there, the near future will see a terrific attack on the British navy, on cargo ships, and even on England and Scotland by Hitler's bombers. Unquestionably the great majority of people in the U. S. are hoping for the allies to win, but such a victory is far from being as certain as some experts assert.

Jail Sentences of Tennihan, Mrs. Small, Revoked

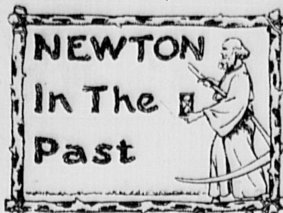

William Tennihan and Mrs. Eva Small of 1110 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, who recently received jail sentences from Judge Quinn in the Newton court because they were found guilty of living in the same house although divorced, were placed on probation by Judge Fosdick in the Superior Court at Cambridge last Thursday. They had been twice married and twice divorced. Tennihan was sentenced in the Newton court to serve one year at Hillerica prison, and Mrs. Small sentenced to the Women's Prison at Sherborn. Tennihan told Judge Fosdick that although he and Mrs. Small had been residing in the same house, they were not living there as man and wife. One of their daughters corroborated his testimony. The condition was imposed that Tennihan and Mrs. Small discontinue residing in the same house.

Jones, Mr. Paul Crocker, Mrs. Pauline Plutman, Miss Sylvia Meadows, Mrs. Maria Mohor, Mr. Charles Clark, Mr. Fred Stritzinger, Mr. Harry Matthews, Mrs. Donald Gosch, and Mr. Laurence Dakin.

All profits will be spent in redecorating and refurbishing the Club House, a building which for many years has played an important part in the community life of Waban.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 11, 1885

Measles are the fashionable thing in the Morse Field district just now. The Boston & Albany Railroad seems to be doing a good business this Spring. Last month 13,432 freight cars were sent East from Albany and 12,671 westbound cars received there.

Harry Kendall, an 8-year-old son of Samuel Kendall, Jr., in attempting to slide down the round rail on the stairs at his home last Wednesday, lost his balance and fell to the floor. He was somewhat seriously hurt internally. The physician was unable to determine whether a rib was broken, or only bent.

The Newton Y. M. C. A. praise service last Sunday was led by W. H. Partridge and the Gospel meeting was conducted by Hiram Leonard. Charles F. Bacon and Edward L. Bacon sang appropriate music. The meeting was well attended and excellent in spirit, and was largely occupied with the invitations of Christ to come unto Him.

As is usually the case, the changeable Spring weather carries off many of our older citizens. Within the past 10 days four old people have died, viz: Mrs. Marsh, 73; Mr. Kimball, 73; Mrs. Washington, 81; Rev. Mr. Gilbert, 86. We knew an old lady who used to say that she had always noticed that if she lived through March, she was sure to live the rest of the year. March is always a trying month to both old and young.

Just as we go to press, Newton Fire Engine 1 has been called to assist the Wabtown department at a fire in the Union Carpet Lining factory at that town. A fire is also reported raging at the Brighton abattoir.

It is a great pleasure to commend any department of our city for promptness and efficiency. It is only six years ago that we labored hard and long to get the city to assist in watering the streets, and after the middle of May the work was started and dust abated. We notice that the Water Department has already put the standpipes in condition to supply the watering carts, and we hope next week to see the carts pass and repass the GRAPHIC office.

The Claffin Guard, Company C, 5th Regt. Infantry, M. V. M., held its first drill in its new armory at Newton last Monday night. The former church shows a marvelous change, having been renovated beyond recognition. It provides the best armory that any company in the State possesses, as well as the best hall for dancing and small entertainments in this part of Newton. The dedication of the armory this evening promises to be the great event of the season socially.

The open horse-cars of the West Newton and Waltham Street Railway have been overhauled and repaired. New springs replace those that caused so much unfavorable comment last summer.

The finest musical selections ever rendered at St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, were performed on Easter Sunday. The solos of the mass were by Misses Linnehan and Cavanaugh; and other selections were by a double quartet.

Baptist Pond at Newton Centre is free of ice, blue and beautiful. The young bass are sporting in the April sunshine. The lease of the pond to private parties expires in 1890. Public opinion is in favor of the renewal of the lease.

The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Improvement Society was held on April 2 in Mason School hall. Secretary Gilbert gave a synopsis of the work done, which included the planting of 40 trees on Centre and Willow sts., improvement of the triangle at Grafton and Homer sts., also at the corner of Lake ave. and Crystal st. Rev. Mr. Stebbins advocated the purchase by the society of all lands bordering the northern and western shores of Crystal Lake between Lake ave. and the shore, to be kept ever for the public good. A petition sent last year by 50 citizens to the City Government asking for a playground for Ward 6 boys, was given leave to withdraw, which was proper in the opinion of this society, as it believes that each Ward should provide such a playground by subscription.

Gray Lady Course Closes With Graduation

Invitations have been issued by the Executive Board of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross to Graduation Exercises of the Newton Hospital Gray Lady Corps, which will take place at the Newton Hospital, Nurses' Home, Saturday afternoon, April 20, at 3 o'clock. These formalities constitute the climax for twelve women of various sections of Newton and Waltham who have attended the course of lectures and study for Gray Ladies which began Monday, Feb. 5, under the direction of the chairman of Gray Ladies for the Newton Chapter, Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., of Waban.

The order of exercises will be music by members of the All Newton Music School. Mr. Charles R. Cabot, chairman of the Executive Board of the Newton Chapter, will make the introductory speech. Addresses will be given by Mr. Owen G. Pratt, superintendent of the Salem Hospital; Mrs. Arthur T. Soule, representing the Gray Lady Class, and then the address with presentation of certificates, by Miss Bertha Allen, superintendent of the Newton Hospital.

These coveted certificates are issued by authority of the American Red Cross National Society at Washington, and award the privilege and right of their holders to serve in specified hospitals as hostesses and helpful friends of the patients, and, in the case of veterans' hospitals, of these men who served in the World War. They bring comfort and cheer to these people, in many ways; supplying gifts, clothing, cards, books, magazines, reading to them, writing letters for them; arranging social events, such as concerts, parties, plays, festive Christmas gatherings; and in the summer, picnics and outings. The hospitals, also, find their kindly services most welcome, as they assist in many hostess ways; arrange flowers, and greet visitors.

Donning the beautiful gray costume and cap, with its arresting insignia of the Red Cross, these women, who have undertaken to serve in the splendid way, are awaited eagerly by hospital patients.

Those who will receive certificates and the privilege of wearing the gray costume will be Mrs. Raymond E. Ashley, Mrs. Vinton O. Harkness, Mrs. Arthur T. Soule, and Mrs. Fred G. Stritzinger, all of Waban; Mrs. Austin Bittenbender, Mrs. Arthur H. Brooks, Mrs. John L. Perry, and Mrs. Laurence W. Watts, of Newton Centre; Mrs. Ashland L. Wright, of Auburndale; Mrs. S. F. Koster, of Newton; Miss Maude Freethy, of West Newton, and Mrs. Patrick Devlin, of Waltham. Two others are to be transfer members of the Newton Hospital Corps: Mrs. Lincoln Elwell, of Newton Highlands, from the Weston Hospital, Springfield, and Miss Margaret V. Waters, of Newton Centre, from the Boston City Hospital.

The chairman of the Newton Hospital Gray Ladies' Corps will be Mrs. Austin Bittenbender; the vice-chairman, Mrs. Ashley Wright; and the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Laurence Watts.

Tea will be served at the close of the program. Mrs. Robert Moore, Jr., who is the chairman of Gray Ladies, has been active in service of the Red Cross for many years, and was one of the four women to take the Gray Lady course when it was originated in Newton for Bedford Hospital in 1933. She has been appointed recently a member of the Executive Board of the Newton Chapter, taking the place of Mrs. Palmer York, who has left Newton.

Hoople, Mrs. Anne Kingsley, Mrs. Albert Fisher, Mrs. Vesta Cook and Mrs. A. Blaine Canfield.

Medals Honoring Pioneer Women Presented

The Annual Meeting and election of officers of the Newton Centre Woman's Club was held last Friday morning, April 12th. Opening the meeting at 11 o'clock, Mrs. Howard O. Winslow, the president, called for the reports of the officers and chairmen of committees, and each chairman was presented with a yellow rose by the corresponding secretary. Mrs. Howard J. Potter, it was announced that the Club Scholarship had been given to Miss Jean Duthie. Mrs. Howard O. Winslow was re-elected president and Mrs. Henry J. Ide recording secretary. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald E. Walsh and Mrs. Madeline C. MacPherson, vice-presidents; Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ferdinand J. Blake, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth P. Bartlett, assistant treasurer; and Miss Ann S. Waters, auditor. The new directors are Mrs. Virgil G. Casten, Mrs. Alexander Skakle, Mrs. Otis E. Stephenson, and Mrs. H. Kempton Parker.

The highlight of the day came in the feature which honored three notable Club members. Medals were awarded by Mrs. John H. Kimball, General Federation director, to the three pioneer women chosen from the Club membership as most outstanding in the three classes as outlined by the General Federation. Mrs. Rufus J. Smith, a member for 52 years, was selected as the one who had the longest continuous membership and service in the Newton Centre Woman's Club; Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell as the one who has had the longest and most outstanding record of leadership in the club, the county, district, and state; and Mrs. Bertrand E. Taylor as the member, not now living, who had the longest continuous service in the Club. Mrs. Taylor was a member for 51 years. Her medal was presented to her daughter, Miss Dorothy Taylor, who was a guest of honor at the meeting with Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Mitchell.

Luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock, and for the afternoon program, Mrs. Hortense Creed Rallsback read three one-act plays.

They must be secured by 10 a. m., Monday.

Nan Lagerstedt, Reader, who will be presented by the Program committee, needs no introduction to the Club, as her last appearance here will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to have heard her. Her ready wit and her almost instantaneous change of personality carry her audience from the ridiculous to moments of extreme pathos, with only the slightest change in costume. The program offers a wide contrast in interesting characters and should be a fitting climax to the Club Year's programs.

Foundation of Realm of

Swedes Laid A. D. 700

It was about 700 A. D. that the foundation of the kingdom of the Swedes was laid by one Ingeld. For more than 300 years, until 1050, the ancient dynasty, seated at the historic city of Upsala, ruled the country. This included a time known as the Viking period, celebrated in history for famous expeditions to the New world. Christianity was introduced into Sweden in 829, but did not gain a foothold until about 200 years later. In 1397, states a writer in the Chicago Tribune, the royal line became extinct and the right of succession to the throne of Sweden, as well as those of Denmark and Norway, fell to Queen Margaret of Denmark. Thereafter until 1523 Sweden was dominated by Denmark through an alliance known as the Union of Kalmar.

When Gustavus Vasa in that year was proclaimed king of Sweden the union was dissolved and the Swedes began playing an increasingly important part in the affairs of Europe. Since then three royal lines have ruled over Sweden. The Vasa line, founded by Gustavus I; the Holstein-Gottorp line, of which Adolphus Frederick was the first; and the Bernadotte line, founded by Charles XIV, better known as Marshal Bernadotte of France. In all there were 12 sovereigns in the Vasa line, covering six generations; there were four in the Holstein-Gottorp line, covering three generations; and there have been five, of four generations, of the Bernadotte line, beginning with the French marshal, who was adopted as a successor by Charles XIII, and coming down to the present monarch, eighty-year-old Gustav V.

It was the Vasa line that produced the great warrior kings, Gustavus Adolphus and the Charleses from ninth to twelfth.

Nectar, Not Honey, That

Attracts Bee to Blooms
It is nectar, not honey, that attracts the bees to the flowers. This nectar is usually found in a little gland at the base of the petal. This is what the bee, and various flies and ants steal from the flower, asserts a writer in the Montreal Herald. When the bee has sucked up the nectar, it turns it into honey in a portion of its stomach called the honeycrop. Therefore the only place where honey exists is in the crop of the bee, and later where it deposits it in the cells of the hive.

The flower's nectar is almost pure saccharose, whilst honey manufactured in the bee's honey-crop is dextrose and levulose. Thus the bee performs the wonderful feat of changing cane-sugar into grape-sugar. Of course the flowering plant does not offer the nectar free. It is a bribe to attract the hairy-bodied bees, who in search for it, rub their bodies against the pollen-covered anthers, and visiting another plant, fertilize it with this pollen and thus carry out the reproduction of the plant. To avoid being robbed of honey by useless insects, flowers often have hairy stems so that ants cannot climb up, and deep-throated flowers so that only the long-tongued bees can reach the nectar. On the petals of the primrose you will see definite lines which botanists call "honey-guides" for as on other flowers, they are thought to be there to guide the bees to the nectar—not the honey!

Term Caucasian Refers

To the Caucasus Region
In a limited sense the term Caucasian refers to the Caucasus region, on the borderland of Europe and Asia, or to its inhabitants, especially its indigenous people, notes a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In its wider use the term is employed as the German anthropologist Johann Friedrich Blumenbach used it, in 1775, to designate the division of mankind which embraces the chief races inhabiting Europe, North Africa and southwestern Asia. He applied this name on the supposition that the people of the Caucasus were the archetype of the race. The typical people of the Caucasian family are comprised in the speakers of the Indo-European, Semitic and Hamitic languages, although some other races, such as the Ainus of Japan and the Polynesians, are by some considered to be stray Caucasians.

Blumenbach distinguished five primary races of mankind—the Caucasian (which includes some people as brown or black as those of other races), the Mongolic, the Ethiopian, the American, and the Malay. This classification is largely followed, although some, like Linnaeus, allow only four—European, Asiatic, African and American—and others, like DeQuatrefages, reduce the number to three, the Malay and American Indian being treated as mixed races, chiefly Mongolic in origin.

Old Blount Mansion
One of the favorite points of interest to visitors to east Tennessee is the old Blount mansion at Knoxville, which was the first frame house built west of the Alleghenies and for years was the hub of government for all the territory south of the Ohio river. The house was erected by William Blount in 1792. Two years before that Blount had been appointed by President George Washington as governor of the Washington district, which was later carved into Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi and Alabama. The old Blount mansion is of early American design.

Life Insurance Protects Your Home From Foreclosure

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is devoting much attention to a form of insurance planned to protect the homes of hundreds of thousands of people in this country. Known as "Metropolitan Mortgage Redemption Insurance," it makes sure that the mortgage on your home will be paid, if you don't live to pay for it yourself. All owners of homes carry insurance against fire, and many also protect their homes against storm and other forms of destruction. There has been a large increase in this latter type of coverage in New England since the hurricane of September 21, 1938. But few persons have had the foresight to make plans for protection against the loss of their homes to mortgagees should the income provider of the family die too soon to pay it off.

The plan devised by the Metropolitan Insurance Company makes a home safe from the mortgage holder at a small outlay. Its mortgage redemption insurance is issued in amounts ranging from $2000 to $10,000. A "Metropolitan" specialist will gladly give you information to show you what this insurance will cost at your age, and how much is needed to cover the mortgage on your home. You and your family will be assured during the years the mortgage is being cleared off, that your death will not cause them to lose their home to the mortgage holder. In addition, after the mortgage will have been paid, you will have life insurance remaining that will be continued at a cost much lower than you can buy similar insurance at that age. If you die, the Metropolitan Insurance Company will send a check to your beneficiary, for an amount enough to pay off the mortgage on your home. Good health is necessary for you to obtain this protection for your home. If your health is good now, why wait?

As an example of how little this home protection costs, take the case of a home owner who is 30 years of age, and who has a $5000 mortgage. His mortgage redemption insurance for the first year will cost him $57.60. Assuming that the mortgage is being reduced at the rate of $500 yearly, the cost of mortgage redemption insurance will also be reduced proportionally, so that in two years its annual cost will be $49.28, in six years $31.50, and in 10 years, with the mortgage cleared, the home owner is carrying $1000 in life insurance at a cost of only $21.50 a year, whereas if he bought a similar amount of insurance at his then age, it would cost him $30.04 a year. Incidentally, the interest on mortgages has dropped sufficiently from the 6 per cent rate which used to be charged, so that the difference between that and the rate now charged will almost pay for the cost of carrying redemption insurance.

Two Alarm Fire At Newton Centre

The two family house at 1037 Beacon st., Newton Centre, was badly damaged by fire on Tuesday afternoon. The house was recently purchased by Mrs. B. A. Moore of Malden. Tuesday morning sulphur candles were lighted in rooms at the first floor apartment to fumigate it. Mr. and Mrs. John McGinn, who occupied the second floor apartment went with their four children to relatives while the lower apartment was being fumigated. Smoke was seen issuing from the second floor of the house at 2:10 and Box 71 pulled, and a second alarm followed at 2:23. The firemen were repeatedly forced to leave the house because of the sulphur fumes. A defective chimney is supposed to have caused the fire which mushroomed between partitions.

U. S. Sentry on Caribbean

Guantanamo, Cuba, constitutes one link in the steel chain which Uncle Sam uses for defense of the Panama canal. Located on the south shore at the eastern end of Cuba, the Guantanamo naval base came into being early in the Twentieth century, when land there was leased by the United States from the Cuban government. Today, the station costs a comparatively small rental fee, and provides an important sentry at a Caribbean crossroads. Under the jurisdiction of the United States navy department, the Guantanamo base affords in addition one of the best harbors in the West Indies, wide enough and deep enough to give shelter to the whole American fleet, yet protected by a narrow entrance from hurricanes and sea attack.

Waban Man Fined $25 For Assault On Policeman

Robert Hamilton, 55, of 15 Wamest rd., Waban, was fined $25 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court on Monday for assault and battery on Patrolman Leo Gagnon. He was also fined $5 for speeding. Hamilton appealed. Gagnon testified that on the night of April 4 he stopped Hamilton's car after it had passed two other cars in Waban sq. and had exceeded 30 miles an hour. Hamilton denied that he was speeding and demanded Gagnon's badge number, which the patrolman gave him. According to Gagnon's testimony, Hamilton then said: "How do I know you are not lying?" thrust his left arm toward the patrolman's cap and knocked it off as he hit the side of Gagnon's head. Gagnon started to place Hamilton under arrest, the latter clung to the side of his car, and the policeman then placed an "iron claw" on Hamilton's wrist to subdue him.

Hamilton testified that Gagnon refused to give him his number, saying "Read it." He said that he put his hand up to his eyes to shield them and that as he moved his hand, Gagnon moved his head. He admitted having asked a police sergeant to smell Gagnon's breath, that the latter did so, and could detect no odor of liquor from the patrolman.

Patrolmen Greeley and Whelan discovered a window broken at 1:30 a. m. Saturday at the Colonial Filling Station, 1169 Washington st., West Newton. An investigation showed that the burglar had taken 75 cents from the cash register.

Election Next Tuesday Will Select Delegates To Party Conventions

Organization Group Headed by Saltonstall Opposed by McMasters Old-Age Pension Slate

Next Tuesday Newton voters will go to the polls in the presidential primaries to elect delegates to the national conventions, members of the State Committees and Ward and City Committees. As in previous years a comparatively light vote is anticipated. Four years ago 24 per cent of more than 33,000 voters cast their ballots. The usual polling places will be used as in the city election.

On the Republican ballot there are two groups of candidates for delegates at large, together with alternate delegates. The first of these groups is headed by William M. McMasters of Cambridge and includes Byron P. Hayden of Springfield, Harry P. Gibbs of Brockton, and Selden G. Hill of Danvers. This group will also carry with it the notation that they are pledged to Thomas G. Dewey, Republican presidential aspirant, although the latter has publicly repudiated this endorsement. Another tail to the political kite of the McMasters group is the endorsement of the program for national old age pensions at sixty.

The regular Republican organization group is second on the ballot and is headed by Governor Leverett Saltonstall, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Congressman Joseph W. Martin and former State Treasurer John W. Haigis. In view of the overwhelming popularity of these four candidates among Newton voters as expressed in past elections it is probable that Newton voters will not be swayed by the first place position of the McMasters group or the unauthorized Dewey pledge.

This second group will go to the convention unpledged to any of the avowed presidential candidates. Their alternates will be Mary B. Besse of Wareham, Orrin S. Kenney of Beverly, Mary Phillips Bailey of Northampton, and Irene Gowetz of Worcester.

There are two groups of candidates for district delegates to the Republican convention from the 9th Congressional district. The first group consists of District Attorney Robert F. Bradford of Middlesex County and ex-Mayor Sinclair Weeks of Newton with their alternates. They are opposed by Charles F. Danforth of Cypress st., Newton Centre and Leon H. Cutting of Cambridge.

There is an interesting local angle to the contest for the election to membership on the State Committee from the new Senatorial district which comprises the city of Newton, Ward 22 of Boston and Ward 5 of Cambridge. The voters will elect to members to the committee, one man and one woman. Mrs. Elizabeth D. Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill is unopposed as the woman candidate. Four candidates are in the field for the seat as the male member. Raymond L. McPhail of Ward 22, Boston is being supported by many local prominent Republicans including Charles B. Floyd, president of the Board of Aldermen. Other candidates include Roger A. Lutz, registered as a voter at Ripley st., Newton Centre, Thomas C. Morahan, registered as a voter from Hibbard rd., Newton, and Peter H. Wood of Ward 22, Boston.

Of the last three named candidates Roger Lutz has been somewhat active in the formation of the young Republican movement. He was born in Newton and is a graduate of Harvard University and the Babson Institute where he has been prominent as national president of the Babson Institute Alumni Association. He was the second president of the Young Men's Republican League of Greater Boston. It is stated that he is now living in Cambridge although registration records at Newton City Hall show that he first registered as a voter in Newton in September, 1939.

Candidates by ward will be as follows:

Ward 1: James A. Butler, 212 California st.; Louis Fried, 59 Cook st.; Timothy A. Regan, 4 Capital st.; John T. Alden, 74 Fairmont ave.; Clitheroe P. Loveland, 51 Claremont st.; Elliott B. Police Campaign Against Illegal Parking In Newton

Members of the Newton police department assigned duty to business sections of the city, are co-operating with Inspectors Burke and Hammett of the traffic bureau in a campaign against persons who have been making a habit of violating the parking regulations of this city. A certain minority of automobile drivers pay little attention to signs which show that parking is prohibited or restricted in various places in the business sections, or that parking is limited to one hour. This type of autoist also will park his or her car at a street corner, alongside a hydrant, parallel where angle parking is specified (or vice versa) or on cross walks.

Under the method now being used, no tag is affixed to the car illegally parked. Instead, the number of the car is given to the Traffic Bureau and the name of the owner is ascertained. Then the owner receives a notice to report to the office of the Clerk of Court where he or she receives a warning. A second offence again requires the owner to report to the clerk of court's office and a penalty of $1 is imposed. A third offence brings the offender back to the Clerk of Court's office for the purpose of paying a $2 penalty. A fourth offence within the year results in a summons being handed to the persistent offender for his or her appearance in the district court. But if the fourth offence occurs after December 31, even though the other three offences occurred within a period of a few months previous, the slate is wiped clean.

This method of curbing persistent offenders against parking regulations was enacted into law several years ago by the Legislature of this State. It saves them from being branded with criminal records, but it accords more leniency to those who because they are onerous or stupid, persist in non-cooperation with public safety and welfare by disregarding parking regulations made to promote the best interests of a community.

School Calendar for 1940-41 Provides for 182 School Days

Seven Teaching Positions Will Be Abolished

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday night an application was received from Newton Post, A. L. asking for a permit to use Clafin Field, the athletic area behind the high school at Newtonville, for its annual field day on July 4th. A letter was also read from the Newtonville Improvement Association asking that representatives of this organization be given an opportunity to be heard by the School Committee before the Legion Post is given a permit for the field day. The improvement association members want to discuss the matter of permitting the setting off of fireworks, this event having been the climax of the field day in that year. The application of Newton Post was laid on the table.

Action was again postponed on the application which had been received from the Newton Lower Falls Improvement Association at a previous meeting. Members of the Lower Falls group want to use the gymnasium of the Levi Warren School at West Newton for badminton games. The School Committee at that meeting did not manifest enthusiasm over the request, and comment was made that the Recreation Department is in charge of athletic activities conducted in school buildings. The School Committee sent a letter to the Lower Falls applicants referring to the fact that the parish hall of St. Mary's Church, where the badminton games were played by Lower Falls residents, is being rebuilt. The petition was again laid on the table because no reply had been received to this letter. Badminton devotees in other sections of Newton play the game in privately owned halls.

The School Committee voted to grant a permit to senior scouts of Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts, to hold a dance at Warren Junior High School on the night of May 10. The boys asked for the use of the gymnasium from 8 p. m. until 11 a. m. the next morning. The committee limited the permit to midnight, so the boys (and girls) will get home at a more seemly hour after that dance.

A two-hour conference was held at the Mayor's office on Monday morning relative to the unemployment and relief problems in the City of Newton. The following men attended: Clarence G. McDavitt, Vice Chairman of the Community Council and Chairman of the Council Committee on Employment; Lyscom A. Bruce, Jr., Executive Director of the Community Chest and Council; Charles B. Jones, President, and Charles E. Bailey, Executive Secretary of the Newton Taxpayers' Association; James P. Reynolds, Director, Department of Public Welfare; Harold F. Young, Sponsors' Agent, W.P.A., and Rupert C. Thompson, Secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce.

It is hoped that during the coming months that some definite program can be developed with the help of these men, together with other citizens of Newton who have a vital interest in these problems. Subsequent meetings will be held as preliminary plans made by this committee are carried out.

1500 Dogs Are Inoculated

The free clinic for dogs conducted by the City of Newton last week at the old-drill shed behind the classical high school building on Walnut st., Newtonville, resulted in about 1500 dogs receiving inoculation against rabies. Because of the illness of Dr. Boutelle, city veterinarian, the inoculations were given by Dr. Schofield of Wellesley. So far this year 3400 dogs have been licensed in Newton, as against 4500 licensed during 1939. This indicates that there are many dogs in this city which have not yet been licensed, and that a majority of the dogs in the city are not inoculated against rabies.

City Employees Seek Change On Half-Holiday

Newton local of the City Employees Federation, through a committee, has asked Mayor Goddard to recommend a change in the ordinance regulating the granting of a Saturday half-holiday to its employees. The present ordinance requires 44 hours work a week to qualify for the Saturday half-holiday with pay. The employees ask that this ordinance be changed so that only 36 or 28 hours of work be required to qualify for the half-holiday. The local also is requesting the city to take steps to place automobile liability insurance on city-owned automobiles and trucks. Sixteen new members were initiated at the last meeting of the Local, bringing the membership total to 205. Plans are being made for the annual summer outing of the Local. It will be held on Saturday, June 22 at Vose's Grove, Maynard.

Teachers Confer On Salary Study

The committee recently elected by Newton school teachers to represent them in the study which is being made of salaries of teachers in the local public schools held a meeting on Tuesday at the office of Supt. of Schools Warren. Russell Burkhard, principal of the Day Junior High School was elected chairman of the committee. Last week he was elected vice-president of the State Federation of School Teachers. Harold Gores, administrative assistant to Supt. of Schools Warren, was chosen coordinator for the School Committee. He will obtain information regarding teachers salaries from other cities of comparable size with Newton. Following this meeting, the teachers' committee conferred with Professor William Ellsbree of Columbia University who was selected by the Newton School Committee to make a survey of the salaries paid to Newton school teachers.

Ask Stop of All Day Parking

Sheldon Rudnick, representing the Greylock Construction Company, owners of the apartment houses at 27-41 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, has petitioned the Board of Aldermen to place a 2 hour limit on parking opposite those buildings. The petition states that owners of automobiles who commute to Boston via the Boston Elevated, park their cars opposite the apartment houses mornings, and leave them there all day long. This prevents residents of the apartments, friends who come to visit them, or drivers of delivery trucks, from having opportunities to park even for short periods in front of the buildings.

Letter Carrier Dies Suddenly

Garrett Walsh, 41, of 17 Goddard st., Newton Highlands, was found dead this morning about 6 o'clock at his home. Medical Examiner Thomas M. Gallagher in his report stated that heart disease was the cause of death. Mr. Walsh had been a letter carrier at the Newton Highlands postoffice since August 19, 1924. He is survived by his widow.

Hearing Thursday Night On Zoning Of House Lots

Next Thursday night, May 2, at 7:45, a hearing will be held at City Hall before the Claims & Rules Committee of the Board of Aldermen and the Planning Board on proposed changes in the zoning ordinance which will effect properties in Wards 1, 2, and 7. All persons interested are invited to attend this hearing. On May 9th, a similar hearing will be held to consider proposed changes in Wards 3 and 4; and on May 23 a hearing to consider changes in Wards 5 and 6. The changes are for the purpose of establishing minimum areas and dimensions for house lots in various sections of this city. The need for such restrictions has been rapidly evidencing itself the past several years. A large number of the older estates in the city have been sold and subdivided. Real estate speculators and developers, largely non-residents of the city, and who have little or no regard for Newton's future, have bought estates or out-

Newton Bankers Elect Melcher

At the annual meeting of the Newton Bankers Association on Wednesday evening James B. Melcher, cashier of the Newton National Bank, was elected president. One hundred and eleven members and guests were present at the meeting which was held at the Brae Burn Country Club. Other officers elected included Ellery Peabody, president of the West Newton Cooperative Bank, as vice-president; Warren W. Oliver, treasurer of the Newton Cooperative Bank, as treasurer; and Kenneth W. Rogers, assistant treasurer of the West Newton Savings Bank, as secretary.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard addressed the meeting and outlined some of the aims and expectations of his administration. Emphasis was placed on the value of a long-range plan, working toward economies in municipal expenditures, but giving intelligent consideration to the needs of the city.

The Newton Taxpayers' Association was represented by President Charles B. Jones, who told of the development of the organization and some of its accomplishments and objectives.

In a talk entitled "Back of the Blackout," Mr. Edward B. Hitchcock, News Correspondent, Radio Commentator and former Personal Aide to Dr. Edward Benes, discussed conditions in Europe and some of the developments which may be expected.

Because of insufficient patronage and the need of effecting economies, the Boston & Albany Railroad has announced that starting Sunday, April 28, a number of suburban trains will be withdrawn from service. The total of trains to be withdrawn is twenty-two. Railroad officials believe that no great inconvenience will result to residents of the Newtons and Wellesleys, as many of the trains to be cancelled ran on schedules close to other trains which will be retained. Additional cars will be placed on these trains to provide seats for the passengers who were accustomed to travel on the trains which will be no longer run.

The trains to be cancelled are: Boston to Riverside, via main line; 11:15 a. m., daily; 12:55 p. m., Saturdays; 1:22 p. m., Saturdays; 2:55 p. m., Saturdays; 3:55 p. m., daily; 5:02 p. m., daily; 5:22 p. m., daily except Saturdays; 6:55 p. m., daily; 10:45 p. m., daily.

Riverside to Boston via main line; 7:39 a. m., daily; 1:05 p. m., daily except Saturdays; 1:09 p. m., Saturdays only; 2:08 p. m., daily; 3:53 p. m., daily; 6:40 p. m., daily; 3:50 p. m., Sundays.

Boston to Riverside via Circuit Branch; 12:15 p. m., daily; 3:10 p. m., daily; 5:55 p. m., daily; 10:50 p. m., daily.

Riverside to Boston via Circuit Branch; 6 a. m., daily; 6:50 a. m., daily; 9:05 a. m., daily; 1:14 p. m., daily except Saturdays; 4:03 p. m., daily; 6:01 p. m., daily; 7:40 p. m., daily.

Oppose Farlow Hill Zoning Change

Owners of the Country Day School of Newton property have sent a protest to the Newton Board of Aldermen against the proposal to that part of the former school property lying North of Hood st., Newton from private residence to single residence zone. The school was merged last year with the Rivers School of Brookline and the land owned by it on Farlow Hill, Newton will be developed into home sites. Residents of that section recently sent a petition to the Board of Aldermen asking that the property be changed to single residence zone to protect their single residences.

The Country Day School corporation through W. Linwood Chase, headmaster, states in the protest that the section between Hood st. and the Brighton line nearby, is predominantly a two-family neighborhood, and the owners of the property involved want to present arguments against unfairly restricting their property.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

There is apparently little interest locally in the Presidential Primary election which will be observed next Tuesday. This apathy upon the part of the voters every four years in electing delegates to the national party convention might easily be of grave importance. Those who are sent to the party convention select the party nominee for whom the voters will then vote in November. This latter vote largely becomes a matter of party responsibility and not one of individual preference. The time for the voter to express his individual preference for one or any number of available candidates is now. The delegates will go to Philadelphia in June unpledged, unless the voters who are inclined towards Thomas E. Dewey are induced to vote for the McMahers slate which has announced its intention of supporting Mr. Dewey, but without his authorization.

There is no question that Dewey has many assets as a presidential candidate. Likewise, so have Senators Taft and Vandenberg, so has Wendell Wilkie, so has Massachusetts' Joseph W. Martin. Next Tuesday the voters will elect the men who will help select the party candidate. It is the citizen's duty to vote next Tuesday.

DAYLIGHT SAVING STARTS

Newton residents should remember to set their clocks, watches, and other time pieces ahead one hour before retiring on Saturday evening if they would be on time for church or other appointments on Sunday morning. Although the annual change of time always introduces family problems of adjustment, particularly where young children are concerned, the benefits of this added hour of daylight in the evening are many in urban areas. With the coming of daylight saving it always seems that spring has arrived. The contrary way the weather has been acting of late we may possibly save on daylight but make no gain in sunlight.

Newton Dentists Active At Annual Convention

Newton has had the largest representation of any individual city, other than Boston, at the 76th annual convention of the Massachusetts Dental Society, which concluded its sessions yesterday at the Hotel Statler. Two Newton men have been officers of the society this past year and eight others participated in the four-day program.

Dr. Maurice E. Peters of Ellis rd., West Newton, vice-president, will doubtless succeed President-Elect Dr. Geo. C. Brown of Worcester, following the 1941 convention. Dr. Joseph T. Paul of Page rd., Newtonville, has been treasurer of the society for many years. The Newton dentists who participated or conducted demonstrations, courses, lectures, symposiums and clinics were Dr. Joseph B. Rockett of Hamlin rd., Dr. Herbert I. Margolis of Commonwealth ave., Dr. Alfred B. Rogers, Monmouth rd., Dr. E. A. Kingley, Upland rd., Dr. Alvin E. Strock of Commonwealth ave., and Dr. Thomas Hennessey of Carver rd., Newton Centre; and Dr. Ernest J. McKenna of Centre st., Newton, and Dr. Julius Ainsor of Brae Burn rd., West Newton.

Sunbeam Chats

Well, talk about surprises—I just heard the District Nurse say there were two cases of scarlet fever down the street. Now I wish I could have some shots against that. She says the children are quite sick with high fevers and awful sore throats and they have a rash all over. That isn't all she says they can get—bad heart trouble, ear trouble and a lot of other things. I guess they sure need a doctor bad.

(Sunbeam Chats are sponsored by the Newton District Nursing Association.)

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

The action of the Newton School Committee in granting a permit for the use of the gymnasium at the Levi Warren School to Boy Scouts for a dance on the night of May 10, but specifying that the dance must end at midnight instead of 1 a.m. as requested by the boys, will meet with the approval of most Newton citizens. Most school buildings in Newton are in residential neighborhoods. Persons residing near school buildings are entitled to consideration. Admitting that school buildings are public property and use of them to a reasonable degree should be granted for social and civic purposes, the rights of people living in the vicinity of school buildings should not be sacrificed for the enjoyment of persons who reside elsewhere. Midnight is late enough for the use of any school building, and late enough for Boy Scouts to be dancing.

We have been requested again to call attention to the need of a small shelter at the corner of Walnut st. and Commonwealth ave., to protect persons who must travel to City Hall by bus from inclement weather. Such a shelter is needed for the comfort and protection of citizens who have to go to City Hall by bus, and also for the protection of clerks working in City Hall. It has also been suggested to us that if the Middlesex & Boston would run a special bus to City Hall mornings for the convenience of employees working there, such a bus might be well patronized.

It seemed a peculiar coincidence that a couple of weeks after the City of Newton disposed of the last twenty horses it owned, Dr. C. A. Boutelle, who was City Veterinarian for 33 years, and cared for the many horses formerly owned by the city, died.

The writer is utterly opposed to totalitarianism as exemplified by Hitler and his Nazi government, and Stalin and his Soviet government. He does not favor the doctrine of "Might makes Right," which has been and is being followed by Hitler, because this doctrine is utterly at variance with those on which this country was founded—Liberty, Equality and Justice.

The writer also detests insincerity, hypocrisy and duplicity which characterize some governments, and have been characteristic of them in the past. A week or two ago we mentioned about the action of the British ambassador who informed high Japanese officials that the aims of Britain and Japan are akin, and who wished Japan success in its Chinese conquest. During the past week news from Japan and China indicates that Britain, hoping to dissuade Japan from gaining control of England's advantages in the Far East, and probable possession of countries now under British domination, has handed over (or will hand over), a huge amount of silver entrusted to the British by Chinese. Also, that in return for permitting Britain to conduct a blockade in the Pacific, Britain will co-operate in blocking transport by rail in Asia of war materials which will enable Chiang Kai-Shek's armies to carry on the fight against the Japanese invaders.

If these reports be true, Britain, which poses as a great Democracy, and as the leading combatant against aggressor nations, will reverse its alleged stand on these two principles to protect its own selfish ends. This is more proof why the U. S. A. should not become embroiled in the struggle for empires between Britain, Germany and Japan. It is more proof, also, of the stupidity and cupidity of the U. S. A. in having been the principal source of supply for war munitions which have enabled Japan to wage its conquest of China.

It is to be expected that there will be many complaints following the curtailment of train service on the Boston & Albany Railroad next Monday. Newton has for the past three quarters of a century enjoyed exceptional good service from the Boston & Albany Railroad. But, if the majority of Newton residents commute to and from Boston in their own automobiles, the railroad company cannot be expected to continue to run trains with only a few passengers. Just why so many Newton men prefer to drive an automobile into Boston every working day, getting into heavy traffic morning and evening, then paying for a parking space in Boston, is something that puzzles many persons. The writer would prefer to use the railroad if he had to commute to Boston. On the other hand, if the railroad company would provide cool cars for its patrons during the warm months, more suburban residents would travel by trains. Passengers get roasted during the summer months in the Boston & Albany cars.

A prominent Newton resident told us that a census enumerator came to his house and was very helpful in giving answers to questions. This census worker offered to guess at (or estimate) answers to several of the questions. And figures gathered in the census are supposed to provide valuable statistics. Long ago some wise person commented that "most statistics are d—ned lies."

For about 10 days the newspapers had daily dispatches from across which told of the British capturing Narvik. Then came the news that the British are trying to take Narvik. Rather confusing, isn't it?

A year or more ago a conference was held between welfare officials of this city and members of certain civic organizations relative to obtaining employment for reliable persons who are on relief; persons who had good records and who possess requisite intelligence, ability and ambition to give good service in many types of private employment. No results came from this conference. One resident of Newton, who has taken much interest in this movement is a retired executive of a large corporation. He suggests that if some of those Newton residents, who have been complaining about the largely increased welfare expense of this city want to be of practical assistance, they should co-operate in an effort to find employment for worthy men who are on public relief rolls in this city.

Recently, the Newton Taxpayers' Association, taking its cue from a report of the special committee which has been studying the unemployment and relief problem under the direction of Governor Saltonstall, held a conference with Mayor Goddard and welfare officials of Newton. According to officers of the Taxpayers' Association, had the City of Newton in past years provided vocational training for welfare recipients, a large percentage of 1337 persons who have obtained employment in Newton the past couple of years with industrial concerns and other employers in this city, could have been those who have been on relief rolls in this city.

In our opinion, the Taxpayers' Association is far too optimistic. Most of the recipients of public relief in Newton are beyond the age where they can be successfully trained in trades or in other skilled occupations. And even if they could be trained in the Newton Trade (or Vocational) School, which is doubtful, they are beyond the age at which industrial companies will hire them. It is true that there are a number of young, or comparatively young men on relief rolls in Newton, but they comprise a far smaller percentage than those of middle age or beyond. We would be interested to have the officers of the Newton Taxpayers' Association give the number of persons on relief in Newton between the ages of 20 and 40, and those over 40, and also obtain statements from owners of industries in Newton, telling how many Newton relief recipients they can give employment to, provided they will receive special training and what kind of training will be required.

Rotary Club

At the Monday meeting of the Newton Rotary Club at Brae Burn, President Needy, in accordance with the by-laws, appointed Jim Melcher chairman of the Nominating Committee and Lyle Bruce as the second member. In addition, the following members were elected: Gene Campbell, Frank Frykstrand, and Mattie Ruane.

Dick Nesbitt had charge of the program. He gave a most interesting discussion and demonstration of "Sign Language."

He has had considerable experience in the Central West, and studied sign language under an expert. A great many of the signs used are simple and natural, but in order to talk for any length of time, the characters literally must be "at your fingertips." It is usually considered bad grammar to use your left hand.

Mather Class Discusses Personal Security

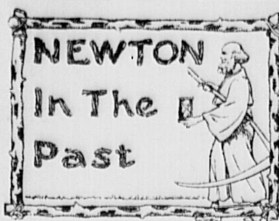

At the regular Sunday morning forum of the Mather Class, Dr. Mather's topic was, "Meeting the Demand for Personal Security" in the series, "Science and Society." This problem is one of the most important before the government at the present time. "Its solution is not an expression of self interest but an imperative responsibility," said Dr. Mather. "Different experiments have been tried during the last half dozen years and now the time has come for the appraisal of these."

The twenty-ninth survey by "Fortune," which deals with government spending, reveals that the majority of both prosperous and poor people agree that reducing poverty and unemployment leads in importance over armament expenditures, agricultural relief and public works. This present belief of the citizens shows the United States to be a Christian nation.

The government has made progress in health insurance and its old age security program which benefits the majority of citizens. "In my opinion," said Dr. Mather, "the best way for intelligent folk to meet unemployment is to provide work and not dole." This is the principle of the FERA, a state administered organization and the WPA administered by the federal government. Most trained economists favor the WPA despite its shortcomings. Its primary object is not to get things done but to provide work. The money appropriated has gone to millions of laborers compensating in a measure for the decrease in workers due to modern machinery and efficiency methods.

Progress is being made in wage and hours administration. Members of this bureau report fullest co-operation by most employers.

Dr. Mather concluded by stressing the need for efficient insurance programs and adequate provision for work and training.

On Saturday evening a brown horse and buggy owned by Dr. Cobb of Cambridge were stolen from in front of Whitman's stable at Newton. Patrolman Emerson recovered the team about an hour later near the Brighton line, but the thief escaped before the officer could get near enough to identify him.

The Highway Department has put into effect a strict rule which prohibits smoking or conversation by employees during working hours.

Information of a supposed murder having been left at police headquarters, Sergeant Richardson went to investigate. A pool of blood and evidence were found just this side of Weston bridge. The fact was later ascertained that Officer Bosworth had shot a vagrant dog in that vicinity.

The alarm for fire from Box 16, Centre and Church sts., last Tuesday, was ordered by the Mayor to demonstrate to the legislative committee that our fire department is prompt in responding to an alarm. Steamer 1 was on the spot in one minute and 40 seconds after the alarm was given, and the whole department which answers that box in 15 minutes. Quick work when you think of the distances some of the companies had to come.

The Newton Tennis Club held a very enjoyable party at Armory Hall, Newton on Tuesday night. About 75 couples were present and in point of dress it was the most brilliant affair of the season.

50 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Saxton of Newtonville were thrown from their phaeton while driving through West Newton a few days ago when the vehicle came in contact with a lamp-post and overturned. The occupants were not injured fortunately. The horse ran leisurely across the street and waited for his owner to extricate himself from the mud.

In the Newton police court yesterday morning Paul Titlam paid a fine of $1 and costs for riding a bicycle on a sidewalk in violation of the city ordinances.

A sick horse attracted some excitement on Cherry st., West Newton last Saturday morning. The animal had a fit and was unable to get on his feet for a couple of hours.

Work has commenced on building the structure for contagious diseases near the Newton Cottage Hospital.

Work will be started this summer in building a schoolhouse in Waban on part of the site of the former almshouse.

Miss Haley of Newton was knocked down and painfully bruised last Saturday at the corner of Dartmouth st. and Warren ave., Boston, by a saddle horse. The rider made his escape while the injured woman was being cared for.

A public meeting of Newton carpenters under auspices of the Local Union of Carpenters was held at Cole's Hall, Newton on Wednesday evening. About 300 were present, including members of other trade unions. The speakers were W. J. Shields, vice-president of the carpenters' brotherhood, Frank Foster and W. J. Moulton. The 8 hour movement was advocated, although the Newton carpenters would be satisfied if the contractors here would only work their employees 9 hours per day. One contractor in Brighton is employing non-union men, and working them 13 and 14 hours a day.

The Common Council met on Monday night. When the matter of appropriating $1200 for the purchase of four horses for the Highway Department came up, Councilman Dutch said he did not see why the city should pay $300 for a horse, when Mr. Eddy, Mr. Mague or any other large buyer of horses in this city can purchase the best of horses for $250 and within a month's trial. He has found when purchasing horses that prices on them have been reduced from $25 to $50, and it is his duty to protest when the city pays more for horses than individuals have to pay. He said it is the duty of the Councilman to stop leaks if they can. Councilman Richardson said he knows horses can be bought for $250 but they are not first class horses such as the city wants. He asked Mr. Dutch to make a tour of the horse sales stables in Boston with him and find out whether first class draught horses can be bought on a month's trial or for less than $300.

When the report in regard to buying the Sargent land on Waban Hill came up, Councilman Estabrook wanted to know whether this land is being taken for a water reservoir or for a park. He said that when park lands have been bought in other parts of the city, citizens in those districts have had to pay one-half the cost, and Chestnut Hill should not be an exception. President Hyde said the land is being taken for water purposes. Councilman Estabrook said that the Water Board had stated that only 2 acres are needed for water purposes, so why is the city buying between 9 and 10 acres, and going to pay $40,000, when a real estate expert had told him

One of the more notable examples of inter-family education on a mass production scale is offered by the Nolans of 60 Gardener st., Newton. Occasion for their entrance to a column devoted to outstanding collegians was inspired by Bob's recent election as president of the Mask and Dagger, honorary dramatic society at the University of New Hampshire. At Newton High Bob showed his initial flair for the creative by gaining membership to several literary and dramatic organizations sponsored by the school. He belonged to the Alpha Beta Club, Glee Club and English Club. His yearning to write was sated by participation in the Newtonite and Tusitala Club, the latter of which he was secretary-treasurer. However, uppermost in mind was his desire to explore the world of the stage. Three years in the Drama Club made it seem the only natural field for him to follow. Especially worthy of note was his acting in the '36 Drama Club play and in the '37 English Club production. In the former Bob truly parodied the performance as the masterful judge in a stirring courtroom scene. A Junior at the Dunham Institution, he has been active in all of the productions since his first year and bids to continue in his new office, Brother Paul, also a '36 graduate, has progressed through the grades with Bob. Although not quite as active in high school he has now earned his spurs in the New Hampshire Univ. In addition to holding membership in the Mask and Dagger, Paul is active on the staff of "The New Hampshire," the college newspaper. A third member of the now familiar Nolan is Joe. He was graduated from Newton High in 1934 and from the University in 1939. According to reports he is traveling for a well-known business concern. In a final note of optimism Mr. J. J. Nolan, their illustrious father, promises to have a couple of more sons to carry on the fine record which is gradually turning into ivy-covered tradition. We promise to make room for their accomplishments in this column when they are of sufficient magnitude.

A prominent business man in the person of Oliver Aldrich Wyman, a soph at Bowdoin College, is apparently the answer to four years at the Maine college. Oliver, or Bunt, lives at 25 Walden st., in Newtonville and attended N. H. S. until 1938. In high school he served as treasurer of several organizations. Of major importance was his position as Advertising Manager of the Newtonite, school weekly. Other interests centered around French, dramatics, aviation, and politics, a varied extra-curricular life. As a freshman at Bowdoin he took part in football and track. This was for the sport and not the glory, however. Then Bunt came through with a splendid A on the final exam in French to gain the coveted Goodwin French Prize, a substantial award given annually to the best student in this language. His fraternity affiliations are to the Eta Chapter of Theta Delta Chi. The recent election of "the business man" to the position of Assistant Business Manager of the Bowdoin Orient carries on a fraternity tradition and further his progress along the much-travelled highway of commercial enterprise. We would not be too surprised to see Bunt holding options on the Alma Mater if present success can be considered any just prognosticator.

Enrolled in the Class of '43 at Boston College is another former classmate, Alex Skene of Winghamton rd., Newtonville. He is pursuing courses which will lead to a degree in either Sociology or Economics. During the past winter Al played first-string defense on the Eagles ice hockey team. If all goes well it is not being to "out on the limbish" to predict a varsity berth on one of the better Eastern college teams. We can only wish him every success in his first severe test at the Heights.

Next week we hope to have some information on the much-heralded Green Key Houseparty held every Spring at Dartmouth College; and Ivy Day festivities at the College of Poets, Bowdoin.

that $20,000 would be a fair price. City Engineer Noyes said that only 2 acres are needed now, but the plan calls for a reservoir that will be only 1/4 of a future reservoir system. The plan calls for a plot of some 5 1/2 acres with a drive all around it. Councilman Estabrook said the whole plan is only to supply a few residents with water after they had built houses on the highest places in this city. He thought it would be cheaper for the city to supply them with windmills, or haul water to them. He didn't believe in spending so much for a few residents.

Donovan Will Run For Delegate

Charles S. Donovan, for many years chairman of the Ward 22 Democratic Committee, is waging a vigorous campaign as candidate to the State Committee. Politics has been his avocation since he became of voting age, and although he has never been a candidate for elective office, since 1934 the voting strength of the Brighton-Allston Ward has increased over 3000 under his leadership. He says he believes in clean politics and since he became chairman of the Ward Committee, there has been no case of illegal voting or registration in the ward. Mr. Donovan, a native of Charlestown, is 42 years of age, a lawyer, the father of three children, and a World War veteran. He is a member of the Presentation Club and the advisory board of the Brighton School Centre.

Prank Causes Wreck of Auto

A very dangerous practice which should be stopped by Newton police, that of boys blowing imitation police whistles to "have some fun" with drivers of automobiles, caused a car to be wrecked at Newton Centre on Tuesday night. Fortunately the driver escaped serious injury. John Rowpakus of 17 Sparhawk st., Brighton, was driving along Centre st., near Ballard st., when someone blew a whistle. Thinking that he had been signalled by a policeman, Rowpakus turned suddenly, the car swerved and hit a tree, and was turned upside down. Other motorists have complained of boys blowing whistles in this section, apparently to confuse motorists.

Those who will appear in the entertainment are: Mrs. Allen Hubbard and Miss Gae Palmer, violinists; Miss Doris Doehler, cellist; Mrs. Doris Davis, pianist; Mrs. S. Elsie Greenwood, soprano; Mrs. William H. Brackett, reader.

Miss Esther M. Walker of the Family Service Bureau returned on Sunday from a week at Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, where she opened her newly acquired home, a house nearly one hundred years old which was built by Captain Valentine J. Pease. Captain Pease was the captain of the Whaler on which Herman Melville, author of Moby Dick, Typee, etc., sailed as a young man from New Bedford. It was purely by accident that years later Melville's daughter Mrs. Henry B. Thomas of Orange, N. J. purchased this same house for a summer home. The house came into possession of Miss Walker in February of this year when Miss Walker and Mrs. Abel Osborne—a granddaughter of Herman Melville—arranged to swap their prospective houses at Edgartown. As her first house guests over the week-end, Miss Walker entertained three members of the staff of the Family Service Bureau: Miss Margaret McNelly, Miss Anne P. Ogilby, and Miss Eleanor Vanderhoof.

Recently Mr. Frank H. Damon of Damon Hall has come into possession of an odd antique ring. The ring is a sample of the work of the Aztecs, a tribe which dominated the highlands of Southern Mexico at the time of the Spanish conquest. The silver and gold ring is so large that it reaches from the knuckle to the first joint. It is rectangular in shape and is believed to be eight hundred years old. The ring was recently dug up in the excavations of an Aztec temple, and was undoubtedly buried in the ground several hundred years ago.

In the center of the ring is a dragon rampant above the eight figure of the rainbow. This dragon expresses evil. The dull gold border extends around three sides and is chased with human hearts which symbolize the people who were killed for sacrifice to the rain god. At the top is a helmet which is of a different style of art from the rest of the ring. There are two theories for this; first, that the original makers probably put it there to make fun of the Spaniards; second, that the Spaniards found the ring and put the helmet on it to signify the Spaniards' rule over Mexico. Owl's heads of wisdom are on either side of the symbolic seal and show that the Aztecs often had a sense of humor and higher intelligence. Even though this ring may not be of great value, it is one of Mr. Damon's prized possessions.

Kept Barking Dogs, Appeals $10 Fine

Miss Helen B. Kelly of 1597 Centre st., Newton Highlands, was fined $10 by Judge Murray in the Newton court last Thursday for keeping a barking dog. She appealed. For the past two years there has been controversy between Miss Kelly, who, with her sister, resides at 1597 Centre st., and John W. Barrett who resides at 1593 Centre st. The dogs involved are cocker spaniels, and Miss Kelly owns four of them—two males and two females. For some years prior to 1938 she kept one or two dogs at her home, and in the spring of 1938 had two grown dogs and five pups there. Then the trouble between her and Mr. Barrett started over the barking of several dogs. The latter made a complaint and the case came before Judge Murray in the Newton court last February. It was continued and the patrolman on the route was instructed to observe conditions.

Hermann Hoffman of 1601 Centre st. also testified that the Kelly dogs have been a nuisance. Judge Murray commented that the only place a person has for relaxation is his home, and that there is nothing that more interferes with that relaxation than the barking of a dog or a group of dogs. Mr. Barrett agreed that he would be willing to have Miss Kelly keep one dog at her home, and the judge tried to have her compromise on this basis, but she refused.

LYDIA PARTRIDGE WHITING CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its regular meeting at the Newton Highlands Club Workshop on April 23rd. Dessert was served at 1:30 p. m. to a large number of members and their guests.

The Regent, Mrs. James F. Cooper conducted the business meeting.

The guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Irving R. Merriam, State Historian, who brought the greetings of the State Society and told of the work of her department. She showed a medal presented to the Mass. Society for having contributed more historical documents to the National Society in the past year than any other state.

An enjoyable musical program, in charge of Mrs. R. John Henderson, was given by 19 members of the chorus of the Newton Auxiliary of the American Legion who sang several groups of songs. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Sadie Horne and Mrs. Anne Embree.

Miss Cora Stanwood Cobb, a charter member of the Chapter, gave an interesting talk on the life and accomplishments of Frances E. Willard.

Red Cross Accepting Funds For Norway Relief

Every hour brings news from overseas which makes more and more imperative the great humanitarian work of the Red Cross. That situation in many countries need their intense efforts does not need to be told.

The invasion of Norway has brought widespread suffering to thousands of helpless men, women, and children. The spotlight for the moment is there, just as a few weeks or months ago it flooded the devastated areas of Poland, Finland, and finally, of Denmark. With the end of war in some sections, it does not mean that distress is ended. Impoverishment caused by compulsory migration of hundreds of thousands, with only the possessions which they can easily carry, forces a long, silent, agonizing period of adjustment upon countless human beings.

Plans are being considered for chartering airplanes to fly relief supplies to Norway and Poland. Ships carrying supplies have been re-routed, since the Scandinavian invasion, to Genoa, and future shipments will be made through the same Italian port. But in addition to Norwegian Relief, the Red Cross, according to its National chairman, Norman Davis, is preparing for the possibility that it may have to send relief ships to Greenland, if normal communications become disrupted because of the war. "Flying under the Red Cross flag they would be allowed to pass unchallenged through the war zones," says Mr. Davis.

Not the least of the great service of the Red Cross is the effort to handle inquiries concerning the welfare of friends or relatives of Americans, and to assist them to leave the war zone. What this means to anxious, heart-sick families, here and there, is indescribable.

To carry forward these services the Red Cross is pouring forth its funds. How soon these services may be doubled through news received hourly can only be guessed. Those who may wish to contribute toward this work will find the local chapter of the Red Cross glad to receive their gifts. They may designate the gift as for Norwegian Relief, if they desire, or to general relief of all war sufferers. Each chapter has been authorized to bring the great need to the attention of those who may be moved to help do something about alleviating the terrible distress due to the war. The Newton Chapter of Red Cross is located at 12 Austin st., Newtonville; telephone Newton North 2717. They will welcome contributions for this

MODERN MIRACLE HOUSE OPENS AT GAS COMPANY SHOWROOM

The newest creation in streamlined kitchen and basement planning is being presented in a Modern Miracle House just completed in the main building of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company at 100 Arlington Street.

The entire two-room Cape Cod house has been erected in the street front display room, including exterior garden and shrubbery effects. In addition to their novel color harmonies and beauty, the modern kitchen and basement within the house serve as examples of the new planning for more efficient and time-saving work in today's homes. In the model kitchen every thought has been given to eliminating steps and unnecessary motion in preparing food. The basement, however, which is naturally in its motif, is designed for leisure and relaxation—resulting from automatic house heating and water heating appliances, which operate entirely without effort on the user's part.

The kitchen includes the newest health-cooking CP gas range, affording such advantages as automatically-lighting top and oven burners, simmer and high-speed top burners, smokeless broiling, precision baking and roasting, and other features.

The 1940 Servel Electrolux gas refrigerator is also presented, with its already famous ten-year guarantee on the complete refrigerating system, made possible by this appliance's freedom from moving parts and its unique method of providing low-cost cold from a tiny gas flame.

The Miracle House was designed throughout by the Gas Company's planning expert whose services are regularly available to home owners, architects and builders.

The home will be open for inspection weekdays from 8:45 until 5 o'clock and on Saturdays from 8:45 a.m. until noon.

Officers Elected And Reports Heard

Twentieth Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. Arthur G. Hosmer, first president, and five past presidents were guests of honor on the occasion of the Twentieth Birthday Luncheon Party of the Community Service Club of West Newton, on Wednesday, April 17th, in the Parish House of the Society Church. It was a happy gathering attended by a large number of Charter members, as well as many others who have joined this Club through the years. Each of the honor guests, Mrs. Hosmer, Mrs. Thomas Weston, Jr., Mrs. Frank S. Tower, Mrs. Henry B. Patrick, Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, and Mrs. Harold C. Seranton, were seated at a special past-president's table, and each brought a personal birthday greeting. Mrs. Leslie Pratt Phinney, retiring president, seated at the head table, with her full board of directors as mistress of ceremonies. She read a cordial birthday message from Mrs.

Patrick J. Duncan, president of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, and called attention to the beautiful vase of spring flowers, holding the place of honor in the center of the beautifully-decorated long table, which had been sent by this sister club.

Many clever and appropriate jingles, read during the course of the luncheon by various members of the committee in charge of the day's festivities, were written by the incoming president, Mrs. Hortense Creede Railsback, and called forth enthusiastic applause. The sing of "God Bless America," "Auld Lang Syne," and "Happy Birthday," with Mrs. J. W. F. Macdonald at the piano, added another happy touch to the luncheon hour. The crowning feature, however, was the arrival of a beautiful birthday cake of three tiers, artistically decorated and surrounded by twenty glowing candles. This was rolled into the center of the room, while all sang "Happy Birthday to You," by a petite little girl in red-checked gingham and a big red hurr ribbon, impersonated by Mrs. Marion Kingsbury.

Each person present found a fresh gardenia at her luncheon place; and green sprays and brightly-lighted candles on the tables added to the charm and beauty of the whole setting. Mrs. Edmund Anthony, Mrs. George H. Fernald, Jr., and Mrs. William E. Worcester were the committee who were responsible for an anniversary of beauty, charm, and enjoyment.

At the Annual business meeting following the luncheon, Mrs. Leslie P. Phinney presided. The usual annual reports were read, which showed continued growth and activity in friendly, social club life, as well as outstanding social and community service. The following list of officers was presented by Mrs. Roy Merchant, chairman of the Nominating committee, and they were unanimously elected for the coming Club year: President, Mrs. Walter S. Railsback; vice-presidents, Mrs. Austin H. Decatur, Mrs. William E. Worcester, and Mrs. Holcombe J. Brown; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Kilburn; recording secretary, Miss Ethel Woodberry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Max Hamant; clerk, Mrs. William Blanchard; and auditor, Mrs. Renel Beach.

Newtonville Junior Woman's Club

Fifty-one members of the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club were present at the Wellesley Inn, Wellesley, for the Annual Meeting, Tuesday, April 16, at 6:30 p. m. Miss Fredede Littlefield, the president, conducted the meeting and the entertainment. While the Club members were seated at dinner, they played a game between courses, by writing "Can You Imagine" and their name on a slip of paper, and then, upon exchange of papers, writing an activity to take place ten years from now. The results were very amusing. Following the dinner, Miss Helen Hayden, recording secretary, read the annual report for 1939-1940; and the treasurer, Miss Dorothy Renel, gave her report. Miss Littlefield then called for speeches from the following chairmen: Miss Marjorie MacMillan, Yearbook; Miss Sigrid Moller, Scrapbook; Miss Barbara Tolman, Program; Miss Ruth McKusick, Publicity; Miss Margaret Edwards, House; Miss Louise Balch, Nominating; and Miss Janet Elliott, Drama chairman. At the close of this series of short speeches, Miss Janet Elliott entertained the Club with piano selections, and the Club members joined in with singing.

Miss Louise Balch then introduced the nominees for the offices to be filled for the 1940-1941 season, and explained the two amendments proposed to be made to the By-Laws of the Club. The first of these was to include a Hospitality committee, a Scrapbook committee, and a Yearbook committee. The second was to accept the oakleaf as the symbol of the Club. The oakleaf was chosen because it represents patriotism and hospitality.

Ballots were passed next and the Club members voted by secret ballot. While the votes were being counted, Miss Littlefield introduced the guests of the evening, Mrs. John Tolman, who is to be Senior adviser next year; Mrs. Thomas Walters, outgoing adviser; and Mrs. Perry McGill, who is to be Junior adviser. The Club presented Mrs. Walters with a silver dish, which had an engraved inscription, in appreciation of her two years' service.

After a five-minute recess and group singing, Miss Balch announced the results of the voting, and the president declared the following elected: President, Dorothy Burns; vice-president, Janet Gwillim; recording secretary, Eleanor Hanlon; corresponding secretary, Bette Stockwell; treasurer, Caro Stevenson; Social chairman, Phyllis Stafford; Philanthropic chairman, Margaret Edwards; Publicity, Janet Elliott; Program chairman, Marjorie Gilbert; Literature and Drama, Constance Upham; Scrapbook chairman, Edith Cummings; House chairman, Helen Hayden; Yearbook chairman, Thelma Robbins; and Hospitality, Dorothy Seeley Woodruff. Both amendments were accepted.

At the conclusion of the announcement of the voting results, Miss Dorothy Burns, the new president, took over the gavel and led the Club in singing "Auld Lang Syne," to close the second Annual Meeting of the Newtonville Junior Woman's Club.

met at the Sudbury Tea House on the Boston Post Road.

Following a short business meeting conducted by the outgoing president, Mrs. Eugene Ufford, the Program chairman for the coming year, Mrs. Charles E. Valentine presented the list of topics which her committee had chosen and allotted to the Club members, on the general subject, "Our Southern Neighbors", including the South American countries.

The Club had hoped to honor their two Charter members, Mrs. William H. Blood and Miss Lilla Rider, at this meeting, by decorating them with the medals commemorating the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, but the supply of medals had fallen short, and until they are received from Washington this must be deferred.

Mrs. James G. Patterson, 338 Central st., was elected as president of the Club; Mrs. Walter R. Amesbury, vice-president; Mrs. Paul H. Tardivel, secretary; and Mrs. J. Arthur Freeman, treasurer. Joining Miss Alice Dike, who has another year to serve as director, are Mrs. William P. de Witt and Mrs. George F. Howland.

The chairman, who also became members of the Executive Board, are Mrs. Charles Valentine, Mrs. Edmund I. Wilson, Motor committee; Mrs. Albert A. Palmateer, Social; and Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, Press chairman.

Of Course You Care

OF course you care what happens to your family when you are no longer here to take care of them. Perhaps you already have all the life insurance you need... but in too many cases the loss of the breadwinner means unnecessary hardship for his family.

It's foolish, of course, to buy more life insurance than you can afford. But it surely is worth while to get maximum family protection from the money you can afford to spend.

Before you decide how much life insurance you can afford, find out about Savings Bank Life Insurance providing safe family protection at low cost for thirty people who are willing to buy "over-the-counter" insurance at the savings bank.

A History of Telephone Development In Newton For the Past 60 Years

Eugene Andrews, Retired Telephone Manager, Gives Interesting Facts

Starting in this week's issue of the GRAPHIC and to be continued in succeeding weeks is a very interesting history of the development of the telephone in Newton. It is written by Eugene H. Andrews, a retired employee of the Telephone Company, who served as a manager. Mr. Andrews made a comprehensive research in obtaining the information which he gives in this history.

The writer in his search for historical data relating to the story of telephony in this city consulted the complete file of the early press in the Free Public Library and interviewed certain old residents conversant with the conditions prevailing upon the establishment of telephone service here. He is appreciative of the courtesies extended to him by the personnel of the Library and of the office of "The Newton Graphic."

AN EARLY ACCOUNT OF ONE OF DR. BELL'S DEMONSTRATIONS

The earliest reference to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell's demonstration of telephony over a wire of several miles extent, on January 31, 1877, appeared in the editorial column of the Newton Journal under date of February 24, 1877, as follows:

"The Telephone"

"Professor Bell continues to have great success in his experiments with the telephone. Recently a conversation took place over the wires between Professor Bell and others at Boston and Mr. Watson at Malden, about six miles distant. Mr. Watson was heard distinctly by all the company at Boston, even a whisper being audible. What was more remarkable, Mr. Watson was able to distinguish between the voices at the Boston end, he calling at least one gentleman by name as he commenced to speak. A young lady at the Malden end of the wire then sang 'The Last Rose of Summer' to which the company in Boston listened with rapt attention. The effect is described as simply charming. Think of a song being heard six miles! What wonderful things we shall hear when every man will be in a position to turn on the electricity in his house with the same facility with which he turns on the water or gas."

"It appears from a description of the telephone given by a correspondent of the Boston Transcript that it is not exactly the speaker's voice that is heard at the other end of the wire, but rather a reproduction of it by the instrument operated upon by electrical undulations similar to air undulations which ordinarily convey sound. The telephone is thus described by this writer:

TELEPHONE LECTURE AND DEMONSTRATION

It was nearly a year later that the Newton Journal again had reference to telephonic matters in its issue of January 19, 1878 under the Editorial Column, reading,

"The Coming Telephone Entertainment"
"This entertainment at the Eliot Church Vestry next Tuesday evening will be one of the most popular and instructive of the season."

The accompanying advertisement of the presentation was as follows:
"Grand Telephone Exhibition
In the Large Lecture Room of Eliot Church
Tuesday Evening January 22
at 7 1/2 o'clock
The Wonders of the Telephone Fully Explained by Frederick Allen Gower
An Associate of Professor Bell of Boston
The Telephone Harp
made by Mason & Hamlin will be located in a house at Kenrick Park connected by wires over which music will be performed on the Harp will be carried and heard in all parts of the room and speaking in the same manner.

Tickets 35 cts; three for One Dollar For Sale at Roger's Drug Store."

The Newton Journal of January 26, 1878 gave the further account of this event.

"Exhibition of the Telephone"
"The lecture given by Frederick A. Gower before the Eliot Literary Association, upon the telephone, was much enjoyed by the large audience assembled. The lecturer traced the origin of this great invention, showing that Professor Bell spent many years of study and experiment before reaching it to its present state of perfection. He explained the construction and working of the telephone, and illustrated it by conversing with his associate, Mr. M. J. Matthews, who was located at the other end of the wire at Kenrick Park, (Mr. Trowbridge's residence) one quarter of a mile distant. The cornet playing and singing were easily heard and the tones recognized. But the telephone harp more perfectly showed the power of the telephone in transmitting sound. The tones were so distinct that the audience might have danced to the music. Several tunes were played by Mr. Matthews. The lecturer spoke of the practical uses to which the telephone would be put, and related several instances where lives had already been saved by its use."

Mr. Thomas Watson, Dr. Bell's associate in his "The Birth and Babyhood of the Telephone" says of the lecturer that after a time the lecture platform became unremunerative.

"Gower went to England later. There he made some slight modification of Bell's telephone, called it the 'Gower-Bell' telephone and made a fortune out of his hyphenated atrocity. Later he married Lillian Nordica, although she soon separated from him. He became interested in ballooning. The last scene of his life before the curtain dropped showed a balloon over the waters of the English Channel. A fishing boat hailed him.

"Where are you bound?"
"Gower's voice replies, 'To London.' Then the balloon and its pilot drifted into the mist forever."

The Newton Republican of January 25, 1878 also gave a most comprehensive and detailed account of Mr. Gower's demonstration and the great interest in the new invention manifested by the large audience present.

Day Jr. High School

At the pre-vacation assembly, Billy Perkins of the ninth grade introduced Mr. Kenneth Tiffin of Newton whose hobby is the raising of beautiful Great Danes.

The history of these dogs is interesting for as far back as 3000 B.C. they were used as bear hounds and about 500 B.C. coins have been found bearing a resemblance to this dog. Today, in our country, they are chiefly used as guards whereas, in many parts of Europe, they are used to pull milk carts.

Interestingly, the speaker told us how he has been striving to create the more perfect Great Dane through scientific plotting and planning. Mr. Tiffin demonstrated his address in such a way as to create a better understanding of the best manner in which to raise dogs and the positive fascination and knowledges to be gained from such a hobby.

With the closing of the third term, the following pupils are on the Effort Honor Roll.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, April 28.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth me; thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever: forsake not the works of thine own hands" (Psalms 138:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him" (Colossians 3:9-10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The real man is spiritual and immortal, but the mortal and imperfect so-called 'children of men' are counterfeits from the beginning, to be laid aside for the pure reality. This mortal is put off, and the new man or real man is put on, in proportion as mortals realize the Science of man and seek the true model" (p. 409).

Dedicate District Court at Waltham

The new building which houses the Second Middlesex District Court at Waltham was formally dedicated last Saturday afternoon. This district includes Waltham, Watertown and Westfield. The presiding justice is P. Sarsfield Cunniff of Watertown, whose law office has been at 263 Washington street, Newton for the past 35 years. It was through his efforts that the new court house was erected. It is located on Linden street, near Main street, in the Beaver Brook section of Waltham and cost over $200,000. It is of Colonial type architecture.

The dedication exercises were attended by 740 persons, including State and County officials, representatives of the three communities included in the court district, and numerous judges and court officials. Senator David I. Walsh was the principal speaker. He stressed the importance of keeping courts free from any taint of corruption, saying that next to the House of God, the court house is most important in the preservation of our civilization and to permit injustice in civic temples of justice is one of the most serious sins against society.

Police Capture Former Convict

Wesley Fanion, 39, of 346 Temple st., West Roxbury, who was paroled from State Prison on February 7, was captured in the Highland Gravel Company pit off Wiswall st., Oak Hill, on Wednesday night by Patrolmen Turner and McCardle of the Newton police. The policemen saw an automobile parked near the gravel company building about 11 o'clock. Fanion alighted from the car as the police approached and fled down a sand pit. Patrolman Turner fired a shot in the direction of the fugitive, and Fanion surrendered. The patrolmen found that he had taken about 15 gallons of gasoline from a pump nearby, and had also allegedly stolen tools from a shed. Fanion was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and his case continued until May 2. He had served a term at Concord prison for burglary, and at State Prison for larceny.

Councilman Roffe stirred up a rumour at the Council meeting on Monday night by presenting a petition asking for the resumption of the barge carry children from the South Side to the high school. It stopped running 4 weeks ago because Mr. Newell was losing money operating it. Councilman Frokmal said the School Committee had voted down a proposal to have the city pay part of the cost of running this barge, and he would also oppose it. He said he is against voting such money for the people of Wards 5 and 6. Other wards do not receive this advantage. President Hyde said the School Committee would vote for the appropriation at its next meeting. He said the barge had been running since the early days of the high school, when the advanced school at Newton Centre was given up on condition that the scholars from there would be given transportation. The railroad fare from the South Side for children was from 12 to 15 cents and many poor children thus could not afford to go from Upper Falls or Oak Hill.

Councilman Dutch said that 4 miles is the farthest point any child has to come from, and most do not have to walk more than 2 1/2 miles. This is not far for a child 15 years old. When he was a boy he thought nothing of walking 4 or 5 miles to go home with a pretty girl after a hard day's work. Mr. Collins said that most of the pupils to be carried are girls, many of whom are delicate. A motion was passed to confer with railroad officials about the price of tickets.

Tiles for Flooring Used as Far Back as in 1222

In the Middle ages tiles were used for flooring in the churches and other religious buildings. One of the earliest references to tiles is a grant given by King Don Fernando el Santo, in 1222, for the making of tiles at Talavera, Spain. The manufacture of tiles in that country was imported by the Arabs. It attained great importance in the Middle ages and is an industry in Spain. It is said the Alcazar, at Seville, is a perfect museum of tiles. They form the principal color motif of the gardens and attract as much attention if not more than the flowers, observes a writer in the Los Angeles Times.

In England we find they attained a high degree of excellence as early as the Thirteenth century and continued being manufactured until the Sixteenth and even in some districts until the Eighteenth century. Some of the English tiles of this time are most interesting. On one from Liverpool are the words, "Prosperity to the United States."

In the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries tile was largely used in Holland. The Dutch tiles often show Chinese influence in design, as the Delft painters were familiar with oriental porcelain brought to their country by the Dutch East India companies. Besides a blue on a white ground, other colors such as green, purple and yellow were used with a heavy layer of glaze over all. Bouquets of flowers and birds after the Chinese manner were subjects for decoration. Their paintings declined in the Eighteenth century.

South American Jungles Motherland of Our Corn

The long-sought motherland of maize, historically the chief agricultural crop in America, is credited to the jungles of Central South America, according to reports to the National Academy of Science by investigators from the Texas Agricultural Experiment station, writes Thomas R. Henry in the Washington Star.

Corn was found by the earliest white explorers as a cultivated crop throughout the Americas, essentially in the form known today. It had been domesticated by the Indians from some wild grain, but there was no trace of this hypothetical ancestor. Only two grasslike growths remotely approached it—teosinte in Mexico and Central America and tripsacum, which grows through the southern United States southward through Mexico.

Neither approached very closely the cultivated maize which seems to have spread from two centers where two great civilizations had been built up upon it—Peru and Yucatan. The Texas botanists conducted their search for the origin of corn within the grain itself by microscopic study of the structure of its chromosomes, or bundles of genes which are the units of heredity.

These show clearly, they report, that it could have descended neither from teosinte or tripsacum. The former grass, they maintain, actually appears to be a later development from a cross between maize and tripsacum. There are tripsacum elements in the corn grown in the United States, but these apparently are only later developments.

Ask Mayor Goddard To Aid Fight For Lower Edison Rates

A campaign to bring about reductions in the rates charged by the Boston Edison Company was started on March 12 by the Somerville Board of Aldermen. Members of city and town governments in the area served by the Boston Edison Company have been asked to cooperate in this campaign. The following is a copy of a letter sent to Mayor Goddard of Newton by Harold A. Palmer, chairman of the Somerville Aldermanic committee.

April 20, 1940.
Hon. Paul Goddard, Mayor
Newton, Mass.

My dear Mayor Goddard:

A real fight against the excessively high rates charged by Boston Edison is in progress. It was begun by the appointment on March 12th of a Somerville Aldermanic Committee, of which I am chairman, to investigate Boston Edison revenue and expenses, and to take action aimed toward a real rate reduction. This same committee has just completed successfully a series of conferences with Boston Elevated officials that resulted in a re-adjustment of fare zones and the practical restoration of a 5 cent local fare for all of Somerville. One week later, on a Motion of Commissioner Richard T. Grant, the Commissioners of the State Department of Public Utilities voted to conduct an investigation of the Boston Edison. That investigation is now going on.

Because the congested communities of Greater Boston obviously are paying rates designed to carry the load for the 20-odd small towns served by Boston Edison, an active and aggressive participation in the current investigation by the Department of Public Utilities is necessary if the interest of the people of these communities is to be protected. It is the contention of this committee that a 25 per cent cut in residential rates in the 40 cities and towns served by Boston Edison could be made immediately if the expenditures of the company were restored to the level of 1934; and there was room for improvement in 1934.

It is our further belief, supported by the records of the Boston Edison Company, that the $3,128,344.46 increase in operating expenses since 1934 is directly ascribable to ruthless extravagance or blundering mismanagement. This is apparent when, under analysis, it is seen that this increase of 43 per cent is explained only by a 2 per cent increase in the number of meters installed. The explanation is absurd. It is safe to say that if any of the 40 municipalities served by Boston Edison have followed Edison's financial example, the Commonwealth would have been forced to take over.

The members of my committee have requested the Public Utilities Commission to investigate thoroughly every item of increased expenditure in the past six years of Edison management; to compel the Edison Co. to break down its earnings and expenses according to communities served; and to set up individual rates for each community. This should provide a saving of over 30 per cent in residential rates for electrical consumers in the cities and towns adjacent to Boston.

May we ask your cooperation with us in our effort to force a substantial reduction in Boston Edison rates.

Very sincerely yours,
HAROLD A. PALMER,
Chairman.

Stevens For Commissioner

Col. Charles A. Stevens of Lowell, former Republican floor leader in the State Senate is a candidate for County Commissioner for Middlesex County. He attended Harvard University, was elected to the Senate in 1930 and became majority floor leader in his second term. For 25 years he was engaged in the wool business. Now he is a manager of real estate and trustee of the City Institution for Savings in Lowell. He is president of the Lowell Taxpayers Association. He managed the campaign which elected Congressman Edith N. Rogers to carry on her husband's work in Congress.

During the World War Colonel Stevens served as adjutant general on the staff of General Edwards of the 26th Division. During his legislative service he received endorsements from labor, farm, business and civic groups for progressive and independent work. In 1931 he started the drive for the new super-highway between Lowell and Boston. He believes that the Northern end of Middlesex County should be represented on the Board of County Commissioners, and that his broad experience in political, business and civic affairs qualifies him for the position he seeks.

Four other occupants of the cars claimed injuries.

Because Haig Kervokian of Buckley ave., Jamaica Plain was kind-hearted last Thursday afternoon and swerved his car on the turnpike at Newton Highlands to avoid hitting a dog, the car hit the curb on the reservation, turned upside down and was badly damaged. Kervokian escaped injury. Bandits Take $653 From Newton Man

Nicola Biancardi, 50, of 311 Kendrick st., Newton, was held up late Saturday night by three armed bandits and robbed of $653. He owns a market at Hyde Park and was on his way home, accompanied by his son, John. As the Biancardis drove along a lonely stretch of Bald Knob rd., Hyde Park, a man stepped from along-side a parked car and waved a flashlight. Thinking that the parked car had broken down, Biancardi stopped his car to give assistance. The man with the flashlight brandished a revolver at the Biancardis, and a second bandit, also armed, menaced the would-be Good Samaritans. A third bandit then appeared from behind the parked car. The robbers searched the elder Biancardi and took $653 in cash from him. The three then entered their car and made a getaway. Obviously they were acquainted with Biancardi's method of taking his cash home with him Saturday nights, and the route he followed.

Cigarette Blamed For House Fire

A fire in a bedroom at the home of William Haley, 198 Concord st., Newton Lower Falls, last Friday night brought firemen in response to an alarm from Box 51 at 7:23 p. m. The fire was confined to the room in which it started. A cigarette igniting a bed was supposed to be the cause. The motor in an electric refrigerator at the home of Robert Turner, 46 Cloverdale rd., Newton Highlands, became overheated last Friday afternoon and caused smoke to circulate through the house. Ladder 2 responded to a telephone call.

Early Colonial Loyalty

Faith to colonies, cities and towns, as well as loyalty and patriotism to government, was demanded of the colonial citizenry 258 years ago, and there were fines levied for disparaging remarks against them. The WPA historical records survey found that a resident of Boston was fined 10 shillings in 1681 because he said that "three monsters were born in Boston." The technical charge was lying.

Coil Springs Increase Riding Comfort Of Olds

Coil springs replaced front leaf springs in Oldsmobiles five years ago when the "knee-action" type of spring suspension was adopted. In 1939 and again in 1940, in all oldsmobiles, the Series Sixty, Series Seventy and the Custom "S" Cruiser models, Oldsmobile has employed coil springs in the rear as well as the front, with outstanding success.

"Not only has riding comfort been increased, but coil springs have proved to be the most trouble-free type of spring suspension Oldsmobile has ever employed," said P. E. Frost, President of Frost Motors, Inc., of 399 Washington St., Newton. "Replacements have proved unknown except, of course, in cases where cars have been involved in serious accidents," he added.

"This is not surprising, however, when you consider what a reliable mechanism the coil spring has long since proved itself to be. Take for example the coil springs used to close the valves in your motor. In 10,000 miles of travel, each spring compresses and opens more than fifteen million times. Each spring is fully compressed each time in this service, while the coil spring that cushions the Oldsmobile body is only slightly deflected in most road shocks."

"Furthermore, the use of coil springs greatly simplified the problem of chassis lubrication. Where the Oldsmobile of two years ago had 39 points of chassis lubrication, the 1940 Oldsmobile has only 21. And as every motorist knows, a leaf spring wears out much faster than a coil spring. The best of care, while it is literally impossible for a coil spring to squeak, its action remains the same for the life of the car, and Oldsmobile owners receive the same well-cushioned ride in hot weather or cold. The Oldsmobile Series Sixty is the only car in the low price field having coil springs all around, rear as well as front."

Dial Telephone Service Cost $4,000,000

Pointing out that most of the residential communities to the west of Boston had more telephones in service last December than at any previous year-end period, indicating that they are showing a steady development, John J. Robinson, president of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, said this week that one of the most important construction jobs in the company's territory is being undertaken in this section.

The job to which he referred, the combining of all the Newtons into one telephone exchange with dial service next fall, will cost the company approximately $4,000,000, with $2,500,000 to be spent this year to complete the project.

Mr. Robinson was a luncheon speaker at the Parker House before a group of more than 100 supervisory telephone men and women representing the staff of the company's Metropolitan Division and the west district of the Metropolitan Division. This district comprises Brookline, Wellesley, Lexington, Belmont, Lincoln, Needham, Brighton, Allston, Newton, Waltham, West Roxbury, Watertown and Arlington.

Although the company as a whole had approximately 10,500 fewer telephones last December than in December 1931, this district had 6,443 more telephones than at any previous year-end period.

The district comprises approximately 415,000 residents, with 122,073 telephones, or 30 telephones for every 100 residents, and counts 370,000 outward calls daily and 122,000 calls each year.

Besides providing Newton and Watertown telephone users with dial service, the Telephone Company plans several less important pieces of construction. About $32,000 will be spent this year on a $63,000 project to build underground cable between Waltham and Weston; approximately $44,000 will be spent for new underground facilities in Brookline; and nearly $17,000 will be spent to bury wires and cables near Lake st. and in Roxbury.

Speaking specifically of the west district of the Metropolitan Division, Mr. Robinson said that it has a personnel of 1,274 trained telephone men and women and a fleet of 144 motor vehicles. It comprises about 6.4 per cent of the population of the entire territory the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company serves and about 9.7 per cent of the total number of telephones the company serves.

JOHN J. ROBINSON
 President New Eng. Tel. & Tel. Co.

Of the Telephone Company generally, Mr. Robinson said that although total revenues of $77,251,142 during 1939 were the highest in history, operating expenses and taxes kept net earnings down to a moderate figure.

Mr. Robinson was introduced to the meeting by Eugene E. Cronin, Manager of the west district of the Metropolitan Division.

Among the telephone men and women from Newton who attended the meeting were the following:
 Chief Operators: Miss Curran, Miss Dalton, Miss Cornell and Miss Lowell.
 Traffic Managers: Mr. W. Smith, Mr. E. Steptoe, Mr. G. Hutton and Mr. E. J. Campbell, Manager.

Newton Children Enter Paintings In Exhibition

Three Newton children have entered paintings in the fifth annual "Young America Paints" Art Exhibition opening tomorrow at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. More than fifteen hundred paintings representing some five hundred public, private, and parochial schools throughout the United States and Canada will be shown. The exhibition, which will continue through May 12th, is sponsored by a committee of directors of art education in the public school systems.

The paintings are by children from kindergarten through high school age. Media used includes chalk, water color, fresco, tempera, powder paint, finger paint, crayon and pen and ink. The majority of subjects are related to the things children enjoy most in their everyday life and a love of airplanes seems to have replaced the traditional enthusiasm for locomotives. At the conclusion of the exhibition the display is broken up into small units which are exhibited all over the United States.

The Newton children whose paintings have been entered are Donald Charlton, aged 11, of the Carr School; Maurice Burg, aged 8, of the Ward School, and Mary Gaffney, aged 7, of the Hyde School.

NEWTON SPORTS

BASEBALL NINE TO OPEN AGAINST WALTHAM

As spring comes rolling around again local sports fans turn their thoughts to the chances of the orange and black baseball team. The opening game with Arlington on Monday was postponed because of rain. Nevertheless Coach Jeff Jones gave his charges a practice game on Wednesday when the local nine journeyed to Cambridge to play the Harvard Freshman. The score was 5-2 in favor of the frosh as the orange and black only collected two hits off of the combined efforts of three pitchers. Newton's infield came up with some marvelous fielding in the losing cause. Newton was not expected to do as well as they did against Harvard as most of the crimson boys have had at least one or two years of prep school playing. A former Newton graduate, Jay Gleason, opened for the crimson and pitched for three innings when he was relieved by Walstein. Walstein in turn was relieved at the start of the seventh by another pitcher. Newton's two hits were collected by Brooks Heath and Bud Hurley. Heath was playing Shadow Collett's outfield position as the latter has been sidelined this week with an infected leg. Al Tashjian and Harold Ryan shared the pitching duties for the orange and black. Both Phil Fessenden at third and Edson "Rusty" Forbes at first came up with beautiful stops. The latter was picking the ball out of the dirt like a professional most of the afternoon.

Newton is waiting for the "Play Ball" cry today and hopes to open the Suburban League season by beating Waltham High. The probable pitcher for this afternoon will be Ak Tashjian or Hal Ryan.

NEWTON TENNIS TEAM BEATS MILTON 6-2

The Newton High tennis team extended a long streak of tennis victories at the expense of Milton Academy on Wednesday opening the 1940 season. Capt. Phil Scanton led the locals to an easy 6-2 win by taking his singles match from Everts, 6-4, 11-9, and pairing with Jack Lynch to defeat Everts and Wallace of Milton, 6-2, 6-3. Wallace of Milton defeated Stan Collinson of Newton 6-3, 7-5. Stewart of Milton beat Bill Betz 6-4, 3-6, 6-3. Jack Lynch, Bill Woods, and Bill Powers, all of Newton beat their opponents rather easily to give Newton five points. The doubles matches found Phil Scanton and Jack Lynch paired, and Stan Collinson and Bill Betz paired against Everts and Wallace, and Stewart and Goodale respectively. Today Newton plays Huntington School at the courts in Newton provided they are dry and are in playing condition.

Newton's second team is well capable of carrying through the season undefeated by following the example of their varsity. The second team includes Bob Guild, Art Peabody and Stewart Wilson.

ARCHERS HOLD FIRST QUARTERLY SHOOT

The Newton Archers held their first quarterly shoot of the season last Friday at the Newton Centre range. Thirty-two men, sixteen women and nine junior archers participated in the various rounds. The Cummings handicapped cup was won by Dorothy Matthews. Joseph Kimber won the Mariner cup, Mildred Johnson the Visitor cup, and Thelma Phillips the Carno Clark cup for Newton members. Fannie Cheney of Worcester won the Columbia cup. Winners of the novelty shoot were Walter Van Pyl of Worcester, Dorothy Case, and Betsy Cushman, the latter in the junior event.

High totals for the day were made by James Waterman of Waltham for the men, Fannie Cheney for the women, and Joseph Kimber for the juniors. Postal Employees Bowling League Presents Prizes

Banquet Ends Successful Season; Attended By Over 200

The Bowling League of the postal employees of the postoffice in the Newtons, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley and Needham celebrated the conclusion of its first and successful season on Monday night by holding a banquet and Ladies' Night in the Blue Room of the Hotel Westminister with 200 in attendance. Joe Smith opened the post-prandial program and introduced as toastmaster Supt. Joseph O'Gorman of the Newton postoffice, president of the bowling league. Mr. O'Gorman said that when he came to the Newton office years ago he found that in this city are ten post offices where men had been working for as long as 35 years without having become acquainted with many of the employees in other post-offices. Believing that social contacts between the employees of the various offices would be beneficial and enjoyable, Supt. O'Gorman organized summer outings which were enjoyed by the postal employees of the Newtons and surrounding communities, and last year the bowling league was organized. The league schedule covered 27 weeks and all games were played according to schedule. Mr. O'Gorman paid tribute to the officers and members of the league for their co-operation.

Edward H. Powers of the Newton Graphic, a former postal employee, reminisced on working conditions which existed in the post office department when he entered the service, congratulated the postal employees for having improved these unfair conditions, and also commended the letter-carriers and postal clerks of the Newtons and vicinity for taking steps to promote friendly social activities. Assistant Postmaster John Gleavy of the Boston Postal District said "Get-togethers" by postal employees are necessary to eliminate the former practise of postal employees travelling along different roads, sometimes selfishly. He said all the various organizations of postal employees should unite for joint effort to combat adverse conditions which will ensue if the present war spreads throughout the world, as seems probable. He praised Postmaster Tague as a humane man, the door of whose office is open to all his subordinates.

Supt. O'Gorman advocated a Brotherhood of Postal Employees. He introduced Johnny Kelly of Arlington, the famous Marathon runner. Kelly spoke briefly. He said most Marathon runners engage in that tortuous sport primarily because they love this form of athletics, and secondly in hope of being victorious. He said the real test in the Marathon race is when one has to run on heart and courage the last four miles from Cleveland Circle to the finish line, fighting for one's self with endurance diminishing.

Postmaster Peter Tague told of his efforts while a member of Congress to bring about better working conditions for postal employees. He introduced the bills which gave these Federal employees compensatory time off, and pay for overtime. He characterized the Post Office Department as the greatest activity of the Federal Government, and the one in closest touch with the public. He asserted that postal employees should belong to the organizations which procured the benefits they now enjoy, and he praised Postmaster General Farley as one who had helped postal workers. Mr. Tague told of the poignant memory he retains of the day in Congress when he voted to have this country enter the World War in 1917, and expressed the hope that the U. S. A. will stay out of the present war. He said that we must be prepared for any eventualities, however.

Prizes totalling $260 were distributed. Newton Highlands won first prize, $40; Newton, second prize, $30; Waltham, third prize, $25; Wellesley Hills, fourth prize, $20; West Newton, fifth prize, $10. Pat Hanson of Newtonville won first individual prize, $15; Kilroy, Newton Highlands, second, $10; Connolly, Newton Highlands, third, $5. Bryden of Newton won the prize of $5 for the highest string without strikes or spares. Prizes of $15 were awarded to Newton Highlands for the highest single string and to Newton for the highest three strings. Prizes of $5 each to the highest bowler on each team were awarded to Foley, Newton Highlands; O'Gorman, Newton; Whelan, Waltham; Clark, Wellesley Hills; McKenna, Newtonville; Swift, West Newton; McGuinness, Newton Centre; McKinney, Waban; McGilvary, Watertown; Hall, Needham. Root of Needham and Mogan of Waltham won $10 each for the highest individual single and three string scores.

The final standing of the teams was:

moded residences, and have subdivided these properties into house lots smaller than were characteristic of Newton in the past, and of a size which would lessen the attractiveness of this city as a fine residential community, unless steps will be taken to prevent further real estate developments of this character.

The hearing next Thursday evening will consider the changing of land in Ward 2 from private to single residence district in the vicinity of Lowell ave., from Elm rd. to Commonwealth ave. and such other areas as may come before the hearing. Under the proposed change in the zoning ordinance, the city will be divided into districts of seven classes, to be known respectively as Single Residence A, Single Residence B, Single Residence C, Private Residence, General Residence, Business, Manufacturing.

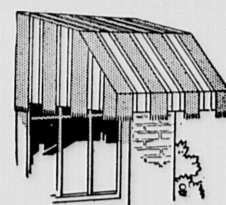

In Single Residence A districts hereafter each dwelling house must be erected on a lot not less than 15,000 square feet in area, and with a width not less than 100 feet. In Single Residence B districts, the minimum size of house lots will be 10,000 square feet, and the width 80 feet. In Single Residence C, Private, and General Residence districts, the minimum size of house lots will be 7,000 square feet, and the width 70 feet. In case of a back lot having less than the minimum frontage on a street, or a lot fronting on street line having a curvature with a radius less than 200 feet, the required lot width shall be measured along the setback line; and in all other cases along the street line.

No new building shall be erected, and no existing building shall be altered, extended or reconstructed to provide living quarters for more than one family for each 3,000 square feet of lot area in private residence districts, and for each 1,200 square feet of lot area in general residence, business and manufacturing districts. In single residence and private residence districts the set-back shall be 25 feet, and in general residence districts, and in the case of dwelling houses in business and manufacturing districts, the set-back shall be 15 feet; except that no building need be set back more than the average of the set-backs of the buildings on the lots adjacent thereto, on either side in single residence districts A and B.

Tin Roof Treatments

Most roofing authorities recommend that the tin roof be painted immediately upon installation and every two years thereafter. In cases where galvanized sheet metal is used, the roof should not be painted for at least six months after installation, as this period of conditioning is necessary to free the surface from acids which otherwise may tend to loosen the paint. Peeling paint should be removed with steel wool, sandpaper, or a wire brush before new paint is applied.

You'll be No. 1 in the Hit Parade!

Look at Buick First...you can afford it and you can't know what your 1940 money ought to buy until you've seen this really modern automobile.

The Buick SPECIAL 4-door touring sedan $8996*

YES sir, something pretty special happens when you turn the ignition switch, press down the starter treadle, and drive away for the first time in your very own 1940 Buick.

In that little act, you get a years-long jump on the other fellow. You step out in a car that is not only 1940's biggest news but the pattern for many a season to come.

Style? Just look the others over and see how they mirror the trend Buick began a good twelve months ago!

Size? Just try to find a car as long as Buick, bumper to bumper, for the same money—or one with a frame as husky and rigid.

Comfort? Performance? Appointments?

No other automobile on the highway has soft, coil springs all around that never need lubrication—combined with the steady rolling firmness of torque-tube drive.

No one else gives you a gas-thrifty Dynaflex valve-in-head straight-eight engine, much less a power plant electro-balanced after assembly to completely new standards of smoothness.

No one else has a Two-Way Direction Signal with automatic cut-off included—or standard equipment so complete that even a lock for the gas tank is included in the price.

And with the whole range of Buick's six dozen 1940 features you'll be No. 1 in the automotive hit parade, leading the way in a car that will still be full of big news many a season hence.

And the price? Unbelievable as it sounds, the Buick SPECIAL carries a price lower than some sixes—which spells "buy" in any man's language. Why not learn more right now from the nearest Buick dealer?

Prices begin at

for Business Coupe—Sedan prices start at $955—

*delivered at Flint, Mich. Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.
